MEMORANDUM

TO: Scott S. Harris
Clerk, Supreme Court of the United States

FROM: Honorable John D. Bates
Chair, Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure

DATE: October 23, 2023

RE: Summary of Proposed New and Amended Federal Rules of Procedure

This memorandum summarizes proposed amendments to the Federal Rules of Appellate, Bankruptcy, and Civil Procedure and the Federal Rules of Evidence. All of the proposed amendments and new rules have been approved by the relevant advisory committees, the Judicial Conference Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure (Standing Committee), and the Judicial Conference of the United States at its September session. If adopted by the Court and transmitted to Congress by May 1, 2024, absent congressional action, the amended and new rules will take effect on December 1, 2024.

I. Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure 32, 35, and 40, and the Appendix of Length Limits

The amendments transfer the contents of Rule 35 (En Banc Determination) to amended Rule 40 (Panel Rehearing; En Banc Determination), bringing together in one place the relevant provisions dealing with rehearing. These amendments clarify the distinct criteria for rehearing en banc and panel rehearing and eliminate redundancy. Amendments to Rule 32 (Form of Briefs, Appendices, and Other Papers) and the Appendix of Length Limits reflect the transfer of the contents of Rule 35 to Rule 40.

II. The Restyled Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure; amendments to Rules 1007, 4004, 5009, 7001, and 9006; and new Rule 8023.1

The Restyled Bankruptcy Rules

The Bankruptcy Rules are the fifth and final set of national procedural rules to be restyled. They were published for comment over several years in three sets. After each publication period, the Advisory Committee on Bankruptcy Rules made recommendations for final approval based on the comments received, the advice of the style consultants, and the drafting guidelines and principles used in restyling the Appellate, Criminal, Civil, and Evidence Rules. The amendments include formatting changes to achieve clearer presentation and stylistic changes to replace inconsistent, ambiguous, repetitive, or archaic words.

The style changes are not intended to change substantive meaning. Accordingly, the Advisory Committee took special efforts to reject any proposed style improvement that might result in a substantive change. In addition, the Advisory Committee declined to modify certain well-established and widely used phrases, such as “meeting of creditors,” on the ground that doing so would be unduly disruptive to practice and expectations. Finally, the restyling project did not change any rule language that has been enacted by Congress.

Rules 1007 (Lists, Schedules, Statements, and Other Documents; Time to File), 4004 (Granting or Denying a Discharge), 5009 (Closing a Chapter 7, 12, 13, or 15 Case; Declaring Liens Satisfied), and 9006 (Computing and Extending Time; Motions)

Amended Rule 1007(b)(7) no longer requires that the debtor submit an official form as evidence of taking a postpetition course in personal financial management. Instead, a certificate of completion issued by the course provider must be filed. Amendments to other parts of Rule 1007 and to Rules 4004, 5009, and 9006 change references to the “statement” embodied in the current Official Form to “certificate.”

Rule 7001 (Types of Adversary Proceedings)

The amendment to Rule 7001(a) creates an exception from the general requirement that the recovery of money or property be sought by adversary proceeding. It would allow an individual debtor to instead proceed by motion under § 542(a) when seeking the turnover of tangible personal property such as an automobile, thereby permitting a swifter resolution of the matter.

Rule 8023.1 (Substitution of Parties)

Rule 8023.1 deals with the substitution of parties in the appeal of a bankruptcy case to a district court or a bankruptcy appellate panel. Bankruptcy Rule 7025, Civil Rule 25, and Appellate Rule 43 do not apply to such appeals, and the new rule is intended to fill that gap. It is modeled on Appellate Rule 43.

III. Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12

Rule 12 (Defenses and Objections: When and How Presented; Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings; Consolidating Motions; Waiving Defenses; Pretrial Hearing) prescribes the time to serve responsive pleadings. The amendment to Rule 12(a) clarifies that a different response time set by statute supersedes the times to serve responsive pleadings set by paragraphs (1), (2), and (3).

IV. New Federal Rule of Evidence 107; and Rules 613, 801, 804, and 1006

New Rule 107 (Illustrative Aids)

This new rule, originally published for public comment as a new subsection of Rule 611, provides standards for illustrative aids, allowing them to be used at trial after the court balances the utility of the aid against the risk of unfair prejudice, confusion, and delay. Following publication, the Advisory Committee determined that the contents of the rule were better contained in a new Rule 107 rather than a new subsection of Rule 611, reasoning that Article VI is about witnesses, and illustrative aids are often used outside the context of witness testimony.

Rule 613 (Witness’s Prior Statement)

The amendment to Rule 613 provides that extrinsic evidence of a prior inconsistent statement is not admissible until the witness is given an opportunity to explain or deny the statement. To allow flexibility, the amended rule gives the court the discretion to dispense with the requirement.

Rule 801 (Definitions That Apply to This Article; Exclusions from Hearsay)

The amendment to Rule 801(d)(2) resolves a dispute among the courts about the admissibility of statements by the predecessor-in-interest of a party-opponent, providing that such a hearsay statement would be admissible against the declarant’s successor-in-interest.

Rule 804 (Exceptions to the Rule Against Hearsay—When the Declarant Is Unavailable as a Witness)

Rule 804(b)(3) provides a hearsay exception for declarations against interest. In a criminal case in which a declaration against penal interest is offered, the rule requires that the proponent provide “corroborating circumstances that clearly indicate the trustworthiness” of the statement. The amendments to Rule 804(b)(3) require that, in assessing whether a statement is supported by corroborating circumstances, the court must consider not only the totality of the circumstances under which the statement was made, but also any evidence supporting or undermining it.

Rule 1006 (Summaries to Prove Content)

The amendments to Rule 1006 clarify that a Rule 1006 summary is admissible whether or not the underlying evidence has been admitted. The Rule 1006 amendments work with new Rule 107 to distinguish a summary of voluminous evidence (which summary is evidence and is governed by Rule 1006) from a summary that is designed to help the trier of fact understand admissible evidence (which summary is not evidence and is governed by new Rule 107).

Thank you for considering these proposed changes. Please let me know if any additional information would assist the Court's review.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE

Rule 32. Form of Briefs, Appendices, and Other Papers

* * * * *

(g) Certificate of Compliance.

(1) Briefs and Papers That Require a Certificate. A brief submitted under Rules 28.1(e)(2), 29(b)(4), or 32(a)(7)(B)—and a paper submitted under Rules 5(c)(1), 21(d)(1), 27(d)(2)(A), 27(d)(2)(C), or 40(d)(3)(A)—must include a certificate by the attorney, or an unrepresented party, that the document complies with the type-volume limitation. The person preparing the certificate may rely on the word or line count of the word-processing system used to prepare the document. The certificate must state the number of words—or the number of lines of monospaced type—in the document.

- (2) Acceptable Form. Form 6 in the Appendix of Forms meets the requirements for a certificate of compliance.

Committee Note

Changes to subdivision (g) reflect the consolidation of Rules 35 and 40.

Rule 35. (Transferred to Rule 40)

Committee Note

For the convenience of parties and counsel, the amendment addresses panel rehearing and rehearing en banc together in a single rule, consolidating what had been separate, overlapping, and duplicative provisions of Rule 35 (hearing and rehearing en banc) and Rule 40 (panel rehearing). The contents of Rule 35 are transferred to Rule 40, which is expanded to address both panel rehearing and en banc determination.

Rule 40. Panel Rehearing; En Banc Determination

(a) A Party's Options. A party may seek rehearing of a decision through a petition for panel rehearing, a petition for rehearing en banc, or both. Unless a local rule provides otherwise, a party seeking both forms of rehearing must file the petitions as a single document. Panel rehearing is the ordinary means of reconsidering a panel decision; rehearing en banc is not favored.

(b) Content of a Petition.

(1) Petition for Panel Rehearing. A petition for panel rehearing must:

- (A) state with particularity each point of law or fact that the petitioner believes the court has overlooked or misapprehended; and
- (B) argue in support of the petition.

- (2) Petition for Rehearing En Banc. A petition for rehearing en banc must begin with a statement that:
- (A) the panel decision conflicts with a decision of the court to which the petition is addressed (with citation to the conflicting case or cases) and the full court’s consideration is therefore necessary to secure or maintain uniformity of the court’s decisions;
 - (B) the panel decision conflicts with a decision of the United States Supreme Court (with citation to the conflicting case or cases);
 - (C) the panel decision conflicts with an authoritative decision of another United States court of appeals (with citation to the conflicting case or cases); or

(D) the proceeding involves one or more questions of exceptional importance, each concisely stated.

(c) When Rehearing En Banc May Be Ordered. On their own or in response to a party's petition, a majority of the circuit judges who are in regular active service and who are not disqualified may order that an appeal or other proceeding be reheard en banc. Unless a judge calls for a vote, a vote need not be taken to determine whether the case will be so reheard. Rehearing en banc is not favored and ordinarily will be allowed only if one of the criteria in Rule 40(b)(2)(A)-(D) is met.

(d) Time to File; Form; Length; Response; Oral Argument.

- (1) Time. Unless the time is shortened or extended by order or local rule, any petition for panel rehearing or rehearing en banc must be filed within 14 days after judgment is entered—or, if the panel later amends its decision (on rehearing or otherwise), within 14 days after the amended decision is entered. But in a civil case, unless an order shortens or extends the time, the petition may be filed by any party within 45 days after entry of judgment or of an amended decision if one of the parties is:
- (A) the United States;
 - (B) a United States agency;

(C) a United States officer or employee sued in an official capacity; or

(D) a current or former United States officer or employee sued in an individual capacity for an act or omission occurring in connection with duties performed on the United States' behalf— including all instances in which the United States represents that person when the court of appeals' judgment is entered or files that person's petition.

(2) Form of the Petition. The petition must comply in form with Rule 32.

Copies must be filed and served as Rule 31 prescribes, except that the number of filed copies may be prescribed by local rule or altered by order in a particular case.

- (3) Length. Unless the court or a local rule allows otherwise, the petition (or a single document containing a petition for panel rehearing and a petition for rehearing en banc) must not exceed:
 - (A) 3,900 words if produced using a computer; or
 - (B) 15 pages if handwritten or typewritten.
- (4) Response. Unless the court so requests, no response to the petition is permitted. Ordinarily, the petition will not be granted without such a request. If a response is requested, the requirements of Rule 40(d)(2)-(3) apply to the response.

(5) Oral Argument. Oral argument on whether to grant the petition is not permitted.

(e) If a Petition Is Granted. If a petition for panel rehearing or rehearing en banc is granted, the court may:

(1) dispose of the case without further briefing or argument;

(2) order additional briefing or argument;

or

(3) issue any other appropriate order.

(f) Panel's Authority After a Petition for Rehearing En Banc. The filing of a petition for rehearing en banc does not limit the panel's authority to take action described in Rule 40(e).

- (g) Initial Hearing En Banc. On its own or in response to a party's petition, a court may hear an appeal or other proceeding initially en banc. A party's petition must be filed no later than the date when its principal brief is due. The provisions of Rule 40(b)(2), (c), and (d)(2)-(5) apply to an initial hearing en banc. But initial hearing en banc is not favored and ordinarily will not be ordered.

Committee Note

For the convenience of parties and counsel, the amendment addresses panel rehearing and rehearing en banc together in a single rule, consolidating what had been separate, overlapping, and duplicative provisions of Rule 35 (hearing and rehearing en banc) and Rule 40 (panel rehearing). The contents of Rule 35 are transferred to Rule 40, which is expanded to address both panel rehearing and en banc determination.

Subdivision (a). The amendment makes clear that parties may seek panel rehearing, rehearing en banc, or both. It emphasizes that rehearing en banc is not favored and that rehearing by the panel is the ordinary means of reconsidering a panel decision. This description of panel rehearing is by no means designed to encourage petitions for panel rehearing or to suggest that they should in any way be routine, but merely to stress the extraordinary nature of rehearing en banc. Furthermore, the amendment's discussion of rehearing petitions is not intended to diminish the court's existing power to order rehearing sua sponte, without any petition having been filed. The amendment also preserves a party's ability to seek both forms of rehearing, requiring that both petitions be filed as a single document, but preserving the court's power (previously found in Rule 35(b)(3)) to provide otherwise by local rule.

Subdivision (b). Panel rehearing and rehearing en banc are designed to deal with different circumstances. The amendment clarifies the distinction by contrasting the required content of a petition for panel rehearing (preserved from Rule 40(a)(2)) with that of a petition for rehearing en banc (preserved from Rule 35(b)(1)).

Subdivision (c). The amendment preserves the existing criteria and voting protocols for ordering rehearing en banc, including that no vote need be taken unless a judge calls for a vote (previously found in Rule 35(a) and (f)).

Subdivision (d). The amendment establishes uniform time, form, and length requirements for petitions for panel rehearing and rehearing en banc, as well as uniform provisions for responses to the petition and oral argument.

Time. The amended Rule 40(d)(1) preserves the existing time limit, after the initial entry of judgment, for filing a petition for panel rehearing (previously found in Rule 40(a)(1)) or a petition for rehearing en banc (previously found in Rule 35(c)). It adds new language extending the same time limit to a petition filed after a panel amends its decision, on rehearing or otherwise.

Form of the Petition. The amended Rule 40(d)(2) preserves the existing form, service, and filing requirements for a petition for panel rehearing (previously found in Rule 40(b)), and it extends these same requirements to a petition for rehearing en banc. The amended rule also preserves the court's existing power (previously found in Rule 35(d)) to determine the required number of copies of a petition for rehearing en banc by local rule or by order in a particular case, and it extends this power to petitions for panel rehearing.

Length. The amended Rule 40(d)(3) preserves the existing length requirements for a petition for panel rehearing (previously found in Rule 40(b)) and for a petition for rehearing en banc (previously found in Rule 35(b)(2)). It also preserves the court's power (previously found in Rule 35(b)(3)) to provide by local rule for other length limits on combined petitions filed as a single document, and it extends this authority to petitions generally.

Response. The amended Rule 40(d)(4) preserves the existing requirements for a response to a petition for panel rehearing (previously found in Rule 40(a)(3)) or to a petition for rehearing en banc (previously found in Rule 35(e)). Unsolicited responses to rehearing petitions remain prohibited, and the length and form requirements for petitions and responses remain identical. The amended rule also extends to rehearing en banc the existing statement (previously found in Rule 40(a)(3)) that a petition for panel rehearing will ordinarily not be granted without a request for a response. The use of the word "ordinarily" recognizes that there may be circumstances where the need for rehearing is sufficiently clear to the court that no response is needed. But before granting rehearing without requesting a response, the court should consider that a response might raise points relevant to whether rehearing is warranted or appropriate that could otherwise be overlooked. For example, a responding party may point out that an argument raised in a rehearing petition had been waived or forfeited, or it might point to other relevant aspects of the record that had not previously been brought specifically to the court's attention.

Oral argument. The amended Rule 40(d)(5) extends to rehearing en banc the existing prohibition (previously found in Rule 40(a)(2)) on oral argument on whether to grant a petition for panel rehearing.

Subdivision (e). The amendment clarifies the existing provisions empowering a court to act after granting a petition for panel rehearing (previously found in Rule 40(a)(4)), extending these provisions to rehearing en banc as well. The amended language alerts counsel that, if a petition is granted, the court might call for additional briefing or argument, or it might decide the case without additional briefing or argument. Cf. Supreme Court Rule 16.1 (advising counsel that an order disposing of a petition for certiorari “may be a summary disposition on the merits”).

Subdivision (f). The amendment adds a new provision concerning the authority of a panel to act while a petition for rehearing en banc is pending.

Sometimes, a panel may conclude that it can fix the problem identified in a petition for rehearing en banc by, for example, amending its decision. The amendment makes clear that the panel is free to do so, and that the filing of a petition for rehearing en banc does not limit the panel's authority.

A party, however, may not agree that the panel's action has fixed the problem, or a party may think that the panel has created a new problem. If the panel amends its decision while a petition for rehearing en banc is pending, the en banc petition remains pending until its disposition by the court, and the amended Rule 40(d)(1) specifies the time during which a new rehearing petition may be filed from the amended decision. In some cases, however, there may be reasons not to allow further delay. In such cases, the court might shorten the time for filing a new petition under the amended Rule 40(d)(1), or it might shorten the time for issuance of the mandate or might order the immediate issuance of the mandate under Rule 41. In addition, in some cases, it may be clear that any additional petition for panel rehearing would be futile and would serve only to delay the proceedings. In such cases, the court might use Rule 2 to suspend the ability to file a new petition for panel rehearing. Before doing so, however, the court ought to consider the difficulty of predicting what a party filing a new petition might say.

Subdivision (g). The amended Rule 40 largely preserves the existing requirements concerning the rarely invoked initial hearing en banc (previously found in Rule 35). The time for filing a petition for initial hearing en banc (previously found in Rule 35(c)) is shortened, for an appellant, to the time for filing its principal brief. The other requirements and voting protocols, which were identical as to hearing and rehearing en banc, are incorporated by reference. The amendment adds new language to remind parties that initial hearing en banc is not favored and ordinarily will not be ordered.

Length Limits Stated in the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure

This chart summarizes the length limits stated in the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure. Please refer to the rules for precise requirements, and bear in mind the following:

- If you use a word limit or a line limit (other than the word limit in Rule 28(j)), you must file the certificate required by Rule 32(g).

Committee Note

For the convenience of parties and counsel, the amendment addresses panel rehearing and rehearing en banc together in a single rule, consolidating what had been separate, overlapping, and duplicative provisions of Rule 35 (hearing and rehearing en banc) and Rule 40 (panel rehearing). The contents of Rule 35 are transferred to Rule 40, which is expanded to address both panel rehearing and en banc determination.

40 (3) ~~Response.~~ Unless the court requests, no 41 response to a petition for panel rehearing is 42 permitted. Ordinarily, rehearing will not be

61 panel rehearing must:

62 (A) state with particularity each point of 63 law or fact that the petitioner believes 64 the court has overlooked or 65 misapprehended; and

66 (B) argue in support of the petition.

67 (2) ~~a handwritten or typewritten petition for~~ 68 ~~panel rehearing must not exceed 15 pages.~~

69 Petition for Rehearing En Banc. A petition
70 for rehearing en banc must begin with a 71 statement that:

72 (A) the panel decision conflicts with a 73 decision of the court to which the 74 petition is addressed (with citation to 75 the conflicting case or cases) and the 76 full court’s consideration is therefore 77 necessary to secure or maintain

78 uniformity of the court’s decisions;
79 (B) the panel decision conflicts with a 80 decision of the United States Supreme 81 Court (with citation to the conflicting 82 case or cases);
83 (C) the panel decision conflicts with an 84 authoritative decision of another 85 United States court of appeals (with 86 citation to the conflicting case or 87 cases); or
88 (D) the proceeding involves one or more 89 questions of exceptional importance,
90 each concisely stated.

91 (c) When Rehearing En Banc May Be Ordered. On 92 their own or in response to a party's petition, a 93 majority of the circuit judges who are in regular 94 active service and who are not disqualified may order
95 that an appeal or other proceeding be reheard en
96 banc. Unless a judge calls for a vote, a vote need not 97 be taken to determine whether the case will be so 98 reheard. Rehearing en banc is not favored and 99 ordinarily will be allowed only if one of the criteria
100 in Rule 40(b)(2)(A)-(D) is met.

101 (d) Time to File; Form; Length; Response; Oral
102 Argument.

103 (1) Time. Unless the time is shortened or 104 extended by order or local rule, any 105 petition for panel rehearing or 106 rehearing en banc must be filed 107 within 14 days after judgment is 108 entered—or, if the panel later amends

109 its decision (on rehearing or 110 otherwise), within 14 days after the 111 amended decision is entered. But in a 112 civil case, unless an order shortens or 113 extends the time, the petition may be 114 filed by any party within 45 days after 115 entry of judgment or of an amended 116 decision if one of the parties is:
117 (A) the United States;
118 (B) a United States agency;
119 (C) a United States officer or 120 employee sued in an official 121 capacity; or 122 (D) a current or former United 123 States officer or employee
124 sued in an individual capacity
125 for an act or omission
126 occurring in connection with 127 duties performed on the 128 United States' behalf—129 including all instances in 130 which the United States

131 represents that person when 132 the court of appeals' judgment 133 is entered or files that person's 134 petition.

135 (2) Form of the Petition. The petition
136 must comply in form with Rule 32.
137 Copies must be filed and served as 138 Rule 31 prescribes, except that the 139 number of filed copies may be 140 prescribed by local rule or altered by 141 order in a particular case.

142 (3) Length. Unless the court or a local 143 rule allows otherwise, the petition (or 144 a single document containing a

145 petition for panel rehearing and a 146 petition for rehearing en banc) must 147 not exceed:

148 (A) 3,900 words if produced using 149 a computer; or

150 (B) 15 pages if handwritten or 151 typewritten.

152 (4) Response. Unless the court so 153 requests, no response to the petition is 154 permitted. Ordinarily, the petition
155 will not be granted without such a 156 request. If a response is requested, the 157 requirements of Rule 40(d)(2)-(3)
158 apply to the response.

159 (5) Oral Argument. Oral argument on 160 whether to grant the petition is not 161 permitted.

162 (e) If a Petition Is Granted. If a petition for 163 panel rehearing or rehearing en banc is 164 granted, the court may:

165 (1) dispose of the case without further 166 briefing or argument;

167 (2) order additional briefing or argument;

168 or

169 (3) issue any other appropriate order.

170 (f) Panel's Authority After a Petition for 171 Rehearing En Banc. The filing of a petition 172 for rehearing en banc does not limit the 173 panel's authority to take action described in 174 Rule 40(e).

175 (g) Initial Hearing En Banc. On its own or in 176 response to a party's petition, a court may 177 hear an appeal or other proceeding initially en
178 banc. A party's petition must be filed no later 179 than the date when its principal brief is due.

180 The provisions of Rule 40(b)(2), (c), and 181 (d)(2)-(5) apply to an initial hearing en banc.
182 But initial hearing en banc is not favored and 183 ordinarily will not be ordered.

Committee Note

For the convenience of parties and counsel, the amendment addresses panel rehearing and rehearing en banc together in a single rule, consolidating what had been separate, overlapping, and duplicative provisions of Rule 35 (hearing and rehearing en banc) and Rule 40 (panel rehearing). The contents of Rule 35 are transferred to Rule 40, which is expanded to address both panel rehearing and en banc determination.

Subdivision (a). The amendment makes clear that parties may seek panel rehearing, rehearing en banc, or both. It emphasizes that rehearing en banc is not favored and that rehearing by the panel is the ordinary means of reconsidering a panel decision. This description of panel rehearing is by no means designed to encourage petitions for panel rehearing or to suggest that they should in any way be routine, but merely to stress the extraordinary nature of rehearing en banc. Furthermore, the amendment's discussion of rehearing petitions is not intended to diminish the court's existing power to order rehearing sua sponte, without any petition having been filed. The amendment also preserves a party's ability to seek both forms of rehearing, requiring that both petitions be filed as a single document, but preserving the court's power (previously found in Rule 35(b)(3)) to provide otherwise by local rule.

Subdivision (b). Panel rehearing and rehearing en banc are designed to deal with different circumstances. The amendment clarifies the distinction by contrasting the required content of a petition for panel rehearing (preserved from Rule 40(a)(2)) with that of a petition for rehearing en banc (preserved from Rule 35(b)(1)).

Subdivision (c). The amendment preserves the existing criteria and voting protocols for ordering rehearing en banc, including that no vote need be taken unless a judge calls for a vote (previously found in Rule 35(a) and (f)).

Time. The amended Rule 40(d)(1) preserves the existing time limit, after the initial entry of judgment, for filing a petition for panel rehearing (previously found in Rule 40(a)(1)) or a petition for rehearing en banc (previously found in Rule 35(c)). It adds new language extending the same time limit to a petition filed after a panel amends its decision, on rehearing or otherwise.

Form of the Petition. The amended Rule 40(d)(2) preserves the existing form, service, and filing requirements for a petition for panel rehearing (previously found in Rule 40(b)), and it extends these same requirements to a petition for rehearing en banc. The amended rule also preserves the court's existing power (previously found in Rule 35(d)) to determine the required number of copies of a petition for rehearing en banc by local rule or by order in a particular case, and it extends this power to petitions for panel rehearing.

Length. The amended Rule 40(d)(3) preserves the existing length requirements for a petition for panel rehearing (previously found in Rule 40(b)) and for a petition for rehearing en banc (previously found in Rule 35(b)(2)). It also preserves the court's power (previously found in Rule 35(b)(3)) to provide by local rule for other length limits on combined petitions filed as a single document, and it extends this authority to petitions generally.

Response. The amended Rule 40(d)(4) preserves the existing requirements for a response to a petition for panel rehearing (previously found in Rule 40(a)(3)) or to a petition for rehearing en banc (previously found in Rule 35(e)). Unsolicited responses to rehearing petitions remain prohibited, and the length and form requirements for petitions and responses remain identical. The amended rule also extends to rehearing en banc the existing statement (previously found in Rule 40(a)(3)) that a petition for panel rehearing will ordinarily not be granted without a request for a response. The use of the word "ordinarily" recognizes that there may be circumstances where the need for rehearing is sufficiently clear to the court that no response is needed. But before granting rehearing without requesting a response, the court should consider that a response might raise points relevant to whether rehearing is warranted or appropriate that could otherwise be overlooked. For example, a responding party may point out that an argument raised in a rehearing petition had been waived or forfeited, or it might point to other relevant aspects of the record that had not previously been brought specifically to the court's attention.

Subdivision (e). The amendment clarifies the existing provisions empowering a court to act after granting a petition for panel rehearing (previously found in Rule 40(a)(4)), extending these provisions to rehearing en banc as well. The amended language alerts counsel that, if a petition is granted, the court might call for additional briefing or argument, or it might decide the case without additional briefing or argument. Cf. Supreme Court Rule 16.1 (advising counsel that an order disposing of a petition for certiorari “may be a summary disposition on the merits”).

Subdivision (f). The amendment adds a new provision concerning the authority of a panel to act while a petition for rehearing en banc is pending.

Sometimes, a panel may conclude that it can fix the problem identified in a petition for rehearing en banc by, for example, amending its decision. The amendment makes clear that the panel is free to do so, and that the filing of a petition for rehearing en banc does not limit the panel’s authority.

A party, however, may not agree that the panel’s action has fixed the problem, or a party may think that the panel has created a new problem. If the panel amends its decision while a petition for rehearing en banc is pending, the en banc petition remains pending until its disposition by the court, and the amended Rule 40(d)(1) specifies the time during which a new rehearing petition may be filed from the amended decision. In some cases, however, there may be reasons not to allow further delay. In such cases, the court might shorten the time for filing a new petition under the amended Rule 40(d)(1), or it might shorten the time for issuance of the mandate or might order the immediate issuance of the mandate under Rule 41. In addition, in some cases, it may be clear that any additional petition for panel rehearing would be futile and would serve only to delay the proceedings. In such cases, the court might use Rule 2 to suspend the ability to file a new petition for panel rehearing. Before doing so, however, the court ought to consider the difficulty of predicting what a party filing a new petition might say.

Subdivision (g). The amended Rule 40 largely preserves the existing requirements concerning the rarely invoked initial hearing en banc (previously found in Rule 35). The time for filing a petition for initial hearing en banc (previously found in Rule 35(c)) is shortened, for an appellant, to the time for filing its principal brief. The other requirements and voting protocols, which were identical as to hearing and rehearing en banc, are incorporated by reference. The amendment adds new language to remind parties that initial hearing en banc is not favored and ordinarily will not be ordered.

FEDERAL RULES OF APPELLATE PROCEDURE

Rules Recommended for Approval and Transmission

The Advisory Committee on Appellate Rules recommended for final approval proposed amendments to Appellate Rules 32, 35, and 40, and the Appendix of Length Limits. The Standing Committee unanimously approved the Advisory Committee's recommendations.

Rule 32 (Form of Briefs, Appendices, and Other Papers), Rule 35 (En Banc Determination), Rule 40 (Petition for Panel Rehearing), and Appendix of Length Limits

The Advisory Committee completed a comprehensive review of the rules governing panel and en banc rehearing, resulting in proposed amendments transferring the content of Rule 35 to Rule 40, bringing together in one place the relevant provisions dealing with rehearing. The proposed amendments to Rule 40 would clarify the distinct criteria for rehearing en banc and panel rehearing, and would eliminate redundancy. Rule 32 and the Appendix of Length Limits would be amended to reflect the transfer of the contents of Rule 35 to Rule 40. The proposed amendments were published in August 2022. The Advisory Committee reviewed the public comments and made no changes.

NO RECOMMENDATIONS PRESENTED HEREIN REPRESENT THE POLICY OF THE JUDICIAL CONFERENCE
UNLESS APPROVED BY THE CONFERENCE ITSELF.

Recommendation: That the Judicial Conference approve the proposed amendments to Appellate Rules 32, 35, and 40, and the Appendix of Length Limits as set forth in Appendix A, and transmit them to the Supreme Court for consideration with a recommendation that they be adopted by the Court and transmitted to Congress in accordance with the law.

RE: Report of the Advisory Committee on Appellate Rules

DATE: May 11, 2023

I. Introduction

The Advisory Committee on Appellate Rules met on Wednesday, March 29, 2023, in West Palm Beach, Florida. * * *

The Advisory Committee seeks final approval of proposed amendments to Rules 35 and 40 dealing with rehearing, along with conforming amendments to Rule 32 and the Appendix on Length Limits. (Part II of this report.)

* * * * *

II. Action Item for Final Approval—Rules 35 and 40 (18-AP-A)

The Advisory Committee began a comprehensive review of Rule 35, dealing with hearing and rehearing en banc, and Rule 40, dealing with panel rehearing, in the spring of 2018. In the spring of 2021, the Advisory Committee approved a modest set of proposed changes to those Rules and asked the Standing Committee to publish them for public comment. At the June 2021 meeting of the Standing Committee, however, members of the Standing Committee asked about several provisions of those Rules. The Advisory Committee's defense of most of the questioned provisions was that they were in the existing Rules and that the Advisory Committee was attempting to minimize the changes proposed.

The Standing Committee remanded the matter to the Advisory Committee with instructions to take a freer hand in improving the Rules. The Advisory Committee did so, producing proposed amendments transferring the content of Rule 35 to Rule 40, thereby bringing together in one place the relevant provisions dealing with rehearing. These proposed amendments clarify the distinct criteria for rehearing en banc and panel rehearing and eliminate much redundancy.

In January of 2022, the Standing Committee approved the comprehensive revision for publication, and in June of 2022, it also approved a minor correction for publication. The comprehensive revision, as corrected, was published in the summer of 2022 * * *. The Advisory Committee reviewed the public comments and unanimously recommends final approval without change.

The Advisory Committee received five formal comments. Three comments broadly critique basic aspects of en banc process. They object that rehearing en banc should be widely available, should not be disfavored, and that oral argument should be allowed on the question whether to grant a petition.

Two other comments are more substantial. First, a comment submitted by J. Krell expresses concern that the published Rule would allow a second bite at the apple after a panel decision is amended, no matter how minor the amendment. This comment suggests that a court of appeals should be allowed, without invoking Rule 2, to order that no further petitions for rehearing will be entertained, perhaps with a caution that this should only be done if the amendment is so minor that any subsequent petition would be obviously frivolous or dilatory.

One of the earliest concerns with which this project started was that courts were inappropriately foreclosing subsequent petitions. The Advisory Committee decided not to broadly endorse the very power that was the target of concern in the first place. At earlier stages in this multi-year process, the Advisory Committee struggled with the issue of drawing a line between the kinds of amendments that would permit a new petition and those that would not. It was never comfortable with a place to draw the line and decided, as the committee note explains, to rely on the ability of a court to easily deny frivolous petitions, to shorten the time to file a petition or the time to issue the mandate, and, when necessary, to invoke Rule 2. The good sense of litigants and counsel will prevent most rehearing petitions when the amendment to the panel decision is trivial, particularly with the stringent criteria for both forms of rehearing specified together in the amended rule. Courts can readily reject frivolous rehearing petitions without calling for a response, and no vote need be taken on a petition for rehearing en banc unless a judge calls for one.

Excerpt from the May 11, 2023, Report of the Advisory Committee on Appellate Rules

The Advisory Committee considered the possibility that a party might abuse the rule to gain additional time to seek certiorari. But it concluded that this is a remote risk. The time to seek certiorari is already 90 days and can be extended an additional 60 days by a Circuit Justice. A more substantial concern is that a party who secured an injunction in the trial court but saw that injunction vacated by the court of appeals might seek to delay issuance of the mandate to have the benefit of the injunction as long as possible. But the ability to shorten the time to issue the mandate takes care of this problem.

The rule as amended would not foreclose a court from ordering that no further petitions for rehearing will be entertained; it remains subject to the power to suspend the rules under Rule 2. But the subcommittee hopes that the need to suspend the rules to bar petitions for rehearing will lead courts of appeals to think twice about doing so, bearing in mind the difficulty of knowing what a party might have to say about an amended decision.

Second, a comment submitted by the National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers, which supports the overall proposal, suggests that the same local flexibility written into 40(d)(3) dealing with length limits and 40(d)(1) dealing with time limits should also be written into 40(d)(2) dealing with the form of the petition.

The Advisory Committee concluded that this change is unnecessary. While Rule 32(a) requires that a brief bear a cover, Rule 32(c)(2) governs other papers, “including a petition for panel rehearing and a petition for hearing or rehearing en banc,” and specifically states that a “cover is not necessary if the caption and signature page of the paper together contain the information required by Rule 32(a)(2).” Rule 32(c)(2)(A). In addition, Rule 32(e) explicitly permits local variation. Thus while amended Rule 40(d)(2) does not itself contain a local option provision, the rule that it incorporates—Rule 32(a)—does contain one.

For these reasons, the Advisory Committee unanimously recommends final approval of these amendments as published.

Summary of Public Comment

See Rule 40.

The following is to be added after the text of Rule 40 and its Committee Note as published:

Changes Made After Publication and Comment

None.

Summary of Public Comment

Claudi Barber (AP-2022-0001-0003): The rule should not provide that rehearing en banc is not favored. Petitions for rehearing should be freely granted when something unjust appears in the record.

Andrew Straw (AP-2022-0001-0004): There should be no discretion. Every petition for en banc review should have a merits decision.

Anonymous (AP-2022-0001-0008): It is somewhat unprofessional for an appellate court to determine that a certain type of hearing is unfavorable. It would be prudent to allow oral argument on whether or not to grant a petition.

J. Krell (AP-2021-0001-0005): The proposed amendments are minor and largely unobjectionable. Combining Rules 35 and 40 seems appropriate given the degree to which petitions for panel rehearing and for rehearing en banc have become intertwined, and others seem reasonable. But the rules should codify the practice of the simultaneously amending the opinion, denying rehearing en banc, and ordering that no further petitions for panel or en banc rehearing will be entertained, perhaps a caution that this should be done only if the amendment is so minor that any subsequent petition would be obviously frivolous or dilatory.

National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers (AP-2022-0001-0009): The NACDL supports the proposed amendments, with one suggestion for improvement. Local flexibility regarding the physical presentation of rehearing petitions should be permitted, similar to the local flexibility for length and time limits.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE FEDERAL

PART I. COMMENCING A BANKRUPTCY CASE; THE PETITION, THE ORDER FOR RELIEF, AND RELATED MATTERS

Rule 1001. Scope; Title; Citations; References to a Specific Form

- (a) In General. These rules, together with the Official Bankruptcy Forms, govern the procedure in cases under the Bankruptcy Code, Title 11 of the United States Code. They must be construed, administered, and employed by both the court and the parties to secure the just, speedy, and inexpensive determination of every case and proceeding.
- (b) Titles. These rules should be referred to as the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and the forms as the Official Bankruptcy Forms.

- (c) Citations. In these rules, the Bankruptcy Code is cited with a section sign and number (§ 101). A rule is cited with “Rule” followed by the rule number (Rule 1001(a)).
- (d) References to a Specific Form. A reference to a “Form” followed by a number is a reference to an Official Bankruptcy Form.

Rule 1002. Commencing a Bankruptcy Case

- (a) In General. A bankruptcy case is commenced by filing a petition with the clerk.
- (b) Copy to the United States Trustee. The clerk must promptly send a copy of the petition to the United States trustee.

Rule 1003. Involuntary Petition: Transferred Claims; Joining Other Creditors; Additional Time to Join

- (a) Transferred Claims. An entity that has transferred or acquired a claim for the purpose of commencing an involuntary case under Chapter 7 or Chapter 11 is not a qualified petitioner. A petitioner that has transferred or acquired a claim must attach to the petition and to any copy:

- (1) all documents evidencing the transfer, whether it was unconditional, for security, or otherwise; and
- (2) a signed statement that:
 - (A) affirms that the claim was not transferred for the purpose of commencing the case; and
 - (B) sets forth the consideration for the transfer and its terms.

(b) Joining Other Creditors After Filing. If an involuntary petition is filed by fewer than 3 creditors and the debtor's answer alleges the existence of 12 or more creditors as provided in § 303(b), the debtor must attach to the answer:

- (1) the names and addresses of all creditors; and

(2) a brief statement of the nature and amount of each creditor's claim.

(c) Additional Time to Join. If there appear to be 12 or more creditors, the court must allow a reasonable time for other creditors to join the petition before holding a hearing on it.

Rule 1004. Involuntary Petition Against a Partnership

A petitioner who files an involuntary petition against a partnership under § 303(b)(3) must promptly send a copy of the petition to—or serve a copy on—each general partner who is not a petitioner. The clerk must promptly issue a summons for service on any general partner who is not a petitioner. Rule 1010 governs the form and service of the summons.

Rule 1004.1. Voluntary Petition on Behalf of an Infant or Incompetent Person

(a) Represented Infant or Incompetent Person. If an infant or an incompetent person has a representative—such as a general guardian, committee, conservator, or similar fiduciary—the representative may file a voluntary petition on behalf of the infant or incompetent person.

(b) Unrepresented Infant or Incompetent Person. If an infant or an incompetent person does not have a representative:

- (1) a next friend or guardian ad litem may file the petition; and
- (2) the court must appoint a guardian ad litem or issue any other order needed to protect the interests of the infant debtor or incompetent debtor.

Rule 1004.2. Petition in a Chapter 15 Case

(a) Designating the Center of Main Interests. A petition under Chapter 15 for recognition of a foreign proceeding must:

- (1) designate the country where the debtor has its center of main interests; and

- (2) identify each country in which a foreign proceeding against, by, or regarding the debtor is pending.

(b) Challenging the Designation. The United States trustee or a party in interest may file a motion challenging the designation. If the motion is filed by a party in interest, a copy must be sent to the United States trustee. Unless the court orders otherwise, the motion must be filed at least 7 days before the date set for the hearing on the petition. The motion must be served on:

- the debtor;
- all persons or bodies authorized to administer the debtor's foreign proceedings;
- all entities against whom provisional relief is sought under § 1519;
- all parties to litigation pending in the United States in which the debtor was a party when the petition was filed; and

- any other entity as the court orders.

Rule 1005. Caption of a Petition; Title of the Case

(a) Caption and Title; Required Information. A petition's caption must contain the name of the court, the title of the case, and the case number (if known).

The title must include the following information about the debtor:

- (1) name;
- (2) employer-identification number;
- (3) the last 4 digits of the social-security number or individual taxpayer-identification number;
- (4) any other federal taxpayer-identification number; and
- (5) all other names the debtor has used within 8 years before the petition was filed.

(b) Petition Not Filed by the Debtor. A petition not filed by the debtor must include all names that the petitioner knows have been used by the debtor.

Rule 1006. Filing Fee

(a) In General. Unless (b) or (c) applies, every petition must be accompanied by the filing fee. In this rule “filing fee” means:

- (1) the filing fee required by 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(1)–(5); and
- (2) any other fee that the Judicial Conference of the United States requires under 28 U.S.C. § 1930(b) to be paid upon filing.

(b) Paying by Installment.

- (1) Application to Pay by Installment. The clerk must accept for filing an individual’s voluntary petition, regardless of whether any part of the filing fee is paid, if it is accompanied by a completed and signed application to pay in installments (Form 103A).

- (2) Court Decision on Installments. Before the meeting of creditors, the court may order payment of the entire filing fee or may order the debtor to pay it in installments, designating the number of installments (not to exceed 4), the amount of each one, and payment dates. All payments must be made within 120 days after the petition is filed. The court may, for cause, extend the time to pay an installment, but the last one must be paid within 180 days after the petition is filed.
- (3) Postponing Other Payments. Until the filing fee has been paid in full, the debtor or Chapter 13 trustee must not make any further payment to an attorney or any other person who provides services to the debtor in connection with the case.

- (c) Waiving the Filing Fee. The clerk must accept for filing an individual's voluntary Chapter 7 petition if it is accompanied by a completed and signed application to waive the filing fee (Form 103B).

Rule 1007. Lists, Schedules, Statements, and Other Documents; Time to File

(a) Lists of Names and Addresses.

(1) Voluntary Case. In a voluntary case, the debtor must file with the petition a list containing the name and address of each entity included or to be included on Schedules D, E/F, G, and H of the Official Forms. Unless it is a governmental unit, a corporate debtor must:

- (A) include a corporate-ownership statement containing the information described in Rule 7007.1; and
- (B) promptly file a supplemental statement if changed circumstances make the original statement inaccurate.

- (2) Involuntary Case. Within 7 days after the order for relief has been entered in an involuntary case, the debtor must file a list containing the name and address of each entity included or to be included on Schedules D, E/F, G, and H of the Official Forms.
- (3) Chapter 11—List of Equity Security Holders. Unless the court orders otherwise, a Chapter 11 debtor must, within 14 days after the order for relief is entered, file a list of the debtor's equity security holders by class. The list must show the number and type of interests registered in each holder's name, along with the holder's last known address or place of business.

- (4) Chapter 15—Information Required from a Foreign Representative. If a foreign representative files a petition under Chapter 15 for recognition of a foreign proceeding, the representative must—in addition to the documents required by § 1515—include with the petition:
- (A) a corporate-ownership statement containing the information described in Rule 7007.1; and
 - (B) unless the court orders otherwise, a list containing the names and addresses of:
 - (i) all persons or bodies authorized to administer the debtor’s foreign proceedings;
 - (ii) all entities against whom provisional relief is sought under § 1519; and

- (iii) all parties to litigation pending in the United States in which the debtor was a party when the petition was filed.

(5) Extending the Time to File. On motion and for cause, the court may extend the time to file any list required by this Rule 1007(a).

Notice of the motion must be given to:

- the United States trustee;
- any trustee;
- any committee elected under § 705 or appointed under § 1102; and
- any other party as the court orders.

(b) Schedules, Statements, and Other Documents.

(1) In General. Except in a Chapter 9 case or when the court orders otherwise, the debtor must file—prepared as prescribed by the appropriate Official Form, if any—

- (A) schedules of assets and liabilities;
- (B) a schedule of current income and expenditures;
- (C) a schedule of executory contracts and unexpired leases;
- (D) a statement of financial affairs;
- (E) copies of all payment advices or other evidence of payment that the debtor received from any employer within 60 days before the petition was filed—with all but the last 4 digits of the debtor’s social- security number or individual taxpayer- identification number deleted; and
- (F) a record of the debtor’s interest, if any, in an account or program of the type specified in § 521(c).

- (2) Statement of Intention. In a Chapter 7 case, an individual debtor must:
 - (A) file the statement of intention required by § 521(a) (Form 108); and
 - (B) before or upon filing, serve a copy on the trustee and the creditors named in the statement.

- (3) Credit-Counseling Statement. Unless the United States trustee has determined that the requirement to file a credit-counseling statement under § 109(h) does not apply in the district, an individual debtor must file a statement of compliance (included in Form 101). The debtor must include one of the following:
 - (A) a certificate and any debt- repayment plan required by § 521(b);

- (B) a statement that the debtor has received the credit-counseling briefing required by § 109(h)(1), but does not have a § 521(b) certificate;
- (C) a certification under § 109(h)(3); or
- (D) a request for a court determination under § 109(h)(4).

(4) Current Monthly Income—Chapter 7.

Unless § 707(b)(2)(D) applies, an individual debtor in a Chapter 7 case must:

- (A) file a statement of current monthly income (Form 122A-1); and
- (B) if that income exceeds the median family income for the debtor’s state and household size, file the Chapter 7 means-test calculation (Form 122A-2).

- (5) Current Monthly Income—Chapter 11. An individual debtor in a Chapter 11 case (unless under Subchapter V) must file a statement of current monthly income (Form 122B).
- (6) Current Monthly Income—Chapter 13. A debtor in a Chapter 13 case must:
- (A) file a statement of current monthly income (Form 122C-1); and
 - (B) if that income exceeds the median family income for the debtor’s state and household size, file the Chapter 13 calculation of disposable income (Form 122C-2).
- (7) Personal Financial-Management Course. Unless an approved provider has notified the court that the debtor has completed a course in personal financial management after filing the petition, an individual debtor in a Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 case—or in a Chapter 11 case in which § 1141(d)(3) applies—must file a statement that such a course has been completed (Form 423).

(8) Limitation on a Homestead Exemption. This Rule 1007(b)(8) applies if an individual debtor in a Chapter 11, 12, or 13 case claims an exemption under § 522(b)(3)(A) in property of the type described in § 522(p)(1) and the property value exceeds the amount specified in § 522(q)(1). The debtor must file a statement about any pending proceeding in which the debtor may be found:

(A) guilty of the type of felony described in § 522(q)(1)(A); or

(B) liable for the type of debt described in § 522(q)(1)(B).

(c) Time to File.

(1) Voluntary Case—Various Documents.

Unless (d), (e), (f), or (h) provides otherwise, the debtor in a voluntary case must file the documents required by (b)(1), (b)(4), (b)(5), and (b)(6) with the petition or within 14 days after it is filed.

(2) Involuntary Case—Various Documents. In an involuntary case, the debtor must file the documents required by (b)(1) within 14 days after the order for relief is entered.

(3) Credit-Counseling Documents. In a voluntary case, the documents required by (b)(3)(A), (C), or (D) must be filed with the petition. Unless the court orders otherwise, a debtor who has filed a statement under (b)(3)(B) must file the documents required by (b)(3)(A) within 14 days after the order for relief is entered.

- (4) Financial-Management Course. Unless the court extends the time to file, an individual debtor must file the statement required by (b)(7) as follows:
- (A) in a Chapter 7 case, within 60 days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors under § 341; and
 - (B) in a Chapter 11 or Chapter 13 case, no later than the date the last payment is made under the plan or the date a motion for a discharge is filed under § 1141(d)(5)(B) or § 1328(b).
- (5) Limitation on Homestead Exemption. The debtor must file the statement required by (b)(8) no earlier than the date of the last payment made under the plan, or the date a motion for a discharge is filed under § 1141(d)(5)(B), 1228(b), or 1328(b).

(6) Documents in a Converted Case. Unless the court orders otherwise, a document filed before a case is converted to another chapter is considered filed in the converted case.

(7) Extending the Time to File. Except as § 1116(3) provides otherwise, the court, on motion and for cause, may extend the time to file a document under this rule. The movant must give notice of the motion to:

- the United States trustee;
- any committee elected under § 705 or appointed under § 1102; and
- any trustee, examiner, and other party as the court orders.

If the motion is granted, notice must be given to the United States trustee and to any committee, trustee, and other party as the court orders.

- (d) List of the 20 Largest Unsecured Creditors in a Chapter 9 or Chapter 11 Case. In addition to the lists required by (a), a debtor in a Chapter 9 case or in a voluntary Chapter 11 case must file with the petition a list containing the names, addresses, and claims of the creditors that hold the 20 largest unsecured claims, excluding insiders, as prescribed by the appropriate Official Form (Form 104 or 204). In an involuntary Chapter 11 case, the debtor must file the list within 2 days after the order for relief is entered under § 303(h).
- (e) Chapter 9 Lists. In a Chapter 9 case, the court must set the time for the debtor to file the list required by (a). If a proposed plan requires real estate assessments to be revised so that the proportion of special assessments or special taxes for some property will be different from the proportion in effect when the petition is filed, the debtor must also file a list that shows—for each adversely affected property—the name and address of each known holder of title, both legal and equitable. On motion and for cause, the court may modify the requirements of this Rule 1007(e) and those of (a).

- (f) Social-Security Number. In a voluntary case, an individual debtor must submit with the petition a verified statement that gives the debtor’s social-security number or states that the debtor does not have one (Form 121). In an involuntary case, the debtor must submit the statement within 14 days after the order for relief is entered.
- (g) Partnership Case. The general partners of a debtor partnership must file for the partnership the list required by (a) and the documents required by (b)(1)(A)–(D). The court may order any general partner to file a statement of personal assets and liabilities and may set the deadline for doing so.

- (h) Interests in Property Acquired or Arising After a Petition Is Filed. After the petition is filed in a Chapter 7, 11, 12, or 13 case, if the debtor acquires—or becomes entitled to acquire—an interest in property described in § 541(a)(5), the debtor must file a supplemental schedule and include any claimed exemption. Unless the court allows additional time, the debtor must file the schedule within 14 days after learning about the property interest. This duty continues even after the case is closed but does not apply to property acquired after an order is entered:
- (1) confirming a Chapter 11 plan (other than one confirmed under § 1191(b)); or
 - (2) discharging the debtor in a Chapter 12 case, a Chapter 13 case, or a case under Subchapter V of Chapter 11 in which the plan is confirmed under § 1191(b).
- (i) Security Holders Known to Others. After notice and a hearing and for cause, the court may direct an entity other than the debtor or trustee to:

- (1) disclose any list of the debtor's security holders in its possession or under its control by:
 - (A) producing the list or a copy of it;
 - (B) allowing inspection or copying; or
 - (C) making any other disclosure; and
- (2) indicate the name, address, and security held by each listed holder.

(j) Impounding Lists. On a party in interest's motion and for cause, the court may impound any list filed under this rule and may refuse inspection. But the court may permit a party in interest to inspect or use an impounded list on terms prescribed by the court.

(k) Debtor's Failure to File a Required Document. If a debtor fails to properly prepare and file a list, schedule, or statement (other than a statement of intention) as required by this rule, the court may order:

- (1) that the trustee, a petitioning creditor, a committee, or other party do so within the time set by the court; and
- (2) that the cost incurred be reimbursed as an administrative expense.

(l) Copies to the United States Trustee. The clerk must promptly send to the United States trustee a copy of every list, schedule, or statement filed under (a)(1), (a)(2), (b), (d), or (h).

(m) Infant or Incompetent Person. If a debtor knows that a person named in a list of creditors or in a schedule is an infant or is incompetent, the debtor must also include the name, address, and legal relationship of anyone on whom process would be served in an adversary proceeding against that person under Rule 7004(b)(2).

Rule 1008. Requirement to Verify Petitions and Accompanying Documents

A petition, list, schedule, statement, and any amendment must be verified or must contain an unsworn declaration under 28 U.S.C. § 1746.

Rule 1009. Amending a Voluntary Petition, List, Schedule, or Statement(a) In General.

- (1) By a Debtor. A debtor may amend a voluntary petition, list, schedule, or statement at any time before the case is closed. The debtor must give notice of the amendment to the trustee and any affected entity.
- (2) By a Party in Interest. On a party in interest's motion and after notice and a hearing, the court may order a voluntary petition, list, schedule, or statement to be amended. The clerk must give notice of the amendment to entities that the court designates.

- (c) Amending a Statement of Social-Security Number. If a debtor learns that a social-security number shown on the statement submitted under Rule 1007(f) is incorrect, the debtor must:
- (1) promptly submit an amended verified statement with the correct number (Form 121); and
 - (2) give notice of the amendment to all entities required to be listed under Rule 1007(a)(1) or (a)(2).
- (d) Copy to the United States Trustee. The clerk must promptly send a copy of every amendment filed under this rule to the United States trustee.

Rule 1010. Serving an Involuntary Petition and Summons

- (a) In General. After an involuntary petition has been filed, the clerk must promptly issue a summons for service on the debtor. The summons must be served with a copy of the petition in the manner that Rule 7004(a) and (b) provide for service of a summons and complaint. If service cannot be so made, the court may order service by mail to the debtor's last known address, and by at least one publication as the court orders. Service may be made anywhere. Rule 7004(e) and Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(l) govern service under this rule.
- (b) Corporate-Ownership Statement. A corporation that files an involuntary petition must file and serve with the petition a corporate-ownership statement containing the information described in Rule 7007.1.

Rule 1011. Responsive Pleading in an Involuntary Case; Effect of a Motion

- (a) Who May Contest a Petition. A debtor may contest an involuntary petition filed against it. In a partnership case under Rule 1004, a nonpetitioning general partner—or a person who is alleged to be a general partner but denies the allegation—may contest the petition.
- (b) Defenses and Objections; Time to File. A defense or objection to the petition must be presented as prescribed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 12. It must be filed and served within 21 days after the summons is served. But if service is made by publication on a party or partner who does not reside in—or cannot be found in—the state where the court sits, the court must set the time to file and serve the answer.
- (c) Effect of a Motion. Serving a motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b) extends the time to file and serve an answer as Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(a) permits.

(d) Limitation on Asserting a Debtor's Claim

Against a Petitioning Creditor. A debtor's answer must not assert a claim against a petitioning creditor except to defeat the petition.

(e) Limit on Pleadings.

No pleading other than an answer to the petition is allowed, but the court may order a reply to an answer and set the time for filing and service.

(f) Corporate-Ownership Statement.

A corporation that responds to the petition must file a corporate-ownership statement containing the information described in Rule 7007.1. The corporation must do so with its first appearance, pleading, motion, or response, or other first request to the court.

Rule 1012. Contesting a Petition in a Chapter 15 Case

(a) Who May Contest the Petition.

A debtor or a party in interest may contest a Chapter 15 petition for recognition of a foreign proceeding.

- (b) Time to File a Response. Unless the court sets a different time, a response to the petition must be filed at least 7 days before the date set for a hearing on the petition.
- (c) Corporate-Ownership Statement. A corporation that responds to the petition must file a corporate-ownership statement containing the information described in Rule 7007.1. The corporation must do so with its first appearance, pleading, motion, or response, or other first request to the court.

Rule 1013. Contested Petition in an Involuntary Case; Default

- (a) Hearing and Disposition. When a petition in an involuntary case is contested, the court must:
 - (1) rule on the issues presented at the earliest practicable time; and
 - (2) promptly issue an order for relief, dismiss the petition, or issue any other appropriate order.

- (b) Default. If the petition is not contested within the time allowed by Rule 1011, the court must issue the order for relief on the next day or as soon as practicable.

Rule 1014. Transferring a Case to Another District; Dismissing a Case Improperly Filed

- (a) Dismissal or Transfer.
- (1) Petition Filed in the Proper District. If a petition is filed in the proper district, the court may transfer the case to another district in the interest of justice or for the convenience of the parties. The court may do so:
- (A) on its own or on a party in interest's timely motion; and
- (B) only after a hearing on notice to the petitioner, United States trustee, and other entities as the court orders.
- (2) Petition Filed in an Improper District. If a petition is filed in an improper district, the court may dismiss the case or may transfer it to another district on the same grounds and under the same procedures as stated in (1).

(b) Petitions Involving the Same or Related Debtors Filed in Different Districts.

- (1) Scope. This Rule 1014(b) applies if petitions commencing cases or seeking recognition under Chapter 15 are filed in different districts by, regarding, or against:
 - (A) the same debtor;
 - (B) a partnership and one or more of its general partners;
 - (C) two or more general partners; or
 - (D) a debtor and an affiliate.
- (2) Court Action. The court in the district where the first petition is filed may determine the district or districts in which the cases should proceed in the interest of justice or for the convenience of the parties. The court may do so on timely motion and after a hearing on notice to:

- the United States trustee;
- entities entitled to notice under Rule 2002(a); and
- other entities as the court orders.

(3) Later-Filed Petitions. The court in the district where the first petition is filed may order the parties to the later- filed cases not to proceed further until the motion is decided.

Rule 1015. Consolidating or Jointly Administering Cases Pending in the Same District

(a) Consolidating Cases Involving the Same Debtor.

The court may consolidate two or more cases that are regarding or brought by or against the same debtor and that are pending in its district.

(b) Jointly Administering Cases Involving Related Debtors; Exemptions of Spouses; Protective Orders to Avoid Conflicts of Interest.

(1) In General. The court may order joint administration of the estates in a joint case or in two or more cases pending in the court if they are brought by or against:

- (A) spouses;
- (B) a partnership and one or more of its general partners;
- (C) two or more general partners; or
- (D) a debtor and an affiliate.

(2) Potential Conflicts of Interest. Before issuing a joint-administration order, the court must consider how to protect the creditors of different estates against potential conflicts of interest.

(3) Exemptions in Cases Involving Spouses. If spouses have filed separate petitions—with one electing exemptions under § 522(b)(2) and the other under § 522(b)(3)—and the court orders joint administration, that order must:

- (A) set a reasonable time for the debtors to elect the same exemptions; and
- (B) advise the debtors that if they fail to do so, they will be considered to have elected exemptions under § 522(b)(2).

(c) Protective Orders to Avoid Unnecessary Costs and Delay. When cases are consolidated or jointly administered, the court may issue orders to avoid unnecessary costs and delay while still protecting the parties' rights under the Code.

Rule 1016. Death or Incompetency of a Debtor

(a) Chapter 7 Case. In a Chapter 7 case, the debtor's death or incompetency does not abate the case. The case continues, as far as possible, as though the death or incompetency had not occurred.

- (b) Chapter 11, 12, or 13 Case. Upon the debtor's death or incompetency in a Chapter 11, 12, or 13 case, the court may dismiss the case or may permit it to continue if further administration is possible and is in the parties' best interests. If the case continues, it must proceed and be concluded in the same manner as though the death or incompetency had not occurred.

Rule 1017. Dismissing a Case; Suspending Proceedings; Converting a Case to Another Chapter

- (a) Dismissing a Case—In General. Except as provided in § 707(a)(3), 707(b), 1208(b), or 1307(b), or in Rule 1017(b), (c), or (e), the court must conduct a hearing on notice under Rule 2002 before dismissing a case on the petitioner's motion, for want of prosecution or other cause, or by the parties' consent. For the purpose of the notice, a debtor who has not already filed a list of creditors and their addresses must do so before the deadline set by the court. If the debtor fails to timely file the list, the court may order the debtor or another entity to do so.

(b) Dismissing a Case for Failure to Pay an Installment Toward the Filing Fee. If the debtor fails to pay any installment toward the filing fee, the court may dismiss the case after a hearing on notice to the debtor and trustee. If the court dismisses or closes the case without full payment of the filing fee, previous installment payments must be distributed as if full payment had been made.

(c) Dismissing a Voluntary Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 Case for Failure to File a Document on Time. On motion of the United States trustee, the court may dismiss a voluntary Chapter 7 case under § 707(a)(3), or a Chapter 13 case under § 1307(c)(9), for a failure to timely file the information required by § 521(a)(1). But the court may do so only after a hearing on notice served by the United States trustee on the debtor, trustee, and any other entity as the court orders.

(d) Dismissing a Case or Suspending Proceedings

Under § 305. The court may dismiss a case or suspend proceedings under § 305 only after a hearing on notice under Rule 2002(a).

(e) Dismissing an Individual Debtor’s Chapter 7 Case for Abuse or Converting It to Chapter 11 or 13.

(1) In General. On motion under § 707(b), the court may dismiss an individual debtor’s Chapter 7 case for abuse or, with the debtor’s consent, convert it to Chapter 11 or 13. The court may do so only after a hearing on notice to:

- the debtor;
- the trustee;
- the United States trustee; and
- any other entity as the court orders.

(2) Time to File a Motion; Content. Except as § 704(b)(2) provides otherwise, a motion to dismiss a case for abuse under § 707(b) or (c) must be filed within 60 days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors under § 341(a). On request made within the 60-day period, the court may, for cause, extend the time to file. The motion must:

abuse.

- (3) Hearing on the Court's Own Motion; Serving Notice. If the hearing is set on the court's own motion, the clerk must serve notice on the debtor within 60 days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors under § 341(a). The notice must set forth all matters to be considered at the hearing.

(f) Procedures for Dismissing, Suspending, or Converting a Case.

- (1) In General. Rule 9014 governs a proceeding to dismiss or suspend a case or to convert it to another chapter—except under § 706(a), 1112(a), 1208(a) or (b), or 1307(a) or (b).
- (2) Cases Requiring a Motion. Dismissing or converting a case under § 706(a), 1112(a), 1208(b), or 1307(b) requires a motion filed and served as required by Rule 9013.

- (3) Conversion in a Chapter 12 or 13 Case. If the debtor files a conversion notice under § 1208(a) or § 1307(a), the case will be converted without court order. The notice date becomes the date of the conversion order in applying § 348(c) or Rule 1019. The clerk must promptly send a copy of the notice to the United States trustee.

Rule 1018. Contesting a Petition in an Involuntary or Chapter 15 Case; Vacating an Order for Relief; Applying Part VII Rules

- (1) a proceeding that contests either an involuntary petition or a Chapter 15 petition for recognition; and

(2) a proceeding to vacate an order for relief.

(b) References to an “Adversary Proceeding.” Any reference to an “adversary proceeding” in the rules listed in (a) is a reference to the proceedings listed in (a)(1)–(2).

(c) “Complaint” Means “Petition.” For the proceedings described in (a), a reference to the “complaint” in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure must be read as a reference to the petition.

Rule 1019. Converting or Reconverting a Chapter 11, 12, or 13 Case to Chapter 7

(a) Filing Various Documents; Filing a Statement of Intention.

(1) Lists, Inventories, Schedules, Statements of Financial Affairs. Unless the court orders otherwise, when a Chapter 11, 12, or 13 case is converted or reconverted to Chapter 7, the lists, inventories, schedules, and statements of financial affairs previously filed are considered filed in the Chapter 7 case. If they have not been previously filed, the debtor must comply with Rule 1007 as if an order for relief had been entered on an involuntary petition on the same date as the order directing that the case continue under Chapter 7.

- (2) Statement of Intention. A statement of intention, if required, must be filed within 30 days after the conversion order is entered or before the first date set for the meeting of creditors, whichever is earlier. The court may, for cause, extend the time to file only on motion filed—or on oral request made during a hearing—before the time has expired. Notice of an extension must be given to the United States trustee and to any committee, trustee, or other party as the court orders.

(3) New Time to Object to a Claimed

Exemption. When a case is converted to Chapter 7, a new time begins under Rule 4003(b) to object to a claimed exemption unless:

- (A) more than 1 year has elapsed since the court issued the first order confirming a plan under Chapter 11, 12, or 13; or
- (B) the case was previously pending in Chapter 7 and time has expired to object to a claimed exemption in the original Chapter 7 case.

(c) Proof of Claim Filed Before Conversion. A proof of claim filed by a creditor before conversion is considered filed in the Chapter 7 case.

(d) Turning Over Documents and Property. Unless the court orders otherwise, after a trustee in the Chapter 7 case qualifies or assumes duties, the debtor in possession—or the previously acting trustee—must promptly turn over to the Chapter 7 trustee all documents and property of the estate that are in its possession or control.

(e) Final Report and Account; Schedule of Unpaid Postpetition Debts.

(1) In a Chapter 11 or Chapter 12 Case. Unless the court orders otherwise, when a Chapter 11 or 12 case is converted to Chapter 7, the debtor in possession or, if the debtor is not a debtor in possession, the trustee serving at the time of conversion must:

(A) within 14 days after conversion, file a schedule of unpaid debts incurred after the petition was filed but before conversion and include the name and address of each claim holder; and

(A) the time to request payment of an administrative expense; and

(B) the time to file a proof of claim under § 348(d), unless a notice of insufficient assets to pay a dividend has been mailed under Rule 2002(e).

a Small Business Debtor

- (a) In General. In a voluntary Chapter 11 case, the debtor must state in the petition whether the debtor is a small business debtor and, if so, whether the debtor elects to have Subchapter V of Chapter 11 apply. In an involuntary Chapter 11 case, the debtor must provide the same information in a statement filed within 14 days after the order for relief. The case must proceed in accordance with the debtor's statement, unless and until the court issues an order finding that the statement is incorrect.
- (b) Objecting to the Designation. The United States trustee or a party in interest may object to the debtor's designation. The objection must be filed within 30 days after the conclusion of the meeting of creditors held under § 341(a) or within 30 days after

- (E) for a proposed sale or lease of personally identifiable information under § 363(b)(1), a statement whether the sale is consistent with any policy that prohibits transferring the information.

- (2) Hearing on an Application for Compensation or Reimbursement. A notice under (a)(6) of a hearing on a request for compensation or for reimbursement of expenses must identify the applicant and the amounts requested.
- (3) Hearing on Confirming a Plan That Proposes an Injunction. If a plan proposes an injunction against conduct not otherwise enjoined under the Code, the notice under (b)(2) must:
 - (A) state in conspicuous language (bold, italic, or underlined text) that the plan proposes an injunction;
 - (B) describe briefly the nature of the injunction; and
 - (C) identify the entities that would be subject to it.

(d) Notice to Equity Security Holders in a Chapter 11

Case. Unless the court orders otherwise, in a Chapter 11 case the clerk or the court's designee must give notice as the court orders to the equity security holders of:

- (1) the order for relief;
- (2) a meeting of equity security holders under § 341;
- (3) a hearing on a proposed sale of all, or substantially all, the debtor's assets;
- (4) a hearing on a motion to dismiss a case or convert it to another chapter;
- (5) the time to file an objection to—and the time of the hearing to consider whether to approve—a disclosure statement;
- (6) the time to file an objection to—and the time of the hearing to consider whether to confirm—a Chapter 11 plan; and

- (7) the time to accept or reject a proposal to modify a plan.

(e) Giving Notice of No Dividend in a Chapter 7 Case.

In a Chapter 7 case, if it appears from the schedules that there are no assets from which to pay a dividend, the notice of the meeting of creditors may state:

- (1) that fact;
- (2) that filing proofs of claim is unnecessary; and
- (3) that further notice of the time to file proofs of claim will be given if enough assets become available to pay a dividend.

(f) Other Notices.

- (1) Various Notices to the Debtor, Creditors, and Indenture Trustees. Except as (1) provides otherwise, the clerk, or some other person as the court may direct, must give the debtor, creditors, and indenture trustees notice by mail of:

- (A) the order for relief;
- (B) a case's dismissal or conversion to another chapter;
- (C) a suspension of proceedings under § 305;
- (D) the time to file a proof of claim under Rule 3002;
- (E) the time to file a complaint to object to the debtor's discharge under § 727, as Rule 4004 provides;
- (F) the time to file a complaint to determine whether a debt is dischargeable under § 523, as Rule 4007 provides;
- (G) a waiver, denial, or revocation of a discharge, as Rule 4006 provides;
- (H) entry of an order confirming a plan in a Chapter 9, 11, 12 or 13 case;

- (I) a summary of the trustee’s final report in a Chapter 7 case if the net proceeds realized exceed $1,500;
- (J) a notice under Rule 5008 regarding the presumption of abuse;
- (K) a statement under § 704(b)(1) about whether the debtor’s case would be presumed to be an abuse under § 707(b); and
- (L) the time to request a delay in granting the discharge under § 1141(d)(5)(C), 1228(f), or 1328(h).

(2) Notice of the Time to Accept or Reject a Plan. Notice of the time to accept or reject a plan under Rule 3017(c) must be given in accordance with Rule 3017(d).

(g) Addressing Notices.

- (1) In General. A notice mailed to a creditor, indenture trustee, or equity security holder must be addressed as the entity or its authorized agent provided in its last request filed in the case. The request may be:
 - (A) a proof of claim filed by a creditor or an indenture trustee designating a mailing address (unless a notice of no dividend has been given under (e) and a later notice of a possible dividend under Rule 3002(c)(5) has not been given); or
 - (B) a proof of interest filed by an equity security holder designating a mailing address.
- (2) When No Request Has Been Filed. Except as § 342(f) provides otherwise, if a creditor or indenture trustee has not filed a request under (1) or Rule 5003(e), the notice must be mailed to the address shown on the list of creditors or schedule of liabilities, whichever is filed later. If an equity security holder has not filed a request, the notice must be mailed to the address shown on the list of equity security holders.

- (3) Notices to Representatives of an Infant or Incompetent Person. This paragraph (3) applies if a list or schedule filed under Rule 1007 includes a name and address of an infant's or an incompetent person's representative, and a person other than that representative files a request or proof of claim designating a different name and mailing address. Unless the court orders otherwise, the notice must be mailed to the designated address of:

- (A) the representative; and
- (B) the person filing the request or proof of claim.

(4) Using an Address Agreed to Between an Entity and a Notice Provider.

Notwithstanding (g)(1)–(3), when the court orders that notice be given, the notice provider may do so in the manner agreed to between the provider and an entity, and at the address or addresses the entity supplies. An address supplied by the entity is conclusively presumed to be a proper address. But a failure to use a supplied address does not invalidate a notice that is otherwise effective under applicable law.

(5) When a Notice Is Not Brought to a Creditor’s Attention. A creditor may treat a notice as not having been brought to the creditor's attention under § 342(g)(1) only if, before the notice was issued, the creditor has filed a statement:

- (A) designating the name and address of the person or organizational subdivision responsible for receiving notices; and
- (B) describing the creditor's procedures for delivering notices to the designated person or organizational subdivision.

(h) Notice to Creditors Who Filed Proofs of Claim in a Chapter 7, 12, or 13 Case.

- (1) Voluntary Case. This paragraph (1) applies in a voluntary Chapter 7 case, or in a Chapter 12 or 13 case. After 70 days following the order for relief under that chapter or the date of the order converting the case to Chapter 12 or 13, the court may direct that all notices required by (a) be mailed only to:

- the debtor;
- the trustee;
- indenture trustees;
- creditors with claims for which proofs of claim have been filed; and
- creditors that are still permitted to file proofs of claim because they have received an extension of time under Rule 3002(c)(1) or (2).

(2) Involuntary Case. In an involuntary chapter 7 case, after 90 days following the order for relief, the court may order that all notices required by (a) be mailed only to those entities listed in (1).

(3) When Notice of Insufficient Assets Has

Been Given. If notice of insufficient assets to pay a dividend has been given to creditors under (e), after 90 days following the mailing of a notice of the time to file proofs of claim under Rule 3002(c)(5), the court may order that notices be mailed only to those entities listed in (1).

(i) Notice to a Committee.

(1) In General. Any notice required to be mailed under this Rule 2002 must also be mailed to a committee elected under § 705 or appointed under § 1102, or to its authorized agent.

(2) Limiting Notices. The court may order that a notice required by (a)(2), (3), or (6) be:

(A) sent to the United States trustee;

and

(B) mailed only to:

(i) the committees elected under § 705 or appointed under § 1102, or to their authorized agents; and

(ii) those creditors and equity security holders who file—and serve on the trustee or debtor in possession—a request that all notices be mailed to them.

(3) Copy to a Committee. A notice required under (a)(1), (a)(5), (b), (f)(1)(B)–(C), or (f)(1)(H)—and any other notice as the court orders—must be sent to a committee appointed under § 1114.

(j) Notice to the United States. A notice required to be mailed to all creditors under this Rule 2002 must also be mailed:

- (1) in a Chapter 11 case in which the Securities and Exchange Commission has filed either a notice of appearance or a request to receive notices, to the SEC at any place it designates;
- (2) in a commodity-broker case, to the Commodity Futures Trading Commission at Washington, D.C.;
- (3) in a Chapter 11 case, to the Internal Revenue Service at the address in the register maintained under Rule 5003(e) for the district where the case is pending;
- (4) in a case in which the documents disclose that a debt (other than for taxes) is owed to the United States, to the United States attorney for the district where the case is pending and to the United States department, agency, or instrumentality through which the debtor became indebted; or

- (5) in a case in which the filed documents disclose a stock interest of the United States, to the Secretary of the Treasury at Washington, D.C.

(k) Notice to the United States Trustee.

- (1) In General. Except in a Chapter 9 case or unless the United States trustee requests otherwise, the clerk or the court's designee must send to the United States trustee notice of:

- (A) all matters described in (a)(2)–(4), (a)(8)–(9), (b), (f)(1)(A)–(C), (f)(1)(E), (f)(1)(G)–(I), and (q);

- (B) all hearings on applications for compensation or for reimbursement of expenses; and

- (C) any other matter if the United States trustee requests it or the court orders it.

- (2) Time to Send. The notice must be sent within the time that (a) or (b) prescribes.
 - (3) Exception Under the Securities Investor Protection Act. In a case under the Securities Investor Protection Act, 15 U.S.C. § 78aaa et seq., these rules do not require any document to be sent to the United States trustee.
- (l) Notice by Publication. The court may order notice by publication if notice by mail is impracticable or if it is desirable to supplement the notice.
 - (m) Orders Concerning Notices. Except as these rules provide otherwise, the court may designate the matters about which, the entity to whom, and the form and manner in which a notice must be sent.
 - (n) Notice of an Order for Relief in a Consumer Case. In a voluntary case commenced under the Code by an individual debtor whose debts are primarily consumer debts, the clerk, or some other person as the court may direct, shall give the trustee and all creditors notice by mail of the order for relief not more than 20 days after the entry of such order.

(o) Caption. The caption of a notice given under this Rule 2002 must conform to Rule 1005. The caption of a debtor's notice to a creditor must also include the information that § 342(c) requires.

(p) Notice to a Creditor with a Foreign Address.

(1) When Notice by Mail Does Not Suffice. At the request of the United States trustee or a party in interest, or on its own, the court may find that a notice mailed to a creditor with a foreign address within the time these rules prescribe would not give the creditor reasonable notice. The court may then order that the notice be supplemented with notice by other means or that the time prescribed for the notice by mail be extended.

(2) Notice of the Time to File a Proof of Claim.

Unless the court, for cause, orders otherwise, a creditor with a foreign address must be given at least 30 days' notice of the time to file a proof of claim under Rule 3002(c) or Rule 3003(c).

(3) Determining a Foreign Address. Unless the court, for cause, orders otherwise, the mailing address of a creditor with a foreign address must be determined under (g).

(q) Notice of a Petition for Recognition of a Foreign Proceeding; Notice of an Intent to Communicate with a Foreign Court or Foreign Representative.

(1) Timing of the Notice; Who Must Receive It.

After a petition for recognition of a foreign proceeding is filed, the court must promptly hold a hearing on it. The clerk or the court's designee must promptly give at least 21 days' notice by mail of the hearing to:

- the debtor;
- all persons or bodies authorized to administer the debtor's foreign proceedings;
- all entities against whom provisional relief is being sought under § 1519;
- all parties to litigation pending in the United States in which the debtor was a party when the petition was filed; and
- any other entities as the court orders.

If the court consolidates the hearing on the petition with a hearing on a request for provisional relief, the court may set a shorter notice period.

(2) Content of the Notice. The notice must:

- (A) state whether the petition seeks recognition as a foreign main proceeding or a foreign nonmain proceeding; and
 - (B) include a copy of the petition and any other document the court specifies.
- (3) Communicating with a Foreign Court or Foreign Representative. If the court intends to communicate with a foreign court or foreign representative, the clerk or the court's designee must give notice by mail of the court's intention to all those listed in (q)(1).

Rule 2003. Meeting of Creditors or Equity Security Holders

- (a) Date and Place of the Meeting.
 - (1) Date. Except as provided in § 341(e), the United States trustee must call a meeting of creditors to be held:
 - (A) in a Chapter 7 or 11 case, no fewer than 21 days and no more than 40 days after the order for relief;

(B) in a Chapter 12 case, no fewer than 21 days and no more than 35 days after the order for relief; or

(C) in a Chapter 13 case, no fewer than 21 days and no more than 50 days after the order for relief.

(2) Effect of a Motion or an Appeal. The United States trustee may set a later date for the meeting if there is a motion to vacate the order for relief, an appeal from such an order, or a motion to dismiss the case.

(3) Place; Possible Change in the Meeting Date. The meeting may be held at a regular place for holding court. Or the United States trustee may designate any other place in the district that is convenient for the parties in interest. If the designated meeting place is not regularly staffed by the United States trustee or an assistant who may preside, the meeting may be held no more than 60 days after the order for relief.

(b) Conducting the Meeting; Agenda; Who May Vote.

(1) At a Meeting of Creditors.

(A) Generally. The United States trustee must preside at the meeting of creditors. The meeting must include an examination of the debtor under oath. The presiding officer has the authority to administer oaths.

(B) Chapter 7 Cases. In a Chapter 7 case, the meeting may include the election of a creditors' committee; and if the case is not under Subchapter V, the meeting may include electing a trustee.

(2) At a Meeting of Equity Security Holders. If the United States trustee convenes a meeting of equity security holders under § 341(b), the United States trustee must set a date for the meeting and preside over it.

(3) Who Has a Right to Vote; Objecting to the Right to Vote.

(A) In a Chapter 7 Case. A creditor in a Chapter 7 case may vote if, at or before the meeting:

- (i) the creditor has filed a proof of claim or a writing setting forth facts evidencing a right to vote under § 702(a);
- (ii) the proof of claim is not insufficient on its face; and

(iii) no objection is made to the claim.

(B) In a Partnership Case. A creditor in a partnership case may file a proof of claim or a writing evidencing a right to vote for a trustee for the general partner's estate even if a trustee for the partnership's estate has previously qualified.

(C) Objecting to the Amount or Allowability of a Claim for Voting Purposes. Unless the court orders otherwise, if there is an objection to the amount or allowability of a claim for voting purposes, the United States trustee must tabulate the votes for each alternative presented by the dispute. If resolving the dispute is necessary to determine the election's result, the United States trustee must report to the court the tabulations for each alternative.

(c) Recording the Proceedings. At the meeting of creditors under § 341(a), the United States trustee must:

- (1) record verbatim—using electronic sound-recording equipment or other means of recording—all examinations under oath;
- (2) preserve the recording and make it available for public access for 2 years after the meeting concludes; and
- (3) upon request, certify and provide a copy or transcript of the recording to any entity at that entity's expense.

(d) Reporting Election Results in a Chapter 7 Case.

- (1) Undisputed Election. In a Chapter 7 case, if the election of a trustee or a member of a creditors' committee is undisputed, the United States trustee must promptly file a report of the election. The report must include the name and address of the person or entity elected and a statement that the election was undisputed.

(2) Disputed Election.

(A) United States Trustee's Report. If the election is disputed, the United States trustee must:

- (i) promptly file a report informing the court of the nature of the dispute and listing the name and address of any candidate elected under any alternative presented by the dispute; and

(ii) no later than the date on which the report is filed, mail a copy to any party in interest that has requested one.

(B) Interim Trustee. Until the court resolves the dispute, the interim trustee continues in office. Unless a motion to resolve the dispute is filed within 14 days after the report is filed, the interim trustee serves as trustee in the case.

(e) Adjournment. The presiding official may adjourn the meeting from time to time by announcing at the meeting the date and time to reconvene. The presiding official must promptly file a statement showing the adjournment and the date and time to reconvene.

(f) Special Meetings of Creditors. The United States trustee may call a special meeting of creditors or may do so on request of a party in interest.

- (g) Final Meeting of Creditors. If the United States trustee calls a final meeting of creditors in a case in which the net proceeds realized exceed $1,500, the clerk must give notice of the meeting to the creditors. The notice must include a summary of the trustee's final account and a statement of the amount of the claims allowed. The trustee must attend the meeting and, if requested, report on the estate's administration.

Rule 2004. Examinations

- (a) In General. On a party in interest's motion, the court may order the examination of any entity.
- (b) Scope of the Examination.
- (1) In General. The examination of an entity under this Rule 2004, or of a debtor under § 343, may relate only to:

- (A) the debtor's acts, conduct, or property;
 - (B) the debtor's liabilities and financial condition;
 - (C) any matter that may affect the administration of the debtor's estate; or
 - (D) the debtor's right to a discharge.
- (2) Other Topics in Certain Cases. In a Chapter 12 or 13 case, or in a Chapter 11 case that is not a railroad reorganization, the examination may also relate to:
- (A) the operation of any business and the desirability of its continuing;
 - (B) the source of any money or property the debtor acquired or will acquire for the purpose of consummating a plan and the consideration given or offered; and

- (C) any other matter relevant to the case or to formulating a plan.

(c) Compelling Attendance and the Production of Documents or Electronically Stored Information.

Regardless of the district where the examination will be conducted, an entity may be compelled under Rule 9016 to attend and produce documents or electronically stored information. An attorney may issue and sign a subpoena on behalf of the court where the case is pending if the attorney is admitted to practice in that court.

- (d) Time and Place to Examine the Debtor. The court may, for cause and on terms it may impose, order the debtor to be examined under this Rule 2004 at any designated time and place, in or outside the district.

(e) Witness Fees and Mileage.

- (1) For a Nondebtor Witness. An entity, except the debtor, may be required to attend as a witness only if the lawful mileage and witness fee for 1 day's attendance are first tendered.

- (2) For a Debtor Witness. A debtor who is required to appear for examination more than 100 miles from the debtor's residence must be tendered a mileage fee. The fee need cover only the distance exceeding 100 miles from the nearer of where the debtor resides:
- (A) when the first petition was filed; or
 - (B) when the examination takes place.

Rule 2005. Apprehending and Removing a Debtor for Examination

- (a) Compelling the Debtor's Attendance.
- (1) Order to Apprehend the Debtor. On a party in interest's motion supported by an affidavit, the court may order a marshal, or other official authorized by law, to bring the debtor before the court without unnecessary delay.

The affidavit must allege that:

- (A) the examination is necessary to properly administer the estate, and there is reasonable cause to believe that the debtor is about to leave or has left the debtor's residence or principal place of business to avoid the examination;
- (B) the debtor has evaded service of a subpoena or an order to attend the examination; or
- (C) the debtor has willfully disobeyed a duly served subpoena or order to attend the examination.

- (2) Ordering an Immediate Examination. If, after hearing, the court finds the allegations to be true, it must:

- (A) order the immediate examination of the debtor; and
- (B) if necessary, set conditions for further examination and for the debtor's obedience to any further order regarding it.

(b) Removing a Debtor to Another District for Examination.

- (1) In General. When an order is issued under (a)(1) and the debtor is found in another district, the debtor may be taken into custody and removed as provided in (2) and (3).
- (2) Within 100 Miles. A debtor who is taken into custody less than 100 miles from where the order was issued must be brought promptly before the court that issued the order.
- (3) At 100 Miles or More. A debtor who is taken into custody 100 miles or more from where the order was issued must be brought without unnecessary delay for a hearing before the nearest available United States magistrate judge, bankruptcy judge, or district judge. If, after hearing, the judge finds that the person in custody is the debtor and is subject to an order under (a)(1), or if the person waives a hearing, the judge must order removal, and must release the person in custody on conditions ensuring prompt appearance before the court that issued the order compelling attendance.

- (4) Conditions of Release. The relevant provisions and policies of 18 U.S.C. § 3142 govern the court's determination of what conditions will reasonably assure attendance and obedience under this Rule 2005.

Rule 2006. Soliciting and Voting Proxies in a Chapter 7 Case

(a) Applicability. This Rule 2006 applies only in a Chapter 7 case.

(b) Definitions.

(1) Proxy. A “proxy” is a written power of attorney that authorizes an entity to vote the claim or otherwise act as the holder’s attorney-in-fact in connection with the administration of the estate.

(2) Soliciting a Proxy. “Soliciting a proxy” means any communication by which a creditor is asked, directly or indirectly, to give a proxy after or in contemplation of a Chapter 7 petition filed by or against the debtor. But such a communication is not considered soliciting a proxy if it comes from an attorney to a claim owner who is a regular client or who has requested the attorney’s representation.

(c) Who May Solicit a Proxy. A proxy may be solicited only in writing and only by:

- (1) a creditor that, on the date the petition was filed, held an allowable unsecured claim against the estate;
- (2) a committee elected under § 705;
- (3) a committee elected by creditors that hold a majority of claims in number and in total amount and that:
 - (A) have claims that are not contingent or unliquidated;
 - (B) are not disqualified from voting under § 702(a); and
 - (C) were present or represented at a creditors' meeting where:
 - (i) all creditors with claims over $500—or the 100 creditors with the largest claims—had at least 7 days’ written notice;

and

(ii) written minutes are available that report the voting creditors’ names and the amounts of their claims; or

(4) a bona fide trade or credit association, which may solicit only creditors who, on the petition date:

(A) were its members or subscribers in good standing; and

(B) held allowable unsecured claims.

(d) When Soliciting a Proxy Is Not Permitted. This Rule 2006 does not permit soliciting a proxy:

(1) for any interest except that of a general creditor;

(2) by the interim trustee; or

- (3) by or on behalf of:
 - (A) a custodian;
 - (B) any entity not qualified to vote under § 702(a);
 - (C) an attorney-at-law; or
 - (D) a transferee holding a claim for collection purposes only.

(e) Duties of Holders of Multiple Proxies. Before voting begins at any meeting of creditors under § 341(a)—or at any other time the court orders—a holder of 2 or more proxies must file and send to the United States trustee a verified list of the proxies to be voted and a verified statement of the pertinent facts and circumstances regarding each proxy’s execution and delivery. The statement must include:

- (1) a copy of the solicitation;
- (2) an identification of the solicitor, the forwarder (if the forwarder is neither the solicitor nor the claim owner), and the proxyholder—including their connections with the debtor and with each other—together with:

(A) if the solicitor, forwarder, or proxyholder is an association, a statement that the creditors whose claims have been solicited and the creditors whose claims are to be voted were, on the petition date, members or subscribers in good standing with allowable unsecured claims; and

(B) if the solicitor, forwarder, or proxyholder is a committee of creditors, a list stating:

(i) the date and place the committee was organized;

(ii) that the committee was organized under (c)(2) or (c)(3);

- (iii) the committee's members;
- (iv) the amounts of their claims;
- (v) when the claims were acquired;
- (vi) the amounts paid for the claims; and
- (vii) the extent to which the committee members' claims are secured or entitled to priority;

(3) a statement that the proxyholder has neither paid nor promised any consideration for the proxy;

(4) a statement addressing whether there is any agreement—and, if so, giving its particulars—between the proxyholder and any other entity to:

(A) pay any consideration related to voting the proxy; or

(B) share with any entity (except a member or regular associate of the proxyholder's law firm) compensation that may be allowed to:

(i) the trustee or any entity for services rendered in the case;

or

(ii) any person employed by the estate;

(5) if the proxy was solicited by an entity other than the proxyholder—or forwarded to the holder by an entity who is neither a solicitor of the proxy nor the claim owner—a statement signed and verified by the solicitor or forwarder:

- (A) confirming that no consideration has been paid or promised for the proxy;
- (B) addressing whether there is any agreement—and, if so, giving its particulars—between the solicitor or forwarder and any other entity to pay any consideration related to voting the proxy or to share with any entity (except a member or regular associate of the solicitor’s or forwarder’s law firm) compensation that may be allowed to:
 - (i) the trustee or any entity for services rendered in the case;
 - or
 - (ii) any person employed by the estate; and
- (6) if the solicitor, forwarder, or proxyholder is a committee, a statement signed and verified by each member disclosing the amount and source of any consideration paid or to be paid to the member in connection with the case, except a dividend on the member's claim.

- (f) Enforcing Restrictions on Soliciting Proxies. On a party in interest's motion or on its own, the court may determine whether there has been a failure to comply with this Rule 2006 or any other impropriety related to soliciting or voting a proxy. After notice and a hearing, the court may:
- (1) reject a proxy for cause;
 - (2) vacate an order entered because a proxy was voted that should have been rejected; or
 - (3) take other appropriate action.

Rule 2007. Reviewing the Appointment of a Creditors' Committee Organized Before a Chapter 9 or 11 Case Is Commenced

- (a) Motion to Review the Appointment. If, in a Chapter 9 or 11 case, a committee appointed by the United States trustee under § 1102(a) consists of the members of a committee organized by creditors before the case commenced, the court may determine whether the committee's appointment satisfies the requirements of § 1102(b)(1). The court may do so on a party in interest's motion and after a hearing on notice to the United States trustee and other entities as the court orders.
- (b) Determining Whether the Committee Was Fairly Chosen. The court may find that the committee was fairly chosen if:
- (1) it was selected by a majority in number and amount of claims of unsecured creditors who are entitled to vote under § 702(a) and who were present or represented at a meeting where:

- (A) all creditors with unsecured claims of over $1,000—or the 100 unsecured creditors with the largest claims—had at least 7 days’ written notice; and
 - (B) written minutes reporting the voting creditors’ names and the amounts of their claims are available for inspection;
- (2) all proxies voted at the meeting were solicited under Rule 2006;
 - (3) the lists and statements required by Rule 2006(e) have been sent to the United States trustee; and
 - (4) the committee’s organization was in all other respects fair and proper.

- (c) Failure to Comply with Appointment Requirements. If, after a hearing on notice under (a), the court finds that a committee appointment fails to satisfy the requirements of § 1102(b)(1), it:
- (1) must order the United States trustee to vacate the appointment; and
 - (2) may order other appropriate action.

Rule 2007.1. Appointing a Trustee or Examiner in a Chapter 11 Case

- (a) In General. In a Chapter 11 case, a motion to appoint a trustee or examiner under § 1104(a) or (c) must be made in accordance with Rule 9014.
- (b) Requesting the United States Trustee to Convene a Meeting of Creditors to Elect a Trustee.
- (1) In General. A request to the United States trustee to convene a meeting of creditors to elect a trustee must be filed and sent to the United States trustee in accordance with Rule 5005 and within the time prescribed by § 1104(b). Pending court approval of the person elected, any person appointed by the United States trustee under § 1104(d) and approved under (c) below must serve as trustee.

(2) Notice and Manner of Conducting the Election. A trustee's election under § 1104(b) must be conducted as Rules 2003(b)(3) and 2006 provide, and notice of the meeting of creditors must be given as Rule 2002 provides. The United States trustee must preside at the meeting. A proxy to vote in the election may be solicited only by a creditors' committee appointed under § 1102 or by another party entitled to solicit a proxy under Rule 2006.

(3) Reporting Election Results; Resolving

Disputes.

(A) Undisputed Election. If the election is undisputed, the United States trustee must promptly file a report certifying the election, including the name and address of the person elected and a statement that the election is undisputed. - (i) the name of the entity from whom the creditor purchased the account;
- (ii) the name of the entity to whom the debt was owed at the time of an account holder's last transaction on the account;

(iii) the date of that last transaction;

(iv) the date of the last payment on the account; and

(v) the date that the account was charged to profit and loss.

(B) Copy to a Party in Interest. On a party in interest's written request, the creditor must send a copy of the writing described in (1) to that party within 30 days after the request is sent.

(d) Claim Based on a Security Interest in the Debtor's

Property. If a creditor claims a security interest in the debtor's property, the proof of claim must be accompanied by evidence that the security interest has been perfected.

(e) Transferred Claim.

(1) Claim Transferred Before a Proof of Claim Is Filed. Unless the transfer was made for security, if a claim was transferred before a proof of claim is filed, only the transferee or an indenture trustee may file a proof of claim.

(2) Claim Transferred After a Proof of Claim Was Filed.

(A) Filing Evidence of the Transfer.
Unless the transfer was made for security, the transferee of a claim that was transferred after a proof of claim is filed must file evidence of the transfer—except for a claim based on a publicly traded note, bond, or debenture.

- (B) Notice of the Filing and the Time for Objecting. The clerk must immediately notify the alleged transferor, by mail, that evidence of the transfer has been filed and that the alleged transferor has 21 days after the notice is mailed to file an objection. The court may extend the time to file it.
- (C) Hearing on an Objection; Substituting the Transferee. If, on timely objection by the alleged transferor and after notice and a hearing, the court finds that the claim was transferred other than for security, the court must substitute the transferee for the transferor. If the alleged transferor does not file a timely objection, the transferee must be substituted for the transferor.

(3) Claim Transferred for Security Before a Proof of Claim Is Filed.

(A) Right to File a Proof of Claim. If a claim (except one based on a publicly traded note, bond, or debenture) was transferred for security before the proof of claim is filed, either the transferor or transferee (or both) may file a proof of claim for the full amount. The proof of claim must include a statement setting forth the terms of the transfer.

(B) Notice of a Right to Join in a Proof of Claim; Consolidating Proofs. If either the transferor or transferee files a proof of claim, the clerk must, by mail, immediately notify the other of the right to join in the claim. If both file proofs of the same claim, the claims must be consolidated.

(C) Failure to File an Agreement About the Rights of the Transferor and Transferee. On a party in interest's motion and after notice and a hearing, the court must issue appropriate orders regarding the rights of the transferor and transferee if either one fails to file an agreement on voting the claim, receiving dividends on it, or participating in the estate's administration.

(4) Claim Transferred for Security After a Proof of Claim Was Filed.

- (A) Filing Evidence of the Transfer. If a claim (except one based on a publicly traded note, bond, or debenture) was transferred for security after a proof of claim was filed, the transferee must file a statement setting forth the terms of the transfer.

- (B) Notice of the Filing and the Time for Objecting. The clerk must immediately notify the alleged transferor, by mail, that evidence of the transfer has been filed and that the alleged transferor has 21 days after the notice is mailed to file an objection. The court may extend the time to file it.

- (C) Hearing on an Objection. If the alleged transferor files a timely objection, the court must, after notice and a hearing, determine whether the transfer was for security.

(D) Failure to File an Agreement About the Rights of the Transferor and Transferee. On a party in interest's motion and after notice and a hearing, the court must issue appropriate orders regarding the rights of the transferor and transferee if either one fails to file an agreement on voting the claim, receiving dividends on it, or participating in the estate's administration.

(5) Serving an Objection or Motion; Notice of a Hearing. At least 30 days before a hearing, a copy of any objection filed under (2) or (4) or any motion filed under (3) or (4) must be mailed or delivered to either the transferor or transferee as appropriate, together with notice of the hearing.

(f) Proof of Claim as Prima Facie Evidence of a Claim and Its Amount. A proof of claim signed and filed in accordance with these rules is prima facie evidence of the claim's validity and amount.

(g) Proving the Ownership and Quantity of Grain. To the extent not inconsistent with the United States Warehouse Act or applicable State law, a warehouse receipt, scale ticket, or similar document of the type routinely issued as evidence of title by a grain storage facility, as defined in section 557 of title 11, shall constitute prima facie evidence of the validity and amount of a claim of ownership of a quantity of grain.

Rule 3002. Filing a Proof of Claim or Interest

- (a) Need to File. Unless Rule 1019(c), 3003, 3004, or 3005 provides otherwise, every creditor must file a proof of claim—and an equity security holder must file a proof of interest—for the claim or interest to be allowed. A lien that secures a claim is not void solely because an entity failed to file a proof of claim.
- (b) Where to File. The proof of claim or interest must be filed in the district where the case is pending and in accordance with Rule 5005.
- (c) Time to File. In a voluntary Chapter 7 case or in a Chapter 12 or 13 case, the proof of claim is timely if filed within 70 days after the order for relief or entry of an order converting the case to Chapter 12 or 13. In an involuntary Chapter 7 case, a proof of claim is timely if filed within 90 days after the order for relief is entered. These exceptions apply in all cases:

- (1) Governmental Unit. A governmental unit's proof of claim is timely if filed within 180 days after the order for relief. But a proof of claim resulting from a tax return filed under § 1308 is timely if filed within 180 days after the order for relief or within 60 days after the tax return is filed. On motion filed by a governmental unit before the time expires and for cause, the court may extend the time to file a proof of claim.
- (2) Infant or Incompetent Person. In the interests of justice, the court may extend the time for an infant or incompetent person—or a representative of either—to file a proof of claim, but only if the extension will not unduly delay case administration.
- (3) Unsecured Claim That Arises from a Judgment. This paragraph (3) applies if an unsecured claim arises in favor of an entity or becomes allowable because of a judgment to recover money or property from that entity or a judgment that denies or avoids the entity's interest in property. The claim may be filed within 30 days after the judgment becomes final. But the claim must not be allowed if the judgment imposes a liability that is not satisfied—or a duty that is not performed—within the 30 days or any additional time set by the court.

- (4) Claim Arising from a Rejected Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. A proof of claim for a claim that arises from a rejected executory contract or an unexpired lease may be filed within the time set by the court.
- (5) Notice That Assets May Be Available to Pay a Dividend. The clerk must, by mail, give at least 90 days' notice to creditors that a dividend payment appears possible and that proofs of claim must be filed by the date set forth in the notice if:

- (A) a notice of insufficient assets to pay a dividend had been given under Rule 2002(e); and
- (B) the trustee later notifies the court that a dividend appears possible.

(6) Claim Secured by a Security Interest in the Debtor's Principal Residence. A proof of a claim secured by a security interest in the debtor's principal residence is timely filed if:

- (A) the proof of claim and attachments required by Rule 3001(c)(2)(C) are filed within 70 days after the order for relief; and

(B) the attachments required by Rule 3001(c)(1) and (d) are filed as a supplement to the holder's claim within 120 days after the order for relief.

(7) Extending the Time to File. On a creditor's motion filed before or after the time to file a proof of claim has expired, the court may extend the time to file by no more than 60 days from the date of its order. The motion may be granted if the court finds that the notice was insufficient to give the creditor a reasonable time to file.

Rule 3002.1. Notice Relating to Claims Secured by a Security Interest in the Debtor's Principal Residence in a Chapter 13 Case

(a) In General. This rule applies in a Chapter 13 case to a claim that is secured by a security interest in the debtor's principal residence and for which the plan provides for the trustee or debtor to make contractual installment payments. Unless the court orders otherwise, the notice requirements of this rule cease when an order terminating or annulling the automatic stay related to that residence becomes effective.

(b) Notice of a Payment Change.

(1) Notice by the Claim Holder. The claim holder must file a notice of any change in the amount of an installment payment—including any change resulting from an interest-rate or escrow-account adjustment. At least 21 days before the new payment is due, the notice must be filed and served on:

- the debtor;
- the debtor's attorney; and
- the trustee.

If the claim arises from a home-equity line of credit, the court may modify this requirement.

- (2) Party in Interest's Objection. A party in interest who objects to the payment change may file a motion to determine whether the change is required to maintain payments under § 1322(b)(5). Unless the court orders otherwise, if no motion is filed by the day before the new payment is due, the change goes into effect.

- (c) Fees, Expenses, and Charges Incurred After the Case Was Filed; Notice by the Claim Holder. The claim holder must file a notice itemizing all fees, expenses, and charges incurred after the case was filed that the holder asserts are recoverable against the debtor or the debtor's principal residence. Within 180 days after the fees, expenses, or charges were incurred, the notice must be served on:

- the debtor;
- the debtor's attorney; and
- the trustee.

(d) Filing Notice as a Supplement to a Proof of Claim.

A notice under (b) or (c) must be filed as a supplement to the proof of claim using Form 410S-1 or 410S-2, respectively. The notice is not subject to Rule 3001(f).

(e) Determining Fees, Expenses, or Charges. On a party in interest's motion filed within one year after the notice in (c) was served, the court must, after notice and a hearing, determine whether paying any claimed fee, expense, or charge is required by the underlying agreement and applicable nonbankruptcy law to cure a default or maintain payments under § 1322(b)(5).

(f) Notice of the Final Cure Payment.

(1) Content of a Notice. Within 30 days after the debtor completes all payments under a Chapter 13 plan, the trustee must file a notice:

(A) stating that the debtor has paid in full the amount required to cure any default on the claim; and

(B) informing the claim holder of its obligation to file and serve a response under (g).

(2) Serving the Notice. The notice must be served on:

- the claim holder;
- the debtor; and
- the debtor's attorney.

(3) The Debtor's Right to File. The debtor may file and serve the notice if:

- (A) the trustee fails to do so; and
- (B) the debtor contends that the final cure payment has been made and all plan payments have been completed.

(g) Response to a Notice of the Final Cure Payment.

(1) Required Statement. Within 21 days after the notice under (f) is served, the claim holder must file and serve a statement that:

- (A) indicates whether:
 - (i) the claim holder agrees that the debtor has paid in full the amount required to cure any default on the claim; and
 - (ii) the debtor is otherwise current on all payments under § 1322(b)(5); and

(B) itemizes the required cure or postpetition amounts, if any, that the claim holder contends remain unpaid as of the statement's date.

(2) Persons to be Served. The holder must serve the statement on:

- the debtor;
- the debtor's attorney; and
- the trustee.

(3) Statement to be a Supplement. The statement must be filed as a supplement to the proof of claim and is not subject to Rule 3001(f).

(h) Determining the Final Cure Payment. On the debtor's or trustee's motion filed within 21 days after the statement under (g) is served, the court must, after notice and a hearing, determine whether the debtor has cured the default and made all required postpetition payments.

(i) Failure to Give Notice. If the claim holder fails to provide any information as required by (b), (c), or (g), the court may, after notice and a hearing, take one or both of these actions:

- (1) preclude the holder from presenting the omitted information in any form as evidence in a contested matter or adversary proceeding in the case—unless the failure was substantially justified or is harmless; and
- (2) award other appropriate relief, including reasonable expenses and attorney’s fees caused by the failure.

Rule 3003. Chapter 9 or 11—Filing a Proof of Claim or Equity Interest

(a) Scope. This rule applies only in a Chapter 9 or 11 case.

(b) Scheduled Liabilities and Listed Equity Security

Holders as Prima Facie Evidence of Validity and Amount.

- (1) Creditor's Claim. An entry on the schedule of liabilities filed under § 521(a)(1)(B)(i) is prima facie evidence of the validity and the amount of a creditor's claim—except for a claim scheduled as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated. Filing a proof of claim is unnecessary except as provided in (c)(2).
- (2) Interest of an Equity Security Holder. An entry on the list of equity security holders filed under Rule 1007(a)(3) is prima facie evidence of the validity and the amount of the equity interest. Filing a proof of the interest is unnecessary except as provided in (c)(2).

(c) Filing a Proof of Claim.

- (1) Who May File a Proof of Claim. A creditor or indenture trustee may file a proof of claim.

(2) Who Must File a Proof of Claim or Interest.

A creditor or equity security holder whose claim or interest is not scheduled—or is scheduled as disputed, contingent, or unliquidated—must file a proof of claim or interest. A creditor who fails to do so will not be treated as a creditor for that claim for voting and distribution.

(3) Time to File. The court must set the time to file a proof of claim or interest and may, for cause, extend the time. If the time has expired, the proof of claim or interest may be filed to the extent and under the conditions stated in Rule 3002(c)(2), (3), (4), and (7).

(4) Proof of Claim by an Indenture Trustee. An indenture trustee may file a proof of claim on behalf of all known or unknown holders of securities issued under the trust instrument under which it is trustee.

(5) Effect of Filing a Proof of Claim or Interest.

A proof of claim or interest signed and filed under (c) supersedes any scheduling of the claim or interest under § 521(a)(1).

- (d) Treating a Nonrecord Holder of a Security as the Record Holder. For the purpose of Rules 3017, 3018, and 3021 and receiving notices, an entity that is not a record holder of a security may file a statement setting forth facts that entitle the entity to be treated as the record holder. A party in interest may file an objection to the statement.

Rule 3004. Proof of Claim Filed by the Debtor or Trustee for a Creditor

- (a) Filing by the Debtor or Trustee. If a creditor does not file a proof of claim within the time prescribed by Rule 3002(c) or Rule 3003(c), the debtor or trustee may do so within 30 days after the creditor's time to file expires.

(b) Notice by the Clerk. The clerk must promptly give notice of the filing to:

- the creditor;
- the debtor; and
- the trustee.

Rule 3005. Filing a Proof of Claim or Accepting or Rejecting a Plan by a Surety, Endorser, Guarantor, or Other Codebtor

(a) In General. If a creditor fails to file a proof of claim within the time prescribed by Rule 3002(c) or Rule 3003(c), it may be filed by an entity that, along with the debtor, is or may be liable to the creditor or has given security for the creditor's debt. The entity must do so within 30 days after the creditor's time to file expires. A distribution on such a claim may be made only on satisfactory proof that the distribution will diminish the original debt.

(b) Accepting or Rejecting a Plan in a Creditor's Name. An entity that has filed a proof of claim on a creditor's behalf under (a) may accept or reject a plan in the creditor's name. If the creditor's name is unknown, the entity may do so in its own name. But the creditor must be substituted for the entity on that claim if the creditor:

- (1) files a proof of claim within the time permitted by Rule 3003(c); or
- (2) files notice, before the plan is confirmed, of an intent to act on the creditor's own behalf.

Rule 3006. Withdrawing a Proof of Claim; Effect on a Plan

(a) Notice of Withdrawal; Limitations. A creditor may withdraw a proof of claim by filing a notice of withdrawal. But unless the court orders otherwise after notice and a hearing, a creditor may not withdraw a proof of claim if:

- (1) an objection to it has been filed;
- (2) a complaint has been filed against the creditor in an adversary proceeding; or
- (3) the creditor has accepted or rejected the plan or has participated significantly in the case.

(b) Notice of the Hearing; Order Permitting

Withdrawal. Notice of the hearing must be served on:

- the trustee or debtor in possession; and
- any creditors' committee elected under § 705(a) or appointed under § 1102.

The court's order permitting a creditor to withdraw a proof of claim may contain any terms and conditions the court considers proper.

(c) Effect of Withdrawing a Proof of Claim. Unless the court orders otherwise, an authorized withdrawal constitutes withdrawal of any related acceptance or rejection of a plan.

Rule 3007. Objecting to a Claim

(a) Time and Manner of Serving the Objection.

(1) Time to Serve. An objection to a claim and a notice of the objection must be filed and served at least 30 days before a scheduled hearing on the objection or any deadline for the claim holder to request a hearing.

(2) Whom to Serve; Manner of Service.

(A) Serving the Claim Holder. The notice—substantially conforming to Form 420B—and objection must be served by mail on the person the claim holder most recently designated to receive notices on the claim holder’s original or latest amended proof of claim, at the address so indicated. If the objection is to a claim of:

(i) the United States or one of its officers or agencies, service must also be made as if it were a summons and complaint under Rule 7004(b)(4) or (5); or

(ii) an insured depository institution as defined in section 3 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, service must also be made under Rule 7004(h).

(B) Serving Others. The notice and objection must also be served, by mail (or other permitted means), on:

- the debtor or debtor in possession;
- the trustee; and
- if applicable, the entity that filed the proof of claim under Rule 3005.

- (b) Demanding Relief That Requires an Adversary Proceeding Not Permitted. In objecting to a claim, a party in interest must not include a demand for a type of relief specified in Rule 7001 but may include the objection in an adversary proceeding.
- (c) Limit on Omnibus Objections. Unless the court orders otherwise or (d) permits, objections to more than one claim may not be joined in a single objection.
- (d) Omnibus Objection. Subject to (e), objections to more than one claim may be joined in a single objection if:

- (1) all the claims were filed by the same entity;
or
- (2) the objections are based solely on grounds that the claims should be disallowed, in whole or in part, because they:
 - (A) duplicate other claims;
 - (B) were filed in the wrong case;
 - (C) have been amended by later proofs of claim;
 - (D) were not timely filed;
 - (E) have been satisfied or released during the case in accordance with the Code, applicable rules, or a court order;
 - (F) were presented in a form that does not comply with applicable rules and the objection states that the objector is therefore unable to determine a claim's validity;

(G) are interests, not claims; or

(H) assert a priority in an amount that exceeds the maximum amount allowable under § 507.

(e) Required Content of an Omnibus Objection. An omnibus objection must:

(1) state in a conspicuous place that claim holders can find their names and claims in the objection;

(2) list the claim holders alphabetically, provide a cross-reference to claim numbers, and, if appropriate, list claim holders by category of claims;

(3) state for each claim the grounds for the objection and provide a cross- reference to the pages where pertinent information about the grounds appears;

- (4) state in the title the objector's identity and the grounds for the objections;
- (5) be numbered consecutively with other omnibus objections filed by the same objector; and
- (6) contain objections to no more than 100 claims.

(f) Finality of an Order When Objections Are Joined. When objections are joined, the finality of an order regarding any claim must be determined as though the claim had been subject to an individual objection.

Rule 3008. Reconsidering an Order Allowing or Disallowing a Claim

A party in interest may move to reconsider an order allowing or disallowing a claim. After notice and a hearing, the court must issue an appropriate order.

Rule 3009. Chapter 7—Paying Dividends

In a Chapter 7 case, dividends to creditors on claims that have been allowed must be paid as soon as practicable. A dividend check must be made payable to and mailed to the creditor. But if a power of attorney authorizing another entity to receive payment has been filed under Rule 9010, the check must be:

- (a) made payable to both the creditor and the other entity; and
- (b) mailed to the other entity.

Rule 3010. Chapter 7, Subchapter V of Chapter 11, Chapter 12, and Chapter 13—Limits on Small Dividends and Payments

- (a) Chapter 7. In a Chapter 7 case, the trustee must not distribute to a creditor any dividend less than $5 unless authorized to do so by local rule or court order. A dividend not distributed must be treated in the same manner as unclaimed funds under § 347.

- (b) Subchapter V of Chapter 11, Chapter 12, and Chapter 13. In a case under Subchapter V of Chapter 11, or under Chapter 12 or 13, the trustee must not distribute to a creditor any payment less than $15 unless authorized to do so by local rule or court order. Distribution must be made when accumulated funds total $15 or more. Any remaining funds must be distributed with the final payment.

Rule 3011. Chapter 7, Subchapter V of Chapter 11, Chapter 12, and Chapter 13—Listing Unclaimed Funds

- (a) Filing the List. The trustee must:
- (1) file a list of the known names and addresses of entities entitled to payment from any remaining property of the estate that is paid into court under § 347(a); and
 - (2) include the amount due each entity.
- (b) Making the Information Searchable. On the court’s website, the clerk must provide searchable access to information about funds deposited under § 347(a). The court may, for cause, limit access to that information in a specific case.

Rule 3012. Determining the Amount of a Secured or Priority Claim

(a) In General. On a party in interest's request, after notice and a hearing, the court may determine the amount of a secured claim under § 506(a) or the amount of a priority claim under § 507. The notice must be served on:

- the claim holder; and
- any other entity the court designates.

(b) Determining the Amount of a Claim.

(1) Secured Claim. Except as provided in (c), a request to determine the amount of a secured claim may be made by motion, in an objection to a claim, or in a plan filed in a Chapter 12 or 13 case. If the request is included in a plan, a copy of the plan must be served on the claim holder and any other entity the court designates as if it were a summons and complaint under Rule 7004.

(2) Priority Claim. A request to determine the amount of a priority claim may be made only by motion after the claim is filed or in an objection to the claim.

(c) Governmental Unit's Secured Claim. A request to determine the amount of a governmental unit's secured claim may be made only by motion—or in an objection to a claim—filed after:

- (1) the governmental unit has filed the proof of claim; or
- (2) the time to file it under Rule 3002(c)(1) has expired.

Rule 3013. Determining Classes of Creditors and Equity Security Holders

For purposes of a plan and its acceptance, the court may—on motion after hearing on notice as the court orders—determine classes of creditors and equity security holders under §§ 1122, 1222(b)(1), and 1322(b)(1).

Rule 3014. Chapter 9 or 11—Secured Creditors’ Election to Apply § 1111(b)(a) Time for an Election.

- (1) Chapter 9 or 11. In a Chapter 9 or 11 case, before a hearing on the disclosure statement concludes, a class of secured creditors may elect to apply § 1111(b)(2). If the disclosure statement is conditionally approved under Rule 3017.1 and a final hearing on it is not held, the election must be made within the time provided in Rule 3017.1(a)(2). In either situation, the court may set another time for the election.

- (2) Subchapter V of Chapter 11. In a case under Subchapter V of Chapter 11 in which § 1125 does not apply, the election may be made no later than a date the court sets.

- (b) Signed Writing; Binding Effect. The election must be made in writing and signed, unless made at the hearing on the disclosure statement. An election made by the majorities required by § 1111(b)(1)(A)(i) is binding on all members of the class.

Rule 3015. Chapter 12 or 13—Time to File a Plan; Nonstandard Provisions; Objection to Confirmation; Effect of Confirmation; Modifying a Plan

- (a) Time to File a Chapter 12 Plan. The debtor must file a Chapter 12 plan:
- (1) with the petition; or

- (2) within the time prescribed by § 1221.

(b) Time to File a Chapter 13 Plan.

- (1) In General. The debtor must file a Chapter 13 plan with the petition or within 14 days after the petition is filed. The time to file must not be extended except for cause and on notice as the court orders.

- (2) Case Converted to Chapter 13. If a case is converted to Chapter 13, the plan must be filed within 14 days after conversion. The time must not be extended except for cause and on notice as the court orders.

(c) Form of a Chapter 13 Plan.

- (1) In General. In filing a Chapter 13 plan, the debtor must use Form 113, unless the court has adopted a local form under Rule 3015.1.

- (2) Nonstandard Provision. With either form, a nonstandard provision is effective only if it is included in the section of the form that is designated for nonstandard provisions and is identified in accordance with any other requirements of the form. A nonstandard provision is one that is not included in the form or deviates from it.

- (d) Serving a Copy of the Plan. If the plan was not included with the notice of a confirmation hearing mailed under Rule 2002, the debtor must serve the plan on the trustee and creditors when it is filed.
- (e) Copy to the United States Trustee. The clerk must promptly send to the United States trustee a copy of any plan filed under (a) or (b) or any modification of it.
- (f) Objection to Confirmation; Determining Good Faith When No Objection is Filed.

- (1) Serving an Objection. An entity that objects to a plan's confirmation must file and serve the objection on the debtor, trustee, and any other entity the court designates, and must send a copy to the United States trustee. Unless the court orders otherwise, the objection must be filed, served, and sent at least 7 days before the date set for the confirmation hearing. The objection is governed by Rule 9014.
 - (2) When No Objection Is Filed. If no objection is timely filed, the court may, without receiving evidence, determine that the plan has been proposed in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law.
- (g) Effect of Confirmation of a Chapter 12 or 13 Plan on the Amount of a Secured Claim; Terminating the Stay.

(1) Secured Claim. When a plan is confirmed, the amount of a secured claim—determined in the plan under Rule 3012—becomes binding on the claim holder. That is the effect even if the holder files a contrary proof of claim, the debtor schedules that claim, or an objection to the claim is filed.

(2) Terminating the Stay. When a plan is confirmed, a request in the plan to terminate the stay imposed under § 362(a), § 1201(a), or § 1301(a) is granted.

(h) Modifying a Plan After It Is Confirmed.

(1) Request to Modify a Plan After It Is Confirmed. A request to modify a confirmed plan under § 1229 or § 1329 must identify the proponent and include the proposed modification. Unless the court orders otherwise for creditors not affected by the modification, the clerk or the court's designee must:

- (A) give the debtor, trustee, and creditors at least 21 days' notice, by mail, of the time to file objections and the date of any hearing;
- (B) send a copy of the notice to the United States trustee; and
- (C) include a copy or summary of the modification.

(2) Objecting to a Modification. Rule 9014 governs an objection to a proposed modification. An objection must be filed and served on:

- the debtor;
- the trustee; and
- any other entity the court designates.

A copy must also be sent to the United States trustee.

Rule 3015.1 Requirements for a Local Form for a Chapter 13 Plan

As an exception to Rule 9029(a)(1), a district may require that a single local form be used for a Chapter 13 plan instead of Form 113 if it:

- (a) is adopted for the district after public notice and an opportunity for comment;
- (b) numbers and labels each paragraph in boldface type with a heading that states its general subject matter;
- (c) includes an opening paragraph for the debtor to indicate that the plan does or does not:
 - (1) contain a nonstandard provision;
 - (2) limit the amount of a secured claim based on a valuation of the collateral; or
 - (3) avoid a security interest or lien;
- (d) contains separate paragraphs relating to:
 - (1) curing any default and maintaining payments

- on a claim secured by the debtor's principal residence;
 - (2) paying a domestic support obligation;
 - (3) paying a claim described in the final paragraph of § 1325(a); and
 - (4) surrendering property that secures a claim and requesting that the stay under § 362(a) or 1301(a) related to the property be terminated; and
- (e) contains a final paragraph providing a place for:
- (1) nonstandard provisions as defined in Rule 3015(c), with a warning that any nonstandard provision placed elsewhere is void; and

Rule 3016. Chapter 9 or 11—Plan and Disclosure Statement

- (a) In General. In a Chapter 9 or 11 case, every proposed plan or modification must be dated. In a Chapter 11 case, the plan or modification must also name the entity or entities proposing or filing it.
- (b) Filing a Disclosure Statement.
- (1) In General. In a Chapter 9 or 11 case, unless (2) applies, the disclosure statement, if required by § 1125—or evidence showing compliance with § 1126(b)—must be filed with the plan or at another time set by the court.
- (2) Providing Information Under § 1125(f)(1).
A plan intended to provide adequate information under § 1125(f)(1) must be so designated. Rule 3017.1 then applies as if the plan were a disclosure statement.
- (c) Injunction in a Plan. If the plan provides for an injunction against conduct not otherwise enjoined by the Code, the plan and disclosure statement must:

- (1) describe in specific and conspicuous language (bold, italic, or underlined text) all acts to be enjoined; and
- (2) identify the entities that would be subject to the injunction.

(d) Form of a Disclosure Statement and Plan in a Small Business Case or a Case Under Subchapter V of Chapter 11. In a small business case or a case under Subchapter V of Chapter 11, the court may approve a disclosure statement that substantially conforms to Form 425B and confirm a plan that substantially conforms to Form 425A—or, in either instance, to a standard form approved by the court.

Rule 3017. Chapter 9 or 11—Hearing on a Disclosure Statement and Plan

(a) Hearing on a Disclosure Statement; Objections.

(1) Notice and Hearing.

(A) Notice. Except as provided in Rule 3017.1 for a small business case, the court must hold a hearing on a disclosure statement filed under Rule 3016(b) and any objection or modification to it. The hearing must be held on at least 28 days' notice under Rule 2002(b) to:

- the debtor;
- creditors;
- equity security holders; and
- other parties in interest.

(B) Limit on Sending the Plan and Disclosure Statement. A copy of the plan and disclosure statement must be mailed with the notice of a hearing to:

- the debtor;
- any trustee or appointed committee;
- the Securities and Exchange Commission; and
- any party in interest that, in writing, requests a copy of the disclosure statement or plan.

(2) Objecting to a Disclosure Statement. An objection to a disclosure statement must be filed and served before the disclosure statement is approved or by an earlier date the court sets. The objection must be served on:

- the debtor;
- the trustee;
- any appointed committee; and

- any other entity the court designates.

(3) Chapter 11—Copies to the United States Trustee. In a Chapter 11 case, a copy of every item required to be served or mailed under this Rule 3017(a) must also be sent to the United States trustee within the prescribed time.

(b) Court Ruling on the Disclosure Statement. After the hearing, the court must determine whether the disclosure statement should be approved.

(c) Time to Accept or Reject a Plan and for the Confirmation Hearing. At the time or before the disclosure statement is approved, the court:

- (1) must set a deadline for the holders of claims and interests to accept or reject the plan; and
- (2) may set a date for a confirmation hearing.

(d) Hearing on Confirmation.

(1) Sending the Plan and Related Documents.

(A) In General. After the disclosure statement has been approved, the court must order the debtor in possession, the trustee, the plan proponent, or the clerk to mail the following items to creditors and equity security holders and, in a Chapter 11 case, to send a copy of each to the United States trustee:

- (i) the court-approved disclosure statement;
- (ii) the plan or a court-approved summary of it;
- (iii) a notice of the time to file acceptances and rejections of the plan; and

(iv) any other information as the court orders—including any opinion approving the disclosure statement or a court-approved summary of the opinion.

(B) Exception. The court may vary the requirements for an unimpaired class of creditors or equity security holders.

(2) Time to Object to a Plan; Notice of the Confirmation Hearing. Notice of the time to file an objection to a plan's confirmation and the date of the hearing on confirmation must be mailed to creditors and equity security holders in accordance with Rule 2002(b). A ballot that conforms to Form 314 must also be mailed to creditors and equity security holders who are entitled to vote on the plan.

If the court's opinion is not sent (or only a summary of the plan was sent), a party in interest may request a copy of the opinion or plan, which must be provided at the plan proponent's expense.

(3) Notice to Unimpaired Classes. If the court orders that the disclosure statement and plan (or the plan summary) not be mailed to an unimpaired class, a notice that the class has been designated as unimpaired must be mailed to the class members. The notice must show:

(A) the name and address of the person from whom the plan (or summary) and the disclosure statement may be obtained at the plan proponent's expense;

(B) the time to file an objection to the plan’s confirmation; and

(C) the date of the confirmation hearing.

(4) Definition of “Creditors” and “Equity Security Holders.” In this Rule 3017(d), “creditors” and “equity security holders” include record holders of stock, bonds, debentures, notes, and other securities on the date the order approving the disclosure statement is entered—or another date the court sets for cause and after notice and a hearing.

(e) Procedure for Sending Information to Beneficial Holders of Securities. At the hearing under (a), the court must:

(1) determine the adequacy of the procedures for sending the documents and information listed in (d)(1) to beneficial holders of stock, bonds, debentures, notes, and other securities; and

(2) issue any appropriate orders.

(f) Sending Information to Entities Subject to an Injunction.

(1) Timing of the Notice. This Rule 3017(f) applies if, under a plan, an entity that is not a creditor or equity security holder is subject to an injunction against conduct not otherwise enjoined by the Code. At the hearing under (a), the court must consider procedures to provide the entity with at least 28 days' notice of:

(A) the time to file an objection; and

(B) the date of the confirmation hearing.

(2) Content of the Notice. The notice must:

(A) provide the information required by Rule 2002(c)(3); and

- (B) if feasible, include a copy of the plan and disclosure statement.

Rule 3017.1. Disclosure Statement in a Small Business Case or a Case Under Subchapter V of Chapter 11

(a) Conditionally Approving a Disclosure Statement.

This section (a) applies in a small business case or in a case under Subchapter V of Chapter 11 in which the court has ordered that § 1125 applies. The court may, on motion of the plan proponent or on its own, conditionally approve a disclosure statement filed under Rule 3016. On or before doing so, the court must:

- (1) set the time within which the claim holders and interest holders may accept or reject the plan;
- (2) set the time to file an objection to the disclosure statement;

- (3) if a timely objection is filed, set the date to hold the hearing on final approval of the disclosure statement; and
 - (4) set a date for the confirmation hearing.
- (b) Effect of a Conditional Approval. Rule 3017(a)–(c) and (e) do not apply to a conditionally approved disclosure statement. But conditional approval is considered approval in applying Rule 3017(d).
- (c) Time to File an Objection; Date of a Hearing.
- (1) Notice. Notice must be given under Rule 2002(b) of the time to file an objection and the date of a hearing to consider final approval of the disclosure statement. The notice may be combined with notice of the confirmation hearing.
 - (2) Time to File an Objection to the Disclosure Statement. An objection to the disclosure statement must be filed before it is finally approved or by an earlier date set by the court. The objection must be served on:

- the debtor;
- the trustee;
- any appointed committee; and
- any other entity the court designates.

A copy must also be sent to the United States trustee.

- (3) Hearing on an Objection to the Disclosure Statement. If a timely objection to the disclosure statement is filed, the court must hold a hearing on final approval either before or combined with the confirmation hearing.

Rule 3017.2. Setting Dates in a Case Under Subchapter V of Chapter 11 in Which There Is No Disclosure Statement

In a case under Subchapter V of Chapter 11 in which § 1125 does not apply, the court must set:

- (a) a time within which the holders of claims and interests may accept or reject the plan;
- (b) a date on which an equity security holder or a creditor whose claim is based on a security must be the record holder of the security in order to be eligible to accept or reject the plan;
- (c) a date for the hearing on confirmation; and
- (d) a date for sending the plan, notice of the time within which the holders of claims and interests may accept or reject it, and notice of the date for the hearing on confirmation.

(2) Claim Based on a Security of Record.

Subject to (b), an equity security holder or creditor whose claim is based on a security of record may accept or reject a plan only if the equity security holder or creditor is the holder of record:

(B) on another date the court sets:

(i) under Rule 3017.2; or

(ii) after notice and a hearing and for cause.

Rejection. After notice and a hearing and for cause, the court may permit a creditor or equity security holder to change or withdraw an acceptance or rejection.

(4) Temporarily Allowing a Claim or Interest.

Even if an objection to a claim or interest has been filed, the court may, after notice and a hearing, temporarily allow a claim or interest in an amount that the court considers proper for voting to accept or reject a plan.

(b) Treatment of Acceptances or Rejections Obtained Before the Petition Was Filed.

- (1) Acceptance or Rejection by a Nonholder of Record. An equity security holder or creditor who accepted or rejected a plan before the petition was filed will not be considered to have accepted or rejected the plan under § 1126(b) if the equity security holder or creditor:

- (A) has a claim or interest based on a security of record; and
 - (B) was not the security's holder of record on the date specified in the solicitation of the acceptance or rejection.
- (2) Defective Solicitations. A holder of a claim or interest who accepted or rejected a plan before the petition was filed will not be considered to have accepted or rejected the plan if the court finds, after notice and a hearing, that:
- (A) the plan was not sent to substantially all creditors and equity security holders of the same class;

security holder—or an authorized agent; and
- (D) conform to Form 314.

(2) When More Than One Plan Is Distributed.

If more than one plan is sent under Rule 3017, a creditor or equity security holder may accept or reject one or more plans and may indicate preferences among those accepted.

- (d) Partially Secured Creditor. If a creditor's claim has been allowed in part as a secured claim and in part as an unsecured claim, the creditor may accept or reject a plan in both capacities.

Rule 3019. Chapter 9 or 11—Modifying a Plan

- (a) Modifying a Plan Before Confirmation. In a Chapter 9 or 11 case, after a plan has been accepted and before confirmation, the plan proponent may file a modification. The modification is considered accepted by any creditor or equity security holder who has accepted it in writing. For others who have not accepted it in writing but have accepted the plan, the modification is considered accepted if, after notice and a hearing, the court finds that it does not adversely change the treatment of their claims or interests. The notice must be served on:

- the trustee;
- any appointed committee; and
- any other entity the court designates.

(b) Modifying a Plan After Confirmation in an Individual Debtor’s Chapter 11 Case.

Any funds deposited must be kept in a special account established for the sole purpose of making the distribution.

(b) Chapter 9 or 11—Objecting to Confirmation; Confirmation Hearing.

(1) Objecting to Confirmation. In a Chapter 9 or 11 case, an objection to confirmation is governed by Rule 9014. The objection must be filed and served within the time set by the court and be served on:

- (3) Hearing on the Objection; Procedure If No Objection Is Filed. After notice and a hearing as provided in Rule 2002, the court must rule on confirmation. If no objection is timely filed, the court may, without receiving evidence, determine that the plan was proposed in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law.

(c) Confirmation Order.

- (1) Form of the Order; Injunctive Relief. A confirmation order must conform to Form 315. If the plan provides for an injunction against conduct not otherwise enjoined under the Code, the order must:

- the person who filed the list of exempt property; and
- that person's attorney.

(3) Objection Based on § 522(q). An objection

- the trustee;
- the debtor;
- the debtor's attorney;
- the person who filed the list of exempt property; and
- that person's attorney.

(c) Burden of Proof. In a hearing under this Rule 4003, the objecting party has the burden of proving that an exemption was not properly claimed. After notice and a hearing, the court must determine the issues presented.

(d) Avoiding a Lien or Other Transfer of Exempt Property.

(1) Bringing a Proceeding. A proceeding under § 522(f) to avoid a lien or other transfer of exempt property must be commenced by:

2002(k);
- all creditors under Rule 2002(f);

- the trustee; and
- the trustee's attorney.

(b) Extending the Time to File an Objection.

- (1) Motion Before the Time Expires. On a party in interest's motion and after notice and a hearing, the court may, for cause, extend the time to object to a discharge. The motion must be filed before the time has expired.
- (2) Motion After the Time Has Expired. After the time to object has expired and before a discharge is granted, a party in interest may file a motion to extend the time if:
 - (A) the objection is based on facts that, if learned after the discharge is granted, would provide a basis for revocation under § 727(d);
 - (B) the movant did not know those facts in time to object; and

- (C) the movant files the motion promptly after learning about them.

(c) Granting a Discharge.

- (1) Chapter 7. In a Chapter 7 case, when the times to object to discharge and to file a motion to dismiss the case under Rule 1017(e) expire, the court must promptly grant the discharge—except under these circumstances:

- (A) the debtor is not an individual;

(H) the debtor has not filed a statement showing that a course on personal financial management has been completed—if such a statement is required by Rule 1007(b)(7);

(I) a motion is pending to delay or postpone a discharge under § 727(a)(12);

(J) a motion is pending to extend the time to file a reaffirmation agreement under Rule 4008(a);

(K) the court has not concluded a hearing on a presumption—in effect under § 524(m)—that a reaffirmation agreement is an undue hardship; or

(L) a motion is pending to delay discharge because the debtor has not filed with the court all tax documents required to be filed under § 521(f).

(2) Delay in Entering a Discharge in General.

On the debtor's motion, the court may delay entering a discharge for 30 days and, on a motion made within that time, delay entry to a date certain.

(3) Delaying Entry Because of Rule 1007(b)(8).

If the debtor is required to file a statement under Rule 1007(b)(8), the court must not grant a discharge until at least 30 days after the statement is filed.

(4) Individual Chapter 11 or Chapter 13 Case.

In a Chapter 11 case in which the debtor is an individual—or in a Chapter 13 case—the court must not grant a discharge if the debtor has not filed a statement required by Rule 1007(b)(7).

(d) Applying Part VII Rules and Rule 9014. The Part VII rules govern an objection to a discharge, except that Rule 9014 governs an objection to a discharge under § 727(a)(8) or (9) or § 1328(f).

- (e) Form of a Discharge Order. A discharge order must conform to the appropriate Official Form.
- (f) Registering a Discharge in Another District. A discharge order that becomes final may be registered in another district by filing a certified copy with the clerk for that district. When registered, the order has the same effect as an order of the court where it is registered.
- (g) Notice of a Final Discharge Order. The clerk must promptly mail a copy of the final discharge order to those entities listed in (a)(4).

Rule 4005. Burden of Proof in Objecting to a Discharge

At a trial on a complaint objecting to a discharge, the plaintiff has the burden of proof.

Rule 4006. Notice When No Discharge Is Granted

The clerk must promptly notify in the manner provided by Rule 2002(f) all parties in interest of an order:

- (a) denying a discharge;

- (c) approving a waiver of discharge; or
- (d) closing an individual debtor's case without entering a discharge.

- (c) Chapter 7, 11, 12, or 13—Time to File a Complaint Under § 523(c); Notice of Time; Extension. Except as (d) provides, a complaint to determine whether a debt is dischargeable under § 523(c) must be filed within 60 days after the first date set for the § 341(a) meeting of creditors. The clerk must give all creditors at least 30 days' notice of the time to file in the manner provided by Rule 2002. On a party in interest's motion filed before the time expires, the court may, after notice and a hearing and for cause, extend the time to file.

(d) Chapter 13—Time to File a Complaint Under § 523(a)(6); Notice of Time; Extension. When a debtor files a motion for a discharge under § 1328(b), the court must set the time to file a complaint under § 523(a)(6) to determine whether a debt is dischargeable. The clerk must give all creditors at least 30 days' notice of the time to file in the manner provided by Rule 2002. On a party in interest's motion filed before the time expires, the court may, after notice and a hearing and for cause, extend the time to file.

- (e) Applying Part VII Rules. The Part VII rules govern a proceeding on a complaint filed under this Rule 4007.

Rule 4008. Reaffirmation Agreement and Supporting Statement

- (a) Time to File; Cover Sheet. A reaffirmation agreement must be filed within 60 days after the first date set for the § 341(a) meeting of creditors. The agreement must have a cover sheet prepared as prescribed by Form 427. At any time, the court may extend the time to file an agreement.
- (b) Supporting Statement. The debtor's supporting statement required by § 524(k)(6)(A) must be accompanied by a statement of the total income and expenses as shown on Schedules I and J. If the income and expenses shown on the supporting statement differ from those shown on the schedules, the supporting statement must explain the difference.

PART V. COURTS AND CLERKSRule 5001. Court Operations; Clerks' Offices

- (a) Courts Always Open. Bankruptcy courts are considered always open for filing a pleading, motion, or other paper; issuing and returning process; making rules; or entering an order.
- (b) Location for Trials and Hearings; Proceedings in Chambers. Every trial or hearing must be held in open court—in a regular courtroom if convenient. Except as provided in 28 U.S.C. § 152(c), any other act may be performed—or a proceeding held—in chambers anywhere within or outside the district. But unless it is ex parte, a hearing may be held outside the district only if all affected parties consent.
- (c) Clerk's Office Hours. A clerk's office—with the clerk or a deputy in attendance—must be open during business hours on all days except Saturdays, Sundays, and the legal holidays listed in Rule 9006(a)(6).

Rule 5002. Restrictions on Approving Court Appointments

(a) Appointing or Employing Relatives.

(1) Trustee or Examiner. A bankruptcy judge must not approve appointing an individual as a trustee or examiner under § 1104 if the individual is a relative of either the judge or the United States trustee in the region where the case is pending.

(2) Attorney, Accountant, Appraiser, Auctioneer, or Other Professional Person. A bankruptcy judge must not approve employing under § 327, § 1103, or § 1114 an individual as an attorney, accountant, appraiser, auctioneer, or other professional person who is a relative of the judge. The court may approve employing a relative of the United States trustee in the region where the case is pending, unless the relationship makes the employment improper.

- (3) Related Entities and Associates. If an appointment under (1) or an employment under (2) is forbidden, so is appointing or employing:
- (A) any entity—including any firm, partnership, or corporation—with which the individual has a business association or relationship; or

(B) a member, associate, or professional employee of such an entity.

(b) Other Considerations in Approving Appointments or Employment. A bankruptcy judge must not approve appointing a person as a trustee or examiner—or employing an attorney, accountant, appraiser, auctioneer, or other professional person—if the person is, or has been, so connected with the judge or the United States trustee as to make the appointment or employment improper.

Rule 5003. Records to Be Kept by the Clerk

(a) Bankruptcy Docket. The clerk must keep a docket in each case and must:

- (1) enter on the docket each judgment, order, and activity, as prescribed by the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts; and
 - (2) show the date of entry for each judgment or order.
- (b) Claims Register. When it appears that there will be a distribution to unsecured creditors, the clerk must keep in a claims register a list of the claims filed in the case.
- (c) Judgments and Orders.
- (1) In General. In the form and manner prescribed by the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, the clerk must keep a copy of:
 - (A) every final judgment or order affecting title to, or a lien on, real property;

(B) every final judgment or order for the recovery of money or property; and

(C) any other order the court designates.

(2) Indexing with the District Court. On a prevailing party's request, a copy of the following must be kept and indexed with the district court's civil judgments:

(A) every final judgment or order affecting title to, or a lien on, real or personal property; and

(B) every final judgment or order for the recovery of money or property.

(d) Index of Cases; Certificate of Search.

(1) Index of Cases. The clerk must keep an index of cases and adversary proceedings in the form and manner prescribed by the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts.

(2) Searching the Index; Certificate of Search.

On request, the clerk must search the index and papers in the clerk's custody and certify whether:

(A) a case or proceeding has been filed in or transferred to the court; or

(B) a discharge has been entered.

(e) Register of Mailing Addresses of Federal and State Governmental Units and Certain Taxing Authorities.

(1) In General. The United States—or a state or a territory where the court is located—may file a statement designating its mailing address. A taxing authority (including a local taxing authority) may also file a statement designating an address for serving requests under § 505(b). The authority's designation must describe where to find further information about additional requirements for serving a request.

(2) Register of Mailing Address.

(A) In General. In the form and manner prescribed by the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts, the clerk must keep a register of the mailing addresses of the governmental units listed in the first sentence of (1) and a separate register containing the addresses of taxing authorities for serving requests under § 505(b).

(B) Number of Entries. The clerk need not include in any register more than one mailing address for each department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States or the state or territory.

But if more than one mailing address is included, the clerk must also include information that would enable a user to determine when each address applies. Mailing to only one applicable address provides effective notice.

- (C) Keeping the Register Current. The clerk must update the register annually, as of January 2 of each year.
- (D) Mailing Address Presumed to Be Proper. A mailing address in the register is conclusively presumed to be proper. But a failure to use that address does not invalidate a notice that is otherwise effective under applicable law.

- (f) Other Books and Records. The clerk must keep any other books and records required by the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts.

Rule 5004. Disqualifying a Bankruptcy Judge

- (a) From Presiding Over a Proceeding, Contested Matter, or Case. A bankruptcy judge's disqualification is governed by 28 U.S.C. § 455. The judge is disqualified from presiding over a proceeding or contested matter in which a disqualifying circumstance arises—and, when appropriate, from presiding over the entire case.
- (b) From Allowing Compensation. The bankruptcy judge is disqualified from allowing compensation to a relative or to a person who is so connected with the judge as to make the judge's allowing it improper.

(1) With the Clerk. Except as provided in 28 U.S.C. § 1409, the following papers required to be filed by these rules must be filed with the clerk in the district where the case is pending:

- schedules;
- statements;
- proofs of claim or interest;
- complaints;

The clerk must not refuse to accept for filing any petition or other paper solely because it is not in the form required by these rules or by any local rule or practice.

(2) With a Judge of the Court. A judge may personally accept for filing a paper listed in (1). The judge must note on it the date of filing and promptly send it to the clerk.

(3) Electronic Filing and Signing.

(A) By a Represented Entity—Generally Required; Exceptions. An entity represented by an attorney must file electronically, unless nonelectronic filing is allowed by the court for cause or is allowed or required by local rule.

(B) By an Unrepresented Individual—When Allowed or Required. An individual not represented by an attorney:

- (i) may file electronically only if allowed by court order or local rule; and
 - (ii) may be required to file electronically only by court order, or by a local rule that includes reasonable exceptions.
- (C) Signing. A filing made through a person's electronic-filing account and authorized by that person, together with the person's name on a signature block, constitutes the person's signature.
- (D) Same as a Written Paper. A paper filed electronically is a written paper for purposes of these rules, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure made applicable by these rules, and § 107.

(b) Sending Copies to the United States Trustee.

- (1) Papers Sent Electronically. All papers required to be sent to the United States trustee may be sent by using the court's electronic-filing system in accordance with Rule 9036, unless a court order or local rule provides otherwise.
- (2) Papers Not Sent Electronically. If an entity other than the clerk sends a paper to the United States trustee without using the court's electronic-filing system, the entity must promptly file a statement identifying the paper and stating the manner by which and the date it was sent. The clerk need not send a copy of a paper to a United States trustee who requests in writing that it not be sent.

(c) When a Paper Is Erroneously Filed or Delivered.

(1) Paper Intended for the Clerk. If a paper intended to be filed with the clerk is erroneously delivered to a person listed below, that person must note on it the date of receipt and promptly send it to the clerk:

- the United States trustee;
- the trustee;
- the trustee's attorney;
- a bankruptcy judge;
- a district judge;
- the clerk of the bankruptcy appellate panel; or
- the clerk of the district court.

(2) Paper Intended for the United States Trustee. If a paper intended for the United States trustee is erroneously delivered to the clerk or to another person listed in (1), the clerk or that person must note on it the date of receipt and promptly send it to the United States trustee.

- (3) Applicable Filing Date. In the interests of justice, the court may order that the original receipt date shown on a paper erroneously delivered under (1) or (2) be deemed the date it was filed with the clerk or sent to the United States trustee.

Rule 5006. Providing Certified Copies

Upon payment of the prescribed fee, the clerk must issue a certified copy of the record of any proceeding or any paper filed with the clerk.

- (b) Debtor's Statement. If the debtor does not file a statement indicating whether a presumption has arisen, the clerk must, within 10 days after the petition is filed, so notify creditors and indicate that further notice will be given if a later-filed statement shows that the presumption has arisen. If the debtor later files such a statement, the clerk must promptly notify the creditors.

Rule 5009. Closing a Chapter 7, 12, 13, or 15 Case; Declaring Liens Satisfied

- (a) Closing a Chapter 7, 12, or 13 Case. The estate in a Chapter 7, 12, or 13 case is presumed to have been fully administered when:

 - (2) within 30 days after the filing, no objection to the report has been filed by the United States trustee or a party in interest.

(2) Giving Notice of the Report. The representative must send a copy of the report to the United States trustee, give notice of its filing, and file a certificate indicating that the notice has been given to:

- (A) the debtor;
- (B) all persons or bodies authorized to administer the debtor's foreign proceedings;

(C) all parties to litigation pending in the United States in which the debtor was a party when the petition was filed; and

(D) any other entity the court designates.

(3) Presumption of Full Administration. If the United States trustee or a party in interest does not file an objection within 30 days after the certificate is filed, the case is presumed to have been fully administered.

(d) Order Declaring a Lien Satisfied. This subdivision (d) applies in a Chapter 12 or 13 case when a claim secured by property of the estate is subject to a lien under applicable nonbankruptcy law. The debtor may move for an order declaring that the secured claim has been satisfied and the lien has been released under the terms of the confirmed plan. The motion must be served—in the manner provided by Rule 7004 for serving a summons and complaint—on the claim holder and any other entity the court designates.

Rule 5010. Reopening a Case

On the debtor's or another party in interest's motion, the court may, under § 350(b), reopen a case. - (d) Motion to Stay a Proceeding. A motion to stay a proceeding must ordinarily be submitted first to the bankruptcy judge. If it—or a motion for relief from a stay—is filed in the district court, the motion must state why it was not first presented to or obtained from the bankruptcy judge. The district judge may grant relief on proper terms and conditions.

Rule 5012. Chapter 15—Agreement to Coordinate Proceedings

An agreement to coordinate proceedings under § 1527(4) may be approved on motion with an attached copy of the agreement or protocol. proper, including whether disbursements have been reasonable.

Rule 6003. Prohibition on Granting Certain Applications and Motions Made Immediately After the Petition Is Filed

They also govern certain procedures on appeal to a United States court of appeals under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d).
- (b) Definition of “BAP.” “BAP” means a bankruptcy appellate panel established by a circuit judicial council and authorized to hear appeals from a bankruptcy court under 28 U.S.C. § 158.
- (c) Requirement to Send Documents Electronically. Under these Part VIII rules, a document must be sent electronically, unless:
- (1) it is sent by or to an individual who is not represented by counsel; or

- (2) the court's local rules permit or require mailing or delivery by other means.

Rule 8002. Time to File a Notice of Appeal

(a) In General.

- (1) Time to File. Except as (b) and (c) provide otherwise, a notice of appeal must be filed with the bankruptcy clerk within 14 days after the judgment, order, or decree to be appealed is entered.
- (2) Filing Before the Entry of Judgment. A notice of appeal filed after the bankruptcy court announces a decision or order—but before entry of the judgment, order, or decree—is treated as filed on the date of and after the entry.
- (3) Multiple Appeals. If one party timely files a notice of appeal, any other party may file a notice of appeal within 14 days after the date when the first notice was filed, or within the time otherwise allowed by this rule—whichever is later.

- (4) Mistaken Filing in Another Court. If a notice of appeal is mistakenly filed in a district court, BAP, or court of appeals, that court's clerk must note on it the date when it was received and send it to the bankruptcy clerk. The notice is then considered filed in the bankruptcy court on the date noted.
- (5) Entry Defined.
- (A) In General. A judgment, order, or decree is entered for purposes of this subdivision (a):
- (i) when it is entered in the docket under Rule 5003(a); or
 - (ii) if Rule 7058 applies and Fed. R. Civ. P. 58(a) requires a separate document, when the judgment, order, or decree is entered in the docket under Rule 5003(a) and when the earlier of these events occurs:

- the judgment, order, or decree is set out in a separate document; or
- 150 days have run from entry of the judgment, order, or decree in the docket under Rule 5003(a).

(B) Failure to Use a Separate Document. A failure to set out a judgment, order, or decree in a separate document when required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 58(a) does not affect the validity of an appeal from that judgment, order, or decree.

(b) Effect of a Motion on the Time to Appeal.

- (1) In General. If a party files in the bankruptcy court any of the following motions—and does so within the time allowed by these rules—the time to file an appeal runs for all parties from the entry of the order disposing of the last such remaining motion:

- (A) to amend or make additional findings under Rule 7052, whether or not granting the motion would alter the judgment;
 - (B) to alter or amend the judgment under Rule 9023;
 - (C) for a new trial under Rule 9023; or
 - (D) for relief under Rule 9024 if the motion is filed within 14 days after the judgment is entered.
- (2) Notice of Appeal Filed Before a Motion Is Decided. If a party files a notice of appeal after the court announces or enters a judgment, order, or decree—but before it disposes of any motion listed in (1)—the notice becomes effective when the order disposing of the last such remaining motion is entered.
- (3) Appealing a Ruling on a Motion. A party intending to challenge an order disposing of a motion listed in (1)—or an alteration or amendment of a judgment, order, or decree made by a decision on the motion— must file a notice of appeal or an amended notice of appeal. It must:

- (A) comply with Rule 8003 or 8004; and
- (B) be filed within the time allowed by this rule, measured from the entry of the order disposing of the last such remaining motion.

(4) No Additional Fee for an Amended Notice. No additional fee is required to file an amended notice of appeal.

(c) Appeal by an Inmate Confined in an Institution.

(1) In General. If an institution has a system designed for legal mail, an inmate confined there must use that system to receive the benefit of this paragraph (1). If an inmate files a notice of appeal from a bankruptcy court's judgment, order, or decree, the notice is timely if it is deposited in the institution's internal mail system on or before the last day for filing and:

(A) it is accompanied by:

(i) a declaration in compliance with 28 U.S.C. § 1746—or a notarized statement—setting out the date of deposit and stating that first-class postage is being prepaid; or

(ii) evidence (such as a postmark or date stamp) showing that the notice was so deposited and that postage was prepaid; or

(B) the appellate court exercises its discretion to permit the later filing of a declaration or notarized statement that satisfies (A)(i).

(2) Multiple Appeals. If an inmate files under this subdivision (c) the first notice of appeal, the 14-day period provided in (a)(3) for another party to file a notice of appeal runs from the date when the bankruptcy clerk docketed the first notice.

(d) Extending the Time to File a Notice of Appeal.

(1) When the Time May Be Extended. Except as (2) provides otherwise, the bankruptcy court may, on motion, extend the time to file a notice of appeal if the motion is filed:

(A) within the time allowed by this rule; or

(B) within 21 days after that time expires if the party shows excusable neglect.

(2) When the Time Must Not Be Extended. The bankruptcy court must not extend the time to file the notice if the judgment, order, or decree being appealed:

(A) grants relief from an automatic stay under § 362, 922, 1201, or 1301;

(B) authorizes the sale or lease of property or the use of cash collateral under § 363;

- (C) authorizes obtaining credit under § 364;
- (D) authorizes assuming or assigning an executory contract or unexpired lease under § 365;
- (E) approves a disclosure statement under § 1125;
or
- (F) confirms a plan under § 943, 1129, 1225, or 1325.

- (3) Limit on Extending Time. An extension of time must not exceed 21 days after the time allowed by this rule, or 14 days after the order granting the motion to extend time is entered—whichever is later.

Rule 8003. Appeal as of Right—How Taken; Docketing the Appeal

(a) Filing a Notice of Appeal.

- (1) Time to File. An appeal under 28 U.S.C. § 158(a)(1) or (2) from a bankruptcy court's judgment, order, or decree to a district court or a BAP may be taken only by filing a notice of appeal with the bankruptcy clerk within the time allowed by Rule 8002.

- (2) Failure to Take Any Other Step. An appellant's failure to take any step other than timely filing a notice of appeal does not affect the appeal's validity, but is ground only for the district court or BAP to act as it considers appropriate, including dismissing the appeal.
- (3) Content of the Notice of Appeal. A notice of appeal must:
 - (A) conform substantially to Form 417A;
 - (B) be accompanied by the judgment—or the appealable order or decree—from which the appeal is taken; and
 - (C) be accompanied by the prescribed filing fee.
- (4) Merger. The notice of appeal encompasses all orders that, for purposes of appeal, merge into the identified judgment or appealable order or decree. It is not necessary to identify those orders in the notice of appeal.

(5) Final Judgment. The notice of appeal encompasses the final judgment, whether or not that judgment is set out in a separate document under Rule 7058, if the notice identifies:

(A) an order that adjudicates all remaining claims and the rights and liabilities of all remaining parties; or

(B) an order described in Rule 8002(b)(1).

(6) Limited Appeal. An appellant may identify only part of a judgment or appealable order or decree by expressly stating that the notice of appeal is so limited. Without such an express statement, specific identifications do not limit the scope of the notice of appeal.

(7) Impermissible Ground for Dismissal. An appeal must not be dismissed for failure to properly identify the judgment or appealable order or decree if the notice of appeal was filed after entry of the judgment or appealable order or decree and identifies an order that merged into that judgment or appealable order or decree.

(8) Clerk's Request for Additional Copies of the Notice of Appeal. On the bankruptcy clerk's request, the appellant must provide enough copies of the notice of appeal to enable the clerk to comply with (c).

(b) Joint or Consolidated Appeals.

(1) Joint Notice of Appeal. When two or more parties are entitled to appeal from a bankruptcy court's judgment, order, or decree and their interests make joinder practicable, they may file a joint notice of appeal. They may then proceed on appeal as a single appellant.

(2) Consolidating Appeals. When parties have separately filed timely notices of appeal, the district court or BAP may join or consolidate the appeals.

(c) Serving the Notice of Appeal.

(1) Serving Parties; Sending to the United States Trustee. The bankruptcy clerk must serve the notice of appeal by sending a copy to counsel of record for each party to the appeal—excluding the appellant’s counsel—and send it to the United States trustee. If a party is proceeding pro se, the clerk must send the notice to the party’s last known address. The clerk must note, on each copy, the date when the notice of appeal was filed.

(2) Failure to Serve the Notice of Appeal. The bankruptcy clerk’s failure to serve notice on a party or send notice to the United States trustee does not affect the appeal’s validity.

- (3) Entry of Service on the Docket. The clerk must note on the docket the names of the parties served and the date and method of service.
- (d) Sending the Notice of Appeal to the District Court or BAP; Docketing the Appeal.
 - (1) Where to Send the Notice of Appeal. If a BAP has been established to hear appeals from that district—and an appellant has not elected to have the appeal heard in the district court—the bankruptcy clerk must promptly send the notice of appeal to the BAP clerk. Otherwise, the bankruptcy clerk must promptly send it to the district clerk.
 - (2) Docketing the Appeal. Upon receiving the notice of appeal, the district or BAP clerk must:
 - (A) docket the appeal under the title of the bankruptcy case and the title of any adversary proceeding; and

- (B) identify the appellant, adding the appellant's name if necessary.

Rule 8004. Leave to Appeal from an Interlocutory Order or Decree Under 28 U.S.C. § 158(a)(3)

- (a) Notice of Appeal and Accompanying Motion for Leave to Appeal. To appeal under 28 U.S.C. § 158(a)(3) from a bankruptcy court's interlocutory order or decree, a party must file with the bankruptcy clerk a notice of appeal under Rule 8003(a). The notice must:
 - (1) be filed within the time allowed by Rule 8002;
 - (2) be accompanied by a motion for leave to appeal prepared in accordance with (b); and
 - (3) unless served electronically using the court's electronic-filing system, include proof of service in accordance with Rule 8011(d).

(b) Content of the Motion for Leave to Appeal; Response.

(1) Content. A motion for leave to appeal under 28 U.S.C. § 158(a)(3) must include:

- (A) the facts needed to understand the question presented;
- (B) the question itself;
- (C) the relief sought;
- (D) the reasons why leave to appeal should be granted; and
- (E) a copy of the interlocutory order or decree and any related opinion or memorandum.

(2) Response. Within 14 days after the motion for leave is served, a party may file with the district or BAP clerk a response in opposition or a cross-motion.

(c) Sending the Notice of Appeal and Motion for Leave to Appeal; Docketing the Appeal; Oral Argument Not Required.

- (1) Sending to the District Court or BAP. If a BAP has been established to hear appeals from that district—and an appellant has not elected to have the appeal heard in the district court—the bankruptcy clerk must promptly send to the BAP clerk the notice of appeal and the motion for leave to appeal. Otherwise, the bankruptcy clerk must promptly send the notice and motion to the district clerk.
 - (2) Docketing the Appeal. Upon receiving the notice and motion, the district or BAP clerk must docket the appeal as prescribed by Rule 8003(d)(2).
 - (3) Oral Argument Not Required. Unless the district court or BAP orders otherwise, a motion, a cross-motion, and any response will be submitted without oral argument.
- (d) Failure to File a Motion for Leave to Appeal. If an appellant files a timely notice of appeal under this rule but fails to include a motion for leave to appeal, the district court or BAP may:

- (1) treat the notice of appeal as a motion for leave to appeal and grant or deny it; or
- (2) order the appellant to file a motion for leave to appeal within 14 days after the order has been entered—unless the order provides otherwise.

- (e) Direct Appeal to a Court of Appeals. If leave to appeal an interlocutory order or decree is required under 28 U.S.C. § 158(a)(3), an authorization by a court of appeals for a direct appeal under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2) satisfies the requirement.

Rule 8005. Election to Have an Appeal Heard in the District Court Instead of the BAP

- (a) Filing a Statement of Election. To elect to have the district court hear an appeal, a party must file a statement of election within the time prescribed by 28 U.S.C. § 158(c)(1). The statement must substantially conform to Form 417A.
- (b) Sending Documents Relating to the Appeal. Upon receiving an appellant's timely statement of election, the bankruptcy clerk must send all documents related to the appeal to the district clerk. A BAP clerk who receives a timely statement of election from a party other than the appellant must:

- (1) send those documents to the district clerk; and
- (2) notify the bankruptcy clerk that they have been sent.

(c) Determining the Validity of an Election. Within 14 days after the statement of election has been filed, a party seeking to determine the election's validity must file a motion in the court where the appeal is pending.

(d) Effect of Filing a Motion for Leave to Appeal Without Filing a Notice of Appeal. If an appellant moves for leave to appeal under Rule 8004 but fails to file a notice of appeal with the motion, it must be treated as a notice of appeal in determining whether the statement of election has been timely filed.

Rule 8006. Certifying a Direct Appeal to a Court of Appeals

(a) Effective Date of a Certification. A certification of a bankruptcy court's judgment, order, or decree to a court of appeals for direct review under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2) becomes effective when:

- (1) it is filed;
- (2) a timely appeal is taken under Rule 8003 or Rule 8004; and
- (3) the notice of appeal becomes effective under Rule 8002.

(b) Filing the Certification. The certification must be filed with the clerk of the court where the matter is pending. For purposes of this rule, a matter remains pending in the bankruptcy court for 30 days after the first notice of appeal concerning that matter becomes effective under Rule 8002. After that time, the matter is pending in the district court or BAP.

(c) Joint Certification by All Appellants and Appellees.

(1) In General. A joint certification by all appellants and appellees under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2)(A) must be made using Form 424. The parties may supplement the certification with a short statement about its basis. The statement may include the information required by (f)(2).

(2) Supplemental Statement by the Court. Within 14 days after the parties file the certification, the bankruptcy court—or the court where the matter is pending—may file a short supplemental statement about the certification’s merits.

(d) Court’s Authority to Certify a Direct Appeal. Only the court where the matter is pending under (b) may certify a direct appeal to a court of appeals. The court may do so on a party’s request or on its own.

(e) Certification by the Court Acting on Its Own.

- (1) Separate Document Required; Service; Content. A certification by a court acting on its own must be set forth in a separate document. The clerk of the certifying court must serve the document on the parties to the appeal in the manner required for serving a notice of appeal under Rule 8003(c)(1). It must be accompanied by an opinion or memorandum that contains the information required by (f)(2)(A)–(D).
- (2) Supplemental Statement by a Party. Within 14 days after the court’s certification, a party may file with the clerk of the certifying court a short supplemental statement about the merits of certification.

(f) Certification by the Court on Request.

- (1) How Requested. A party’s request for certification under 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2)(A)—or a request by a majority of the appellants and of the appellees—must be filed with the clerk of the court where the matter is pending. The request must be filed within 60 days after the judgment, order, or decree is entered.

(2) Service; Content. The request must be served on all parties to the appeal in the manner required for serving a notice of appeal under Rule 8003(c)(1). The request must include:

(A) the facts needed to understand the question presented;

(B) the question itself;

(C) the relief sought;

(D) the reasons why a direct appeal should be allowed, including which circumstance specified in 28 U.S.C. § 158(d)(2)(A)(i)–(iii) applies; and

(E) the judgment, order, or decree, and any related opinion or memorandum.

(3) Time to File a Response or a Cross- Request.

(A) Response. A party may file a response within

14 days after the request has been served, or within such other time as the court where the matter is pending allows.

- (B) Cross-Request. A party may file a cross-request for certification within 14 days after the request has been served or within 60 days after the judgment, order, or decree has been entered—whichever occurs first.
- (4) Oral Argument Not Required. Unless the court where the matter is pending orders otherwise, a request, a cross-request, and any response will be submitted without oral argument.
- (5) Form of a Certification; Service. The court that certifies a direct appeal in response to a request must do so in a separate document served on all parties to the appeal in the manner required for serving a notice of appeal under Rule 8003(c)(1).

- (g) Request for Leave to Take a Direct Appeal to a Court of Appeals After Certification. Within 30 days after the certification has become effective under (a), a request for leave to take a direct appeal to a court of appeals must be filed with the circuit clerk in accordance with Fed. R. App. P. 6(c).

Rule 8007. Stay Pending Appeal; Bond; Suspending Proceedings

(a) Initial Motion in the Bankruptcy Court.

- (1) In General. Ordinarily, a party must move first in the bankruptcy court for the following relief:
- (A) a stay of the bankruptcy court's judgment, order, or decree pending appeal;
 - (B) the approval of a bond or other security provided to obtain a stay of judgment;
 - (C) an order suspending, modifying, restoring, or granting an injunction while an appeal is pending; or

(D) an order suspending or continuing proceedings or granting other relief permitted by (e).

(2) Time to File. The motion may be filed either before or after the notice of appeal is filed.

(b) Motion in the District Court, BAP, or Court of Appeals on Direct Appeal.

(1) In General. A motion for the relief specified in (a)(1)—or to vacate or modify a bankruptcy court’s order granting such relief—may be filed in the court where the appeal is pending.

(2) Required Showing. The motion must:

(A) show that moving first in the bankruptcy court would be impracticable; or

(B) if a motion has already been made in the bankruptcy court, state whether the court has ruled on it, and if so, state any reasons given for the ruling.

- (3) Additional Requirements. The motion must also include:
 - (A) the reasons for granting the relief requested and the facts relied on;
 - (B) affidavits or other sworn statements supporting facts subject to dispute; and
 - (C) relevant parts of the record.
 - (4) Serving Notice. The movant must give reasonable notice of the motion to all parties.
- (c) Filing a Bond or Other Security as a Condition of Relief. The district court, BAP, or court of appeals may condition relief on filing a bond or other security with the bankruptcy court.
- (d) Bond or Other Security for a Trustee; Not for the United States. The court may require a trustee who appeals to file a bond or other security. No bond or security is required when:
- (1) the United States, its officer, or its agency appeals; or

(2) an appeal is taken by direction of any federal governmental department.

(e) Continuing Proceedings in the Bankruptcy Court. Despite Rule 7062—but subject to the authority of the district court, BAP, or court of appeals—while the appeal is pending, the bankruptcy court may:

(1) suspend or order the continuation of other proceedings in the case, or

(2) issue any appropriate order to protect the rights of all parties in interest.

Rule 8008. Indicative Rulings

(a) Motion for Relief Filed When an Appeal Is Pending; Bankruptcy Court's Options. If a party files a timely motion in the bankruptcy court for relief that the court lacks authority to grant because an appeal has been docketed and is pending, the bankruptcy court may:

(1) defer considering the motion;

(2) deny the motion;

- (3) state that it would grant the motion if the court where the appeal is pending remands for that purpose; or
- (4) state that the motion raises a substantial issue.

(b) Notice to the Court Where the Appeal Is Pending. If the bankruptcy court states that it would grant the motion or that the motion raises a substantial issue, the movant must promptly notify the clerk of the court where the appeal is pending.

(c) Remand After an Indicative Ruling. If the bankruptcy court states that it would grant the motion or that the motion raises a substantial issue, the district court or BAP may remand for further proceedings but retains jurisdiction unless it expressly dismisses the appeal. If the district court or BAP remands but retains jurisdiction, the parties must promptly notify the clerk of that court when the bankruptcy court has decided the motion on remand.

Rule 8009. Record on Appeal; Sealed Documents(a) Designating the Record on Appeal; Statement of the Issues; Content of the Record.

(1) Appellant's Designation and Statement of the Issues. The appellant must:

- (A) file with the bankruptcy clerk a designation of the items to be included in the record on appeal and a statement of the issues to be presented; and
- (B) file and serve the designation and statement on the appellee within 14 days after:
 - the notice of appeal as of right has become effective under Rule 8002; or
 - an order granting leave to appeal has been entered.

Premature service is treated as service on the first day on which filing is timely.

(2) Appellee's and Cross-Appellant's Designation and Statement of the Issues.

(A) Appellee. Within 14 days after being served, the appellee may file with the bankruptcy clerk and serve on the appellant a designation of additional items to be included in the record.

(B) Cross-Appellant. An appellee who files a cross-appeal must file and serve a designation of additional items to be included in the record and a statement of the issues to be presented on the cross-appeal.

(3) Cross-Appellee's Designation. Within 14 days after the cross-appellant's designation and statement have been served, the cross-appellee may file with the bankruptcy clerk and serve on the cross-appellant a designation of additional items to be included in the record.

(4) Record on Appeal. The record on appeal must include:

- the docket entries kept by the bankruptcy clerk;
- items designated by the parties;
- the notice of appeal;
- the judgment, order, or decree being appealed;
- any order granting leave to appeal;
- any certification required for a direct appeal to the court of appeals;
- any opinion, findings of fact and conclusions of law relating to the issues on appeal, including transcripts of all oral rulings;
- any transcript ordered under (b);
- any statement required by (c); and
- any other items from the record that the court where the appeal is pending orders to be included.

- (5) Copies for the Bankruptcy Clerk. If paper copies are needed and the bankruptcy clerk requests copies of designated items, the party filing the designation must provide them. If the party fails to do so, the bankruptcy clerk must prepare them at that party's expense.

(b) Transcript of Proceedings.

- (1) Appellant's Duty to Order. Within the period prescribed by (a)(1), the appellant must:
- (A) order in writing from the reporter, as defined in Rule 8010(a)(1), a transcript of such parts of the proceedings not already on file as the appellant considers necessary for the appeal, and file a copy of the order with the bankruptcy clerk; or

(B) file with the bankruptcy clerk a certificate stating that the appellant is not ordering a transcript.

(2) Appellee's Duty to Order as a Cross-Appellant.

Within 14 days after the appellant has filed a copy of the transcript order—or a certificate stating that the appellant is not ordering a transcript—the appellee as cross-appellant must:

(A) order in writing from the reporter a transcript of such additional parts of the proceedings as the cross-appellant considers necessary for the appeal, and file a copy of the order with the bankruptcy clerk; or

(B) file with the bankruptcy clerk a certificate stating that the cross-appellant is not ordering a transcript.

(3) Appellee's or Cross-Appellee's Right to Order.

Within 14 days after the appellant or cross-appellant has filed a copy of a transcript order—or a certificate stating that the appellant or cross-appellant is not ordering a transcript—the appellee or cross-appellee:

- (A) may order in writing from the reporter a transcript of any additional parts of the proceeding that the appellee or cross-appellee considers necessary for the appeal; and
 - (B) must file a copy of the order with the bankruptcy clerk.
- (4) Payment. At the time of ordering, a party must make satisfactory arrangements with the reporter to pay for the transcript.
- (5) Unsupported Finding or Conclusion. If the appellant intends to argue on appeal that a finding or conclusion is unsupported by the evidence or is contrary to the evidence, the appellant must include in the record a transcript of all relevant testimony and a copy of all relevant exhibits.

(c) When a Transcript Is Unavailable.

- (1) Statement of the Evidence. If a transcript of a hearing or trial is unavailable, the appellant may prepare a statement of the evidence or proceedings from the best available means, including the appellant's recollection. The statement must be filed within the time prescribed by (a)(1) and served on the appellee.
- (2) Appellee's Response. The appellee may serve objections or proposed amendments within 14 days after being served.
- (3) Court Approval. The statement and any objections or proposed amendments must then be submitted to the bankruptcy court for settlement and approval. As settled and approved, the statement must be included by the bankruptcy clerk in the record on appeal.

(d) Agreed Statement as the Record on Appeal.

- (1) Agreed Statement. Instead of the record on appeal as defined in (a), the parties may prepare, sign, and submit to the bankruptcy court a statement of the case showing how the issues presented by the appeal arose and were decided in the bankruptcy court.

- (2) Content. The statement must set forth only those facts alleged and proved or sought to be proved that are essential to the court's resolution of the issues. If the statement is accurate, it—together with any additions that the bankruptcy court considers necessary to a full presentation of the issues on appeal—must be:
 - (A) approved by the bankruptcy court; and
 - (B) certified to the court where the appeal is pending as the record on appeal.
- (3) Time to Send the Agreed Statement to the Appellate Court. The bankruptcy clerk must then send the agreed statement to the clerk of the court where the appeal is pending within the time provided by Rule 8010. A copy may be filed in place of the appendix required by Rule 8018(b) or, in the case of a direct appeal to the court of appeals, by Fed. R. App. P. 30.

(e) Correcting or Modifying the Record.

- (1) Differences About Accuracy; Improper Designations. If any difference arises about whether the record accurately discloses what occurred in the bankruptcy court, the difference must be submitted to and settled by the bankruptcy court and the record conformed accordingly. If an item has been improperly designated as part of the record on appeal, a party may move to strike that item.
- (2) Omissions and Misstatements. If anything material to either party is omitted from or misstated in the record by error or accident, the omission or misstatement may be corrected, and a supplemental record may be certified and sent:
 - (A) on stipulation of the parties;

- (B) by the bankruptcy court before or after the record has been sent; or
 - (C) by the court where the appeal is pending.
- (3) Remaining Questions. All other questions about the form and content of the record must be presented to the court where the appeal is pending.

(f) Sealed Documents.

- (1) In General. A document placed under seal by the bankruptcy court may be designated as a part of the record on appeal. But a document so designated:
- (A) must be identified without revealing confidential or secret information; and
 - (B) may be sent only as (2) prescribes.
- (2) When to Send a Sealed Document. To have a sealed document sent as part of the record, a party must file in the court where the appeal is pending a motion to accept the document under seal. If the motion is granted, the movant must notify the bankruptcy court, and the bankruptcy clerk must promptly send the sealed document to the clerk of the court where the appeal is pending.

- (g) Duty to Assist the Bankruptcy Clerk. All parties to an appeal must take any other action needed to enable the bankruptcy clerk to assemble and send the record.

Rule 8010. Transcribing the Proceedings; Filing the Transcript; Sending the Record

(a) Reporter's Duties.

(1) Proceedings Recorded Without a Court Reporter Present. If proceedings are recorded without a reporter present, the person or service selected under bankruptcy court procedures to transcribe the recording is the reporter for purposes of this rule.

(2) Preparing and Filing the Transcript. The reporter must prepare and file a transcript as follows:

(A) Initial Steps. Upon receiving a transcript order under Rule 8009(b), the reporter must file in the bankruptcy court an acknowledgment showing when the order was received and when the reporter expects to have the transcript completed.

- (B) Filing the Transcript. After completing the transcript, the reporter must file it with the bankruptcy clerk, who will notify the district, BAP, or circuit clerk of its filing.
- (C) Extending the Time to Complete a Transcript. If the transcript cannot be completed within 30 days after the order has been received, the reporter must request an extension from the bankruptcy clerk. The clerk must enter on the docket and notify the parties whether the extension is granted.
- (D) Failure to File on Time. If the reporter fails to file the transcript on time, the bankruptcy clerk must notify the bankruptcy judge.

(b) Clerk's Duties.

- (1) Sending the Record. Subject to Rule 8009(f) and (5) below, when the record is complete, the bankruptcy clerk must send to the clerk of the court where the appeal is pending either the record or a notice that it is available electronically.
- (2) Multiple Appeals. If there are multiple appeals from a judgment, order, or decree, the bankruptcy clerk must send a single record.
- (3) Docketing the Record in the Appellate Court. Upon receiving the record—or a notice that it is available electronically—the district, BAP, or circuit clerk must enter that information on the docket and promptly notify all parties to the appeal.
- (4) If the Court Orders Paper Copies. If the court where the appeal is pending orders that paper copies of the record be provided, the clerk of that court must so notify the appellant. If the appellant fails to provide them, the bankruptcy clerk must prepare them at the appellant's expense.

- (5) Motion for Leave to Appeal. Subject to (c), if a motion for leave to appeal is filed under Rule 8004, the bankruptcy clerk must prepare and send the record only after the motion is granted.

(c) When a Preliminary Motion Is Filed in the District Court, BAP, or Court of Appeals.

- (1) In General. This subdivision (c) applies if, before the record is sent, a party moves in the district court, BAP, or court of appeals for:
- (A) leave to appeal;
 - (B) dismissal;
 - (C) a stay pending appeal;
 - (D) approval of a bond or other security provided to obtain a stay of judgment; or

- (E) any other intermediate order.
- (2) Sending the Record. The bankruptcy clerk must send to the clerk of the court where the relief is sought any parts of the record designated by a party to the appeal—or send a notice that they are available electronically.

Rule 8011. Filing and Service; Signature

(a) Filing.

- (1) With the Clerk. A document required or permitted to be filed in a district court or BAP must be filed with the clerk of that court.
- (2) Method and Timeliness.
 - (A) Nonelectronic Filing.
 - (i) In General. For a document not filed electronically, filing may be accomplished by mail addressed to the district or BAP clerk. Except as provided in (ii) and (iii), filing is timely only if the clerk receives the document within the time set for filing.

(ii) Brief or Appendix. A brief or appendix not filed electronically is also timely filed if, on or before the last day for filing, it is:

- mailed to the clerk by first-class mail—or other class of mail that is at least as expeditious—postage prepaid; or
- dispatched to a third-party commercial carrier for delivery to the clerk within 3 days.

(iii) Inmate Filing. If an institution has a system designed for legal mail, an inmate confined there must use that system to receive the benefit of this item (iii). A document not filed electronically by an inmate confined in an institution is timely if it is deposited in the institution's internal mailing system on or before the last day for filing and:

- it is accompanied by a declaration in compliance with 28 U.S.C. § 1746—or a notarized statement—setting out the date of deposit and stating that first-class postage is being prepaid; or by evidence (such as a postmark or date stamp) showing that the notice was so deposited and that postage was prepaid;

or

- the appellate court exercises its discretion to permit the later filing of a declaration or notarized statement that satisfies this item (iii).

(B) Electronic Filing.

- (i) By a Represented Person—Generally Required; Exceptions. An entity represented by an attorney must file electronically, unless nonelectronic filing is allowed by the court for cause or is allowed or required by local rule.
- (ii) By an Unrepresented Individual—When Allowed or Required. An individual not represented by an attorney:

- may file electronically only if allowed by court order or by local rule; and
- may be required to file electronically only by court order, or by a local rule that includes reasonable exceptions.

(iii) Same as a Written Paper. A document filed electronically is a written paper for purposes of these rules.

(C) When Paper Copies Are Required. No paper copies are required when a document is filed electronically. If a document is filed by mail or by delivery to the district court or BAP, no additional copies are required. But the district court or BAP may, by local rule or order in a particular case, require that a specific number of paper copies be filed or furnished.

(3) Clerk's Refusal of Documents. The court clerk must not refuse to accept for filing any document solely because it is not presented in proper form as required by these rules or by any local rule or practice.

(b) Service of All Documents Required. Unless a rule requires service by the clerk, a party must, at or before the time of the filing of a document, serve it on the other parties to the appeal. Service on a party represented by counsel must be made on the party's counsel.

(c) Manner of Service.

(1) Nonelectronic Service. Nonelectronic service may be by any of the following:

(A) personal delivery;

(B) mail; or

(C) third-party commercial carrier for delivery within 3 days.

(2) Service By Electronic Means. Electronic service may be made by:

(A) sending a document to a registered user by filing it with the court's electronic-filing system; or

(B) using other electronic means that the person served consented to in writing.

(3) When Service Is Complete. Service by mail or by third-party commercial carrier is complete on mailing or delivery to the carrier. Service by electronic means is complete on filing or sending, unless the person making service receives notice that the document was not received by the person served.

(d) Proof of Service.

- (1) Requirements. A document presented for filing must contain either of the following if it was served other than through the court's electronic-filing system:
 - (A) an acknowledgement of service by the person served; or
 - (B) proof of service consisting of a statement by the person who made service certifying:
 - (i) the date and manner of service;
 - (ii) the names of the persons served; and
 - (iii) the mail or electronic address, the fax number, or the address of the place of delivery—as appropriate for the manner of service—for each person served.
- (2) Delayed Proof of Service. A district or BAP clerk may accept a document for filing without an acknowledgement or proof of service, but must require the acknowledgment or proof of service to be filed promptly thereafter.

- (3) For a Brief or Appendix. When a brief or appendix is filed, the proof of service must also state the date and manner by which it was filed.

(e) Signature Always Required.

- (1) Electronic Filing. Every document filed electronically must include the electronic signature of the person filing it or, if the person is represented, the counsel's electronic signature. A filing made through a person's electronic-filing account and authorized by that person—together with that person's name on a signature block—constitutes the person's signature.
- (2) Paper Filing. Every document filed in paper form must be signed by the person filing it or, if the person is represented, by the person's counsel.

Rule 8012. Disclosure Statement

(a) Disclosure by a Nongovernmental Corporation. Any nongovernmental corporation that is a party to a district-court or BAP proceeding or that seeks to intervene must file a statement that:

- (1) identifies any parent corporation and any publicly held corporation that owns 10% or more of its stock;
or
- (2) states that there is no such corporation.

(b) Disclosure About the Debtor. The debtor, the trustee, or, if neither is a party, the appellant must file a statement that:

- (1) identifies each debtor not named in the caption; and
- (2) for each debtor that is a corporation, discloses the information required by (a).

(c) Time to File; Supplemental Filing. A Rule 8012 statement must:

- (1) be filed with the principal brief or upon filing a motion, response, petition, or answer in the district court or BAP, whichever occurs first—unless a local rule requires earlier filing;
- (2) be included before the table of contents in the principal brief; and
- (3) be supplemented whenever the information required by this rule changes.

Rule 8013. Motions; Interventions

(a) Content of a Motion; Response; Reply.

- (1) Request for Relief. A request for an order or other relief is made by filing a motion with the district or BAP clerk.
- (2) Content of a Motion.
 - (A) Grounds, Relief Sought, and Supporting Argument. A motion must state with particularity the grounds for the motion, the relief sought, and the legal argument supporting it.

(B) Motion to Expedite an Appeal. A motion to expedite an appeal must explain what justifies considering the appeal ahead of other matters. The motion may be filed as an emergency motion under (d). If it is granted, the district court or BAP may accelerate the time to:

- (i) send the record;
- (ii) file briefs and other documents;
- (iii) conduct oral argument; and
- (iv) resolve the appeal.

(C) Accompanying Documents.

- (i) Supporting Document. Any affidavit or other document necessary to support a motion must be served and filed with the motion.

- (ii) Content of Affidavit. An affidavit must contain only factual information, not legal argument.
 - (iii) Motion Seeking Substantive Relief. A motion seeking substantive relief must include a copy of the bankruptcy court's judgment, order, or decree, and any accompanying opinion as a separate exhibit.
- (D) Documents Barred or Not Required.
- (i) No Separate Brief. A separate brief supporting or responding to a motion must not be filed.
 - (ii) Notice and Proposed Order Not Required. Unless the court orders otherwise, a notice of motion or a proposed order is not required.

- (3) Response and Reply; Time to File. Unless the district court or BAP orders otherwise:
- (A) any party to the appeal may—within 7 days after the motion is served—file a response to the motion; and
 - (B) the movant may—within 7 days after the response is served—file a reply that addresses only matters raised in the response.
- (b) Disposition of a Motion for a Procedural Order. The district court or BAP may rule on a motion for a procedural order—including a motion under Rule 9006(b) or (c)—at any time, without awaiting a response. A party adversely affected by the ruling may move to reconsider, vacate, or modify it within 7 days after the order is served.
- (c) Oral Argument. A motion will be decided without oral argument unless the district court or BAP orders otherwise.

(d) Emergency Motion.

- (1) Noting the Emergency. A movant who requests expedited action—because irreparable harm would occur during the time needed to consider a response—must insert “Emergency” before the motion’s title.
- (2) Content. An emergency motion must:
 - (A) be accompanied by an affidavit setting forth the nature of the emergency;
 - (B) state whether all grounds for it were previously submitted to the bankruptcy court and, if not, why the motion should not be remanded;
 - (C) include:
 - (i) the email address, office address, and telephone number of the moving counsel; and

- (ii) when known, the same information as in (i) for opposing counsel and any unrepresented party to the appeal; and
 - (D) be served as Rule 8011 prescribes.
- (3) Notifying Opposing Parties. Before filing an emergency motion, the movant must make every practicable effort to notify opposing counsel and any unrepresented party in time for them to respond. The affidavit accompanying the motion must state:
 - (A) when and how notice was given; or
 - (B) why giving it was impracticable.
- (e) Motion Considered by a Single BAP Judge.
 - (1) Judge's Authority. A BAP judge may act alone on any motion but may not:
 - (A) dismiss or otherwise determine an appeal;
 - (B) deny a motion for leave to appeal; or
 - (C) deny a motion for a stay pending appeal if denial would make the appeal moot.

(2) Reviewing a Single Judge's Action. The BAP, on its own or on a party's motion, may review a single judge's action.

(f) Form of Documents; Length Limits; Number of Copies.

(1) Document Filed in Paper Form. Fed. R. App. P. 27(d)(1) applies to a motion, response, or reply filed in paper form in the district court or BAP.

(2) Document Filed Electronically. A motion, response, or reply filed electronically must comply with the requirements in (1) for covers, line spacing, margins, typeface, and type style. It must also comply with the length limits in (3).

(3) Length Limits. Except by the district court's or BAP's permission, and excluding the accompanying documents authorized by (a)(2)(C):

(A) a motion or a response to a motion produced using a computer must include a certificate under Rule 8015(h) and not exceed 5,200 words;

(B) a handwritten or typewritten motion or a response to a motion must not exceed 20 pages;

(C) a reply produced using a computer must include a certificate under Rule 8015(h) and not exceed 2,600 words; and

(D) a handwritten or typewritten reply must not exceed 10 pages.

(4) Providing Paper Copies. Paper copies must be provided only if required by a local rule or by an order in a particular case.

(g) Motion for Leave to Intervene.

(1) Time to File. Unless a statute provides otherwise, an entity seeking to intervene in an appeal in the district court or BAP must move for leave to intervene and serve a copy of the motion on all parties to the appeal.

The motion—or other notice of intervention authorized by statute—must be filed within 30 days after the appeal is docketed.

- (2) Content. The motion must concisely state:
- (A) the movant’s interest;
 - (B) the grounds for intervention;
 - (C) whether intervention was sought in the bankruptcy court;
 - (D) why intervention is being sought at this stage of the proceedings; and
 - (E) why participating as an amicus curiae—rather than intervening—would not be adequate.

Rule 8014. Briefs

- (a) Appellant’s Brief. The appellant’s brief must contain the following under appropriate headings and in the order indicated:
- (1) a disclosure statement, if required by Rule 8012;

- (2) a table of contents, with page references;
- (3) a table of authorities—cases (alphabetically arranged), statutes, and other authorities—with references to the pages of the brief where they are cited;
- (4) a jurisdictional statement, including:
 - (A) the basis for the bankruptcy court’s subject-matter jurisdiction, citing applicable statutory provisions and stating relevant facts establishing jurisdiction;
 - (B) the basis for the district court’s or BAP’s jurisdiction, citing applicable statutory provisions and stating relevant facts establishing jurisdiction;
 - (C) the filing dates establishing the timeliness of the appeal; and
 - (D) an assertion that the appeal is from a final judgment, order, or decree—or information establishing the district court's or BAP's jurisdiction on another basis;

- (5) a statement of the issues presented and, for each one, a concise statement of the applicable standard of appellate review;
- (6) a concise statement of the case setting out the facts relevant to the issues submitted for review, describing the relevant procedural history, and identifying the rulings presented for review, with appropriate references to the record;
- (7) a summary of the argument, which must contain a succinct, clear, and accurate statement of the arguments made in the body of the brief, and which must not merely repeat the argument headings;
- (8) the argument, which must contain the appellant's contentions and the reasons for them, with citations to the authorities and parts of the record on which the appellant relies;

- (9) a short conclusion stating the precise relief sought;
and
 - (10) the certificate of compliance, if required by Rule 8015(a)(7) or (b).
- (b) Appellee's Brief. The appellee's brief must conform to the requirements of (a)(1)–(8) and (10), except that none of the following need appear unless the appellee is dissatisfied with the appellant's statement:
- (1) the jurisdictional statement;
 - (2) the statement of the issues and the applicable standard of appellate review; and
 - (3) the statement of the case.
- (c) Reply Brief. The appellant may file a brief in reply to the appellee's brief. A reply brief must comply with (a)(2)–(3).
- (d) Setting Out Statutes, Rules, Regulations, or Similar Authorities. If the court's determination of the issues presented requires the study of the Code or other statutes, rules, regulations, or similar authority, the relevant parts must be set out in the brief or in an addendum.

- (e) Briefs in a Case Involving Multiple Appellants or Appellees. In a case involving more than one appellant or appellee, including consolidated cases, any number of appellants or appellees may join in a brief, and any party may adopt by reference a part of another's brief. Parties may also join in reply briefs.
- (f) Citation of Supplemental Authorities. If pertinent and significant authorities come to a party's attention after the party's brief has been filed—or after oral argument but before a decision—a party may promptly advise the district or BAP clerk by a signed submission, with a copy to all other parties, setting forth the citations. The submission must state the reasons for the supplemental citations, referring either to the pertinent page of a brief or to a point argued orally. The body of the submission must not exceed 350 words. Any response must be similarly limited, and it must be made within 7 days after service unless the court orders otherwise.

Rule 8015. Form and Length of a Brief; Form of an Appendix or Other Paper

(a) Paper Copies of a Brief. If a paper copy of a brief may or must be filed, the following provisions apply:

(1) Reproduction.

(A) Printing. The brief may be reproduced by any process that yields a clear black image on light paper. The paper must be opaque and unglazed. Only one side of the paper may be used.

(B) Text. Text must be reproduced with a clarity that equals or exceeds the output of a laser printer.

(C) Other Reproductions. Photographs, illustrations, and tables may be reproduced by any method that results in a good copy of the original. A glossy finish is acceptable if the original is glossy.

- (2) Cover. The front cover of the brief must contain:
 - (A) the number of the case centered at the top;
 - (B) the name of the court;
 - (C) the title of the case as prescribed by Rule 8003(d)(2) or 8004(c)(2);
 - (D) the nature of the proceeding and the name of the court below;
 - (E) the title of the brief, identifying the party or parties for whom the brief is filed; and
 - (F) the name, office address, telephone number, and email address of counsel representing the party for whom the brief is filed.
- (3) Binding. The brief must be bound in any manner that is secure, does not obscure the text, and permits the brief to lie reasonably flat when open.

- (4) Paper Size, Line Spacing, and Margins. The brief must be on 8½"- by-11" paper. The text must be double-spaced, but quotations more than two lines long may be indented and single-spaced. Headings and footnotes may be single-spaced. Margins must be at least one inch on all four sides. Page numbers may be placed in the margins, but no text may appear there.
- (5) Typeface. Either a proportionally spaced or monospaced face may be used.
- (A) Proportional Spacing. A proportionally spaced face must include serifs, but sans-serif type may be used in headings and captions. A proportionally spaced face must be 14-point or larger.
- (B) Monospacing. A monospaced face may not contain more than 10½ characters per inch.
- (6) Type Styles. The brief must be set in plain, roman style, although italics or boldface may be used for emphasis. Case names must be italicized or underlined.

(7) Length.

(A) Page Limitation. A principal brief must not exceed 30 pages, or a reply brief 15 pages, unless it complies with (B).

(B) Type-Volume Limitation.

(i) Principal Brief. A principal brief is acceptable if it contains a certificate under (h) and:

- contains no more than 13,000 words; or
- uses a monospaced face and contains no more than 1,300 lines of text.

(ii) Reply Brief. A reply brief is acceptable if it includes a certificate under (h) and contains no more than half the type volume specified in item (i).

(b) Brief Filed Electronically. A brief filed electronically must comply with (a)—except for (a)(1), (a)(3), and the paper requirement of (a)(4).

(c) Paper Copies of an Appendix. A paper copy of an appendix must comply with (a)(1), (2), (3), and (4), with the following exceptions:

(1) an appendix may include a legible photocopy of any document found in the record or of a printed decision; and

(2) when necessary for including odd-sized documents such as technical drawings, an appendix may be a size other than 8½” by 11”, and need not lie reasonably flat when opened.

(d) Appendix Filed Electronically. An appendix filed electronically must comply with (a)(2) and (4)—except for the paper requirement of (a)(4).

(e) Other Documents.

(1) Motion. Rule 8013(f) governs the form of a motion, response, or reply.

(2) Paper Copies of Other Documents. A paper copy of any other document—except one submitted under Rule 8014(f)—must comply with (a), with the following exceptions:

(A) a cover is not necessary if the caption and signature page together contain the information required by (a)(2); and

(B) the length limits of (a)(7) do not apply.

(3) Document Filed Electronically. Any other document filed electronically—except a document submitted under Rule 8014(f)—must comply with the requirements of (2).

(f) Local Variation. A district court or BAP must accept documents that comply with the form requirements of this rule and the length limits set by this Part VIII. By local rule or order in a particular case, a district court or BAP may accept documents that do not meet all the form requirements of this rule or the length limits set by this Part VIII.

(g) Items Excluded from Length. In computing any length limit, headings, footnotes, and quotations count toward the limit, but the following items do not:

- cover page;
- disclosure statement under Rule 8012;
- table of contents;
- table of citations;
- statement regarding oral argument;
- addendum containing statutes, rules, or regulations;
- certificate of counsel;
- signature block;
- proof of service; and
- any item specifically excluded by these rules or by local rule.

(h) Certificate of Compliance.

- (1) Briefs and Documents That Require a Certificate. A brief submitted under Rule 8015(a)(7)(B), 8016(d)(2), or 8017(b)(4)—and a document submitted under Rule 8013(f)(3)(A), 8013(f)(3)(C), or 8022(b)(1)—must include a certificate by the attorney, or an unrepresented party, that the document complies with the type-volume limitation. The individual preparing the certificate may rely on the word or line count of the word-processing system used to prepare the document. The certificate must state the number of words—or the number of lines of monospaced type—in the document.
- (2) Using the Official Form. A certificate of compliance that conforms substantially to Form 417C satisfies the certificate requirement.

Rule 8016. Cross-Appeals

- (a) Applicability. This rule applies to a case in which a cross-appeal is filed. Rules 8014(a)–(c), 8015(a)(7)(A)–(B), and 8018(a)(1)–(3) do not apply to such a case, unless this rule states otherwise.
- (b) Designation of Appellant. The party who files a notice of appeal first is the appellant for purposes of this rule and Rule 8018(a)(4) and (b) and Rule 8019. If notices are filed on the same day, the plaintiff, petitioner, applicant, or movant in the proceeding below is the appellant. These designations may be modified by the parties' agreement or by court order.
- (c) Briefs. In a case involving a cross-appeal:
- (1) Appellant's Principal Brief. The appellant must file a principal brief in the appeal. That brief must comply with Rule 8014(a).
 - (2) Appellee's Principal and Response Brief. The appellee must file a principal brief in the cross-appeal and must, in the same brief, respond to the principal brief in the appeal. That brief must comply with Rule 8014(a), but the brief need not include a statement of the case unless the appellee is dissatisfied with the appellant's statement.

- (3) Appellant's Response and Reply Brief. The appellant must file a brief that responds to the principal brief in the cross-appeal and may, in the same brief, reply to the response in the appeal. That brief must comply with Rule 8014(a)(2)–(8) and (10), but none of the following need appear unless the appellant is dissatisfied with the appellee's statement in the cross-appeal:

- (A) the jurisdictional statement;
- (B) the statement of the issues;
- (C) the statement of the case; and
- (D) the statement of the applicable standard of appellate review.

(4) Appellee's Reply Brief. The appellee may file a brief in reply to the response in the cross-appeal. That brief must comply with Rule 8014(a)(2)–(3) and (10) and must be limited to the issues presented by the cross-appeal.

(d) Length.

(1) Page Limitation. Unless it complies with (2), the appellant's principal brief must not exceed 30 pages; the appellee's principal and response brief, 35 pages; the appellant's response and reply brief, 30 pages; and the appellee's reply brief, 15 pages.

(2) Type-Volume Limitation.

(A) Appellant's Brief. The appellant's principal brief or the appellant's response and reply brief is acceptable if it includes a certificate under Rule 8015(h) and:

(i) contains no more than 13,000 words;

or

- (ii) uses a monospaced face and contains no more than 1,300 lines of text.
 - (B) Appellee's Principal and Response Brief. The appellee's principal and response brief is acceptable if it includes a certificate under Rule 8015(h) and:
 - (i) contains no more than 15,300 words;
or
 - (ii) uses a monospaced face and contains no more than 1,500 lines of text.
 - (C) Appellee's Reply Brief. The appellee's reply brief is acceptable if it includes a certificate under Rule 8015(h) and contains no more than half the type volume specified in (A).
- (e) Time to Serve and File a Brief. Briefs must be served and filed as follows, unless the district court or BAP by order in a particular case excuses the filing of briefs or sets different time limits:

- (1) the appellant's principal brief, within 30 days after the docketing of a notice that the record has been sent or is available electronically;
- (2) the appellee's principal and response brief, within 30 days after the appellant's principal brief is served;
- (3) the appellant's response and reply brief, within 30 days after the appellee's principal and response brief is served; and
- (4) the appellee's reply brief, within 14 days after the appellant's response and reply brief is served but at least 7 days before scheduled argument—unless the district court or BAP, for cause, allows a later filing.

Rule 8017. Brief of an Amicus Curiae

- (a) During the Initial Consideration of a Case on the Merits.
 - (1) Applicability. This subdivision (a) governs amicus filings during a court's initial consideration of a case on the merits.

- (2) When Permitted. The United States, its officer or agency, or a state may file an amicus brief without the parties' consent or leave of court. Any other amicus curiae may file a brief only by leave of court or if the brief states that all parties have consented to its filing, but a district court or BAP may prohibit the filing of or may strike an amicus brief that would result in a judge's disqualification. On its own, and with notice to all parties to an appeal, the district court or BAP may request a brief by an amicus curiae.
- (3) Motion for Leave to File. A motion for leave must be accompanied by the proposed brief and state:
 - (A) the movant's interest; and
 - (B) the reason why an amicus brief is desirable and why the matters asserted are relevant to the disposition of the appeal.
- (4) Content and Form. An amicus brief must comply with Rule 8015. In addition, the cover must identify the party or parties supported and indicate whether the brief supports affirmance or reversal. If an amicus curiae is a corporation, the brief must include a disclosure statement like that required of parties by Rule 8012. An amicus brief need not comply with Rule 8014, but must include the following:

- (A) a table of contents, with page references;
- (B) a table of authorities—cases (alphabetically arranged), statutes, and other authorities—with references to the pages of the brief where they are cited;
- (C) a concise statement of the identity of the amicus curiae, its interest in the case, and the source of its authority to file;
- (D) unless the amicus curiae is one listed in the first sentence of (2), a statement that indicates whether:

- (i) a party's counsel authored the brief in whole or in part;
 - (ii) a party or a party's counsel contributed money that was intended to fund preparing or submitting the brief; and
 - (iii) a person—other than the amicus curiae, its members, or its counsel—contributed money that was intended to fund preparing or submitting the brief and, if so, identifies each such person;
- (E) an argument, which may be preceded by a summary and need not include a statement of the applicable standard of review; and
- (F) a certificate of compliance, if required by Rule 8015(h).
- (5) Length. Except by the district court's or BAP's permission, an amicus brief must be no more than one-half the maximum length authorized by these rules for a party's principal brief. If the court grants a party permission to file a longer brief, that extension does not affect the length of an amicus brief.

- (6) Time for Filing. An amicus curiae must file its brief—accompanied by a motion for leave to file when required—within 7 days after the principal brief of the party being supported is filed. An amicus curiae that does not support either party must file its brief within 7 days after the appellant's principal brief is filed. The district court or BAP may grant leave for later filing, specifying the time within which an opposing party may answer.
- (7) Reply Brief. Except by the district court's or BAP's permission, an amicus curiae may not file a reply brief.

- (8) Oral Argument. An amicus curiae may participate in oral argument only with the district court's or BAP's permission.

(b) During Consideration of Whether to Grant Rehearing.

- (1) Applicability. This subdivision (b) governs amicus filings during a district court's or BAP's consideration of whether to grant rehearing, unless a local rule or order in a particular case provides otherwise.
- (2) When Permitted. The United States, its officer or agency, or a state may file an amicus brief without the parties' consent or leave of court. Any other amicus curiae may file a brief only by leave of court.
- (3) Motion for Leave to File. Paragraph (a)(3) applies to a motion for leave to file.
- (4) Content, Form, and Length. Paragraph (a)(4) applies to the amicus brief. The brief must include a certificate under Rule 8015(h) and not exceed 2,600 words.

- (5) Time to File. An amicus curiae supporting a motion for rehearing or supporting neither party must file its brief—accompanied by a motion for leave to file when required—within 7 days after the motion is filed. An amicus curiae opposing the motion for rehearing must file its brief—accompanied by a motion for leave to file when required—no later than the date set by the court for the response.

Rule 8018. Serving and Filing Briefs and Appendices

- (a) Time to Serve and File a Brief. Unless the district court or BAP by order in a particular case excuses the filing of briefs or sets a different time, the following time limits apply:
- (1) Appellant's Brief. The appellant must serve and file a brief within 30 days after the docketing of notice that the record has been sent or that it is available electronically.

- (2) Appellee's Brief. The appellee must serve and file a brief within 30 days after the appellant's brief is served.
 - (3) Appellant's Reply Brief. The appellant may serve and file a reply brief within 14 days after service of the appellee's brief but at least 7 days before scheduled argument—unless the district court or BAP, for cause, allows a later filing.
 - (4) Consequence of Failure to File. If an appellant fails to file a brief on time or within an extended time authorized under (a)(3), the district court or BAP may—on its own after notice or on the appellee's motion—dismiss the appeal. An appellee who fails to file a brief will not be heard at oral argument unless the district court or BAP grants permission.
- (b) Duty to Serve and File an Appendix.
- (1) Appellant's Duty. Subject to (e) and Rule 8009(d), the appellant must serve and file with its principal brief an appendix containing excerpts from the record. It must contain:

- (A) the relevant docket entries;
 - (B) the complaint and answer, or equivalent filings;
 - (C) the judgment, order, or decree from which the appeal is taken;
 - (D) any other orders, pleadings, jury instructions, findings, conclusions, or opinions relevant to the appeal;
 - (E) the notice of appeal; and
 - (F) any relevant transcript or portion of it.
- (2) Appellee's Appendix. The appellee may serve and file with its brief an appendix containing any material that is required to be included or is relevant to the appeal or cross-appeal but that is omitted from the appellant's appendix.
- (3) Cross-Appellee's Appendix. The appellant—as cross-appellee—may also serve and file with its response an appendix containing material that is relevant to matters raised initially by the cross-appeal but that is omitted by the cross-appellant.

(c) Format of the Appendix.

- (1) Content. The appendix must:
 - (A) begin with a table of contents identifying the page at which each part begins;
 - (B) put the relevant docket entries after the table of contents;
 - (C) then put other parts of the record chronologically;
 - (D) when transcript pages are included, show the transcript page numbers in brackets immediately before the included pages; and
 - (E) indicate omissions from the text of a document or of the transcript by asterisks.
- (2) Immaterial Formal Matters. The appendix should not include immaterial formal matters, such as captions, subscriptions, and acknowledgments.

(d) Reproducing Exhibits. Exhibits designated for inclusion in the appendix may be reproduced in a separate volume or volumes, suitably indexed.

(e) Appeal on the Original Record Without an Appendix. The district court or BAP may, either by rule for all cases or classes of cases or by order in a particular case:

- (1) dispense with the appendix; and
- (2) permit an appeal to proceed on the original record with the submission of any relevant parts that the district court or BAP orders the parties to file.

Rule 8018.1. Reviewing a Judgment That the Bankruptcy Court Lacked Authority to Enter

If, on appeal, a district court determines that the bankruptcy court did not have authority under Article III of the Constitution to enter the judgment, order, or decree being appealed, the district court may treat it as proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law.

Rule 8019. Oral Argument

- (a) Party's Statement. Any party may file, or a district court or BAP may require, a statement explaining why oral argument should, or need not, be permitted.
- (b) Presumption of Oral Argument; Exceptions. Oral argument must be allowed in every case unless the district judge—or each BAP judge assigned to hear the appeal—examines the briefs and record and determines that oral argument is unnecessary because:
- (1) the appeal is frivolous;
 - (2) the dispositive issue or issues have been authoritatively decided; or
 - (3) the facts and legal arguments are adequately presented in the briefs and record, and the decisional process would not be significantly aided by oral argument.
- (c) Notice of Oral Argument; Motion to Postpone. The district court or BAP must advise all parties of the date, time, and place for oral argument and the time allowed for each side. A motion to postpone the argument or to allow longer argument must be filed reasonably before the hearing date.

- (d) Order and Content of the Argument. The appellant opens and concludes the argument. Counsel must not read at length from briefs, the record, or authorities.
- (e) Cross-Appeals and Separate Appeals. If there is a cross-appeal, Rule 8016(b) determines which party is the appellant and which is the appellee for the purposes of oral argument. Unless the district court or BAP orders otherwise, a cross-appeal or separate appeal must be argued when the initial appeal is argued. Separate parties should avoid duplicative argument.
- (f) Nonappearance of a Party. If the appellee fails to appear for argument, the district court or BAP may hear the appellant's argument. If the appellant fails to appear for argument, the district court or BAP may hear the appellee's argument. If neither party appears, the case will be decided on the briefs unless the district court or BAP orders otherwise.

- (g) Submission on Briefs. The parties may agree to submit a case for decision on the briefs, but the district court or BAP may order that the case be argued.
- (h) Use of Physical Exhibits at Argument; Removal. An attorney intending to use physical exhibits other than documents at the argument must arrange to place them in the courtroom on the day of the argument before the court convenes. After the argument, the attorney must remove the exhibits from the courtroom unless the district court or BAP orders otherwise. The clerk may destroy or dispose of them if the attorney does not reclaim them within a reasonable time after the clerk gives notice to do so.

Rule 8020. Frivolous Appeal; Other Misconduct

- (a) Frivolous Appeal; Damages and Costs. If the district court or BAP determines that an appeal is frivolous, then after a separate motion is filed or the court gives notice and a reasonable opportunity to respond, it may award just damages and single or double costs to the appellee.

- (b) Other Misconduct; Sanctions. The district court or BAP may discipline or sanction an attorney or party appearing before it for other misconduct, including a failure to comply with a court order. But the court must first give the attorney or party reasonable notice and an opportunity to show cause to the contrary—and if requested, grant a hearing.

Rule 8021. Costs

- (a) Against Whom Assessed. The following rules apply unless the law provides or the district court or BAP orders otherwise:
- (1) if an appeal is dismissed, costs are taxed against the appellant, unless the parties agree otherwise;
 - (2) if a judgment is affirmed, costs are taxed against the appellant;
 - (3) if a judgment is reversed, costs are taxed against the appellee;
 - (4) if a judgment is affirmed or reversed in part, modified, or vacated, costs are taxed only as the district court or BAP orders.

- (b) Costs for and Against the United States. Costs for or against the United States, its agency, or its officer may be assessed under (a) only if authorized by law.
- (c) Costs on Appeal Taxable in the Bankruptcy Court. The following costs on appeal are taxable in the bankruptcy court for the benefit of the party entitled to costs under this rule:
- (1) producing any required copies of a brief, appendix, exhibit, or the record;
 - (2) preparing and sending the record;
 - (3) the reporter's transcript, if needed to determine the appeal;
 - (4) premiums paid for a bond or other security to preserve rights pending appeal; and
 - (5) the fee for filing the notice of appeal.
- (d) Bill of Costs; Objections. A party who wants costs taxed must, within 14 days after a judgment on appeal is entered, file with the bankruptcy clerk and serve an itemized and verified bill of costs. Objections must be filed within 14 days after the bill of costs is served, unless the bankruptcy court extends the time.

Rule 8022. Motion for Rehearing

(a) Time to File; Content; Response; Action by the District Court or BAP If Granted.

- (1) Time. Unless the time is shortened or extended by order or local rule, any motion for rehearing by the district court or BAP must be filed within 14 days after a judgment on appeal is entered.
- (2) Content. The motion must state with particularity each point of law or fact that the movant believes the district court or BAP has overlooked or misapprehended and must argue in support of the motion.
- (3) Response. Unless the district court or BAP requests, no response to a motion for rehearing is permitted. But ordinarily, rehearing will not be granted without such a request.

- (4) No Oral Argument. Oral argument is not permitted.
- (5) Action by the District Court or BAP. If a motion for rehearing is granted, the district court or BAP may do any of the following:
 - (A) make a final disposition of the appeal without reargument;
 - (B) restore the case to the calendar for reargument or resubmission; or
 - (C) issue any other appropriate order.

(b) Form; Length. A motion for rehearing must comply in form with Rule 8013(f)(1) and (2). Copies must be served and filed as Rule 8011 provides. Except by the district court's or BAP's permission:

- (1) a motion produced using a computer must include a certificate under Rule 8015(h) and not exceed 3,900 words; and
- (2) a handwritten or typewritten motion must not exceed 15 pages.

Rule 8023. Voluntary Dismissal

- (a) Stipulated Dismissal. The clerk of the district court or BAP must dismiss an appeal if the parties file a signed dismissal agreement specifying how costs are to be paid and pay any court fees that are due.
- (b) Appellant's Motion to Dismiss. An appeal may be dismissed on the appellant's motion on terms agreed to by the parties or fixed by the district court or BAP.
- (c) Other Relief. A court order is required for any relief beyond the dismissal of an appeal—including approving a settlement, vacating an action of the bankruptcy court, or remanding the case to it.
- (d) Court Approval. This rule does not alter the legal requirements governing court approval of a settlement, payment, or other consideration.

Rule 8023.1. Substitution of Parties

This set of restyled rules does not include new Rule 8023.1 (Substitution of Parties). It is instead set out infra along with amended Rules 1007, 4004, 5009, 7001, and 9006.

Rule 8024. Clerk's Duties on Disposition of the Appeal

(a) Preparing the Judgment. After receiving the court's opinion—or instructions if there is no opinion—the district or BAP clerk must:

- (1) prepare and sign the judgment; and
- (2) note it on the docket, which act constitutes entry of judgment.

(b) Giving Notice of the Judgment. Immediately after a judgment is entered, the district or BAP clerk must:

- (1) send notice of its entry, together with a copy of any opinion, to:
 - the parties to the appeal;
 - the United States trustee; and

- the bankruptcy clerk; and
- (2) note on the docket the date the notice was sent.
- (c) Returning Physical Items. On disposition of the appeal, the district or BAP clerk must return to the bankruptcy clerk any physical items sent as the record on appeal.

Rule 8025. Staying a District Court or BAP Judgment

- (a) Automatic Stay of a Judgment on Appeal. Unless the district court or BAP orders otherwise, its judgment is stayed for 14 days after its entry.
- (b) Stay Pending an Appeal to the United States Court of Appeals.
- (1) In General. On a party's motion with notice to all other parties to the appeal, the district court or BAP may stay its judgment pending an appeal to the court of appeals.
- (2) Time Limit. Except for cause, the stay must not exceed 30 days after the judgment is entered.

- (3) Stay Continued When an Appeal Is Filed. If, before a stay expires, the party who obtained it appeals to a court of appeals, the stay continues until final disposition by the court of appeals.
- (4) Bond or Other Security. A bond or other security may be required as a condition for granting or continuing a stay. If a trustee obtains a stay, a bond or other security may be required. But neither is required if a stay is obtained by the United States or its officer or agency, or by direction of any department of the United States government.
- (c) Automatic Stay of the Bankruptcy Court's Order, Judgment, or Decree. If the district court or BAP enters a judgment affirming the bankruptcy court's order, judgment, or decree, a stay of the district court's or BAP's judgment automatically stays the bankruptcy court's order, judgment, or decree while the appellate stay is in effect.

(d) Power of a Court of Appeals or Its Judges Not Limited.

This rule does not limit the power of a court of appeals or any of its judges to:

- (1) stay a judgment pending appeal;
- (2) stay proceedings while an appeal is pending;
- (3) suspend, modify, restore, vacate, or grant a stay or injunction while an appeal is pending; or
- (4) issue any order appropriate to preserve the status quo or the effectiveness of any judgment that might be entered.

Rule 8026. Making and Amending Local Rules; Procedure When There Is No Controlling Law

(a) Local Rules.

(1) Making and Amending Local Rules.

- (A) BAP Local Rules. A circuit council that has authorized a BAP under 28 U.S.C. § 158(b) may make and amend local rules governing the practice and procedure on appeal to the BAP from a bankruptcy court's judgment, order, or decree.

- (B) District-Court Local Rules. A district court may make and amend local rules governing the practice and procedure on appeal to the district court from a bankruptcy court's judgment, order, or decree.
 - (C) Procedure. Fed. R. Civ. P. 83 governs the procedure for making and amending local rules. A local rule must be consistent with—but not duplicate—an Act of Congress and these Part VIII rules.
- (2) Numbering. Local rules must conform to any uniform numbering system prescribed by the Judicial Conference of the United States.
 - (3) Limitation on Enforcing a Local Rule Relating to Form. A local rule imposing a requirement of form must not be enforced in a way that causes a party to lose any right because of a nonwillful failure to comply.

- (b) Procedure When There Is No Controlling Law. A judge may regulate practice in any manner consistent with federal law, these rules, the Official Forms, and the district's local rules. For any requirement set out elsewhere, a sanction or other disadvantage may be imposed for noncompliance only if the alleged violator was given actual notice of the requirement in the particular case.

Rule 8027. Notice of a Mediation Procedure

If the district court or BAP has a mediation procedure applicable to bankruptcy appeals, the clerk must, after docketing the appeal, promptly notify the parties of:

- (a) the requirements of the mediation procedure; and
- (b) any effect it has on the time to file briefs.

Rule 8028. Suspending These Part VIII Rules

To expedite a decision or for other cause, a district court or BAP—or when appropriate, the court of appeals—may, in a particular case, suspend the requirements of these Part VIII rules, except Rules 8001–8007, 8012, 8020, 8024–8026, and 8028.

Rule 9005.1. Constitutional Challenge to a Statute— Notice, Certification, and Intervention

Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.1 applies in a bankruptcy case.

Rule 9006. Computing and Extending Time; Motions

(a) Computing Time. The following rules apply in computing any time period specified in these rules, in the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, in any local rule or court order, or in any statute that does not specify a method of computing time.

- (1) Period Stated in Days or a Longer Unit. When the period is stated in days or a longer unit of time:

- (A) exclude the day of the event that triggers the period;

- (B) count every day, including intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays; and
 - (C) include the last day of the period, but if the last day is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, the period continues to run until the end of the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.
- (2) Period Stated in Hours. When the period is stated in hours:
- (A) begin counting immediately on the occurrence of the event that triggers the period;
 - (B) count every hour, including hours during intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays; and
 - (C) if the period would end on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, then continue the period until the same time on the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.

- (3) Inaccessibility of the Clerk’s Office When a Filing Is Due. Unless the court orders otherwise, if the clerk’s office is inaccessible:
- (A) on the last day for filing under (1), then the time for filing is extended to the first accessible day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday; or
 - (B) during the last hour for filing under (2), then the time for filing is extended to the same time on the first accessible day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday.
- (4) “Last Day” Defined. Unless a different time is set by statute, local rule, or order in a case, the last day ends:
- (A) for electronic filing, at midnight in the court’s time zone; and
 - (B) for filing by other means, when the clerk’s office is scheduled to close.
- (5) “Next Day” Defined. The “next day” is determined by continuing to count forward when the period is measured after an event, and backward when measured before an event.

- (6) “Legal Holiday” Defined. “Legal holiday” means:
- (A) the day set aside by statute for observing New Year’s Day, Birthday of Martin Luther King Jr., Washington’s Birthday, Memorial Day, Juneteenth National Independence Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Columbus Day, Veteran’s Day, Thanksgiving Day, or Christmas Day;
 - (B) any day declared a holiday by the President or Congress; and
 - (C) for periods that are measured after an event, any other day declared a holiday by the state where the district court is located. (In this rule, “state” includes the District of Columbia and any United States commonwealth or territory.)

(b) Extending Time.

(1) In General. This paragraph (1) applies when these rules, a notice given under these rules, or a court order requires or allows an act to be performed at or within a specified period. Except as provided in (2) and (3), the court may—at any time and for cause—extend the time to act if:

(A) with or without a motion or notice, a request to extend is made before the period (or a previously extended period) expires; or

(B) on motion made after the specified period expires, the failure to act within that period resulted from excusable neglect.

(2) Exceptions. The court must not extend the time to act under Rules 1007(d), 2003(a) and (d), 7052, 9023, and 9024.

(3) Extensions Governed by Other Rules. The court may extend the time to:

- (A) act under Rules 1006(b)(2), 1017(e), 3002(c), 4003(b), 4004(a), 4007(c), 4008(a), 8002, and 9033—but only as permitted by those rules; and
- (B) file the statement required by Rule 1007(b)(7), and the schedules and statements in a small business case under § 1116(3)—but only as permitted by Rule 1007(c).

(c) Reducing Time.

- (1) When Permitted. When a rule, notice given under a rule, or court order requires or allows an act to be done within a specified time, the court may—for cause and with or without a motion or notice—reduce the time.
- (2) When Not Permitted. The court may not reduce the time to act under Rule 2002(a)(7), 2003(a), 3002(c), 3014, 3015, 4001(b)(2) or (c)(2), 4003(a), 4004(a), 4007(c), 4008(a), 8002, or 9033(b). Also, the court may not reduce the time set by Rule 1007(c) to file the certificate required by Rule 1007(b)(7).

(d) Time to Serve a Motion and a Response.

(1) In General. A written motion (other than one that may be heard ex parte) and notice of any hearing must be served at least 7 days before the hearing date, unless the court or these rules set a different period. Any affidavit supporting the motion must be served with it. An order to change the period may be granted for cause on ex parte application.

(2) Response. Except as provided in Rule 9023, any written response must be served at least 1 day before the hearing, unless the court allows otherwise.

(e) Service Complete on Mailing. Service by mail of process, any other document, or notice is complete upon mailing.

(f) Additional Time After Certain Service. When a party may or must act within a specified time after being served and service is made by mail or under Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(b)(2)(D)

(leaving with the clerk) or (F) (other means consented to), 3 days are added after the period would otherwise expire under (a).

- (g) Grain-Storage Facility. This rule does not limit the court's authority under § 557 to issue an order governing procedures in a case in which the debtor owns or operates a grain-storage facility.

Rule 9007. Authority to Regulate Notices

- (a) In General. Unless these rules provide otherwise, when notice is to be given, the court must designate:
- (1) the deadline for giving it;
 - (2) the entities to whom it must be given; and
 - (3) the form and manner of giving it.
- (b) Combined Notices. When feasible, the court may order notices under these rules to be combined.

Rule 9008. Service or Notice by Publication

When these rules require or authorize service or notice by publication, and to the extent that they do not provide otherwise, the court must determine the form and manner of publication—including the newspaper or other medium to be used and the number of publications.

Rule 9009. Using Official Forms; Director's Forms

- (a) Official Forms. The Official Forms prescribed by the Judicial Conference of the United States must be used without alteration—unless alteration is authorized by these rules, the form itself, or the national instructions for a particular form. A form may be modified to permit minor changes not affecting wording or the order of presentation, including a change that:
- (1) expands the prescribed response area to permit a complete response;
 - (2) deletes space not needed for a response; or

- (3) deletes items requiring detail in a question or category if the filer indicates—either by checking “no” or “none,” or by stating in words—that there is nothing to report on that item.
- (b) Director’s Forms. The Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts may issue additional forms.
- (c) Construing Forms. The forms must be construed to be consistent with these rules and the Code.

Rule 9010. Authority to Act Personally or by an Attorney; Power of Attorney

- (a) In General. A debtor, creditor, equity security holder, indenture trustee, committee, or other party may:
 - (1) appear in a case and act either on the entity’s own behalf or through an attorney authorized to practice in the court; and
 - (2) perform any act not constituting the practice of law, by an authorized agent, attorney-in-fact, or proxy.
- (b) Attorney’s Notice of Appearance. An attorney appearing for a party in a case must file a notice of appearance containing the attorney's name, office address, and telephone number—unless the appearance is already noted in the record.

(c) Power of Attorney to Represent a Creditor. The authority of an agent, attorney-in-fact, or proxy to represent a creditor—for any purpose other than executing and filing a proof of claim or accepting or rejecting a plan—must be evidenced by a power of attorney that substantially conforms to the appropriate version of Form 411. A power of attorney must be acknowledged before:

- (1) an officer listed in 28 U.S.C. § 459 or § 953 or in Rule 9012; or
- (2) a person authorized to administer oaths under the state law where the oath is administered.

Rule 9011. Signing Documents; Representations to the Court; Sanctions; Verifying and Providing Copies

(a) Signature. Every petition, pleading, written motion, and other document—except a list, schedule, or statement, or an amendment to one of them—must be signed by at least one attorney of record in the attorney's individual name. A party not represented by an attorney must sign all documents. Each document must state the signer's address and telephone number, if any. The court must strike an unsigned document unless the omission is promptly corrected after being called to the attorney's or party's attention.

(b) Representations to the Court. By presenting to the court a petition, pleading, written motion, or other document—whether by signing, filing, submitting, or later advocating it—an attorney or unrepresented party certifies that, to the best of the person's knowledge, information, and belief formed after an inquiry reasonable under the circumstances:

- (1) it is not presented for any improper purpose, such as to harass, cause unnecessary delay, or needlessly increase litigation costs;
- (2) the claims, defenses, and other legal contentions are warranted by existing law or by a nonfrivolous argument to extend, modify, or reverse existing law, or to establish new law;

- (3) the allegations and factual contentions have evidentiary support—or if specifically so identified, are likely to have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery; and
- (4) the denials of factual contentions are warranted on the evidence—or if specifically so identified, are reasonably based on a lack of information or belief.

(c) Sanctions.

- (1) In General. If, after notice and a reasonable opportunity to respond, the court determines that (b) has been violated, the court may, subject to the conditions in this subdivision (c), impose an appropriate sanction on any attorney, law firm, or party that committed the violation or is responsible for it. Absent exceptional circumstances, a law firm must be held jointly responsible for a violation committed by its partner, associate, or employee.

(2) By Motion.

(A) In General. A motion for sanctions must be made separately from any other motion or request, describe the specific conduct alleged to violate (b), and be served under Rule 7004.

(B) When to File. The motion for sanctions must not be filed or presented to the court if the challenged document, claim, defense, contention, allegation, or denial is withdrawn or appropriately corrected within 21 days after the motion was served (or within another period as the court may order). This limitation does not apply if the conduct alleged is filing a petition in violation of (b).

(C) Awarding Damages. If warranted, the court may award to the prevailing party the reasonable expenses and attorney's fees incurred in presenting or opposing the motion.

(3) By the Court. On its own, the court may enter an order describing the specific conduct that appears to violate (b) and directing an attorney, law firm, or party to show cause why it has not violated (b).

(4) Nature of a Sanction; Limitations.

(A) In General. A sanction imposed under this rule must be limited to what suffices to deter repetition of the conduct or deter comparable conduct by others similarly situated. The sanction may include:

- (i) a nonmonetary directive;
- (ii) an order to pay a penalty into court; or
- (iii) if imposed on motion and warranted for effective deterrence, an order directing payment to the movant of all or part of the reasonable attorney's fees and other expenses directly resulting from the violation.

(B) Limitations on a Monetary Sanction. The court must not impose a monetary sanction:

- (i) against a represented party for violating (b)(2); or
- (ii) on its own, unless it issued the show-cause order under (c)(3) before voluntary dismissal or settlement of the claims made by or against the party that is, or whose attorneys are, to be sanctioned.

(5) Content of a Court Order. An order imposing a sanction must describe the sanctioned conduct and explain the basis for the sanction.

(d) Inapplicability to Discovery. Subdivisions (a)–(c) do not apply to disclosures and discovery requests, responses, objections, and motions that are subject to Rules 7026–7037.

(e) Verifying a Document. A document filed in a bankruptcy case need not be verified unless these rules provide otherwise.

When these rules require verification, an unsworn declaration under 28 U.S.C. § 1746 suffices.

- (f) Copies of Signed or Verified Documents. When these rules require copies of a signed or verified document, if the original is signed or verified, a copy that conforms to the original suffices.

Rule 9012. Oaths and Affirmations

- (a) Who May Administer an Oath. These persons may administer an oath or affirmation or take an acknowledgment:

- a bankruptcy judge;
- a clerk;
- a deputy clerk;
- a United States trustee;
- an officer authorized to administer oaths in a proceeding before a federal court or by state law in the state where the oath is taken; or
- a United States diplomatic or consular officer in a foreign country.

- (b) Affirmation as an Alternative. If an oath is required, a solemn affirmation suffices.

Rule 9013. Motions; Form and Service

- (a) Request for an Order. A request for an order must be made by written motion unless:
- (1) an application is authorized by these rules; or
 - (2) the request is made during a hearing.
- (b) Form and Service of a Motion. A motion must state its grounds with particularity and set forth the relief or order requested. Unless a written motion may be considered ex parte, the movant must, within the time prescribed by Rule 9006(d), serve the motion on:
- the trustee or debtor in possession and those entities specified by these rules; or
 - if these rules do not require service or specify the entities to be served, the entities designated by the court.

Rule 9014. Contested Matters

- (a) Motion Required. In a contested matter not otherwise governed by these rules, relief must be requested by motion. Reasonable notice and an opportunity to be heard must be given to the party against whom relief is sought. No response is required unless the court orders otherwise.
- (b) Service.
- (1) Motion. The motion must be served within the time prescribed by Rule 9006(d) and in the manner for serving a summons and complaint provided by Rule 7004.
 - (2) Response. Any written response must be served within the time prescribed by Rule 9006(d).
 - (3) Later Filings. After a motion is served, any other document must be served in the manner prescribed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(b).
- (c) Applying Part VII Rules.
- In General. Unless this rule or a court order provides otherwise, the following rules apply in a contested matter: 7009, 7017, 7021, 7025–7026, 7028–7037, 7041–7042, 7052, 7054–7056, 7064, 7069, and 7071.

At any stage of a contested matter, the court may order that one or more other Part VII rules apply.

- Exception. Unless the court orders otherwise, the following subdivisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 26, as incorporated by Rule 7026, do not apply in a contested matter:
 - (a)(1), mandatory disclosure;
 - (a)(2), disclosures about expert testimony;
 - (a)(3), other pretrial disclosures; and
 - (f), mandatory meeting before a scheduling conference.
- Procedural Order. In issuing any procedural order under this subdivision (c), the court must give the parties notice and a reasonable opportunity to comply.

- Perpetuating Testimony. An entity desiring to perpetuate testimony may do so in the manner provided by Rule 7027 for taking a deposition before an adversary proceeding.
- (d) Taking Testimony on a Disputed Factual Issue. A witness's testimony on a disputed material factual issue must be taken in the same manner as testimony in an adversary proceeding.
- (e) Determining Whether a Hearing Will Be an Evidentiary Hearing. The court must provide procedures that allow parties—at a reasonable time before a scheduled hearing—to determine whether it will be an evidentiary hearing at which witnesses may testify.

Rule 9015. Jury Trial

- (a) In General. In a bankruptcy case or proceeding, Fed. R. Civ. P. 38–39, 47–49, 51, and 81(c) (insofar as it applies to jury trials) apply. But a demand for a jury trial under Fed. R. Civ. P. 38(b) must be filed in accordance with Rule 5005.+

(b) Jury Trial Before a Bankruptcy Judge. The parties may— jointly or separately—file a statement consenting to a jury trial conducted by a bankruptcy judge under 28 U.S.C. § 157(e) if:

- (1) the right to a jury trial applies;
- (2) a timely demand has been filed under Fed. R. Civ. P. 38(b);
- (3) the bankruptcy judge has been specially designated to conduct the jury trial; and
- (4) the statement is filed within any time specified by local rule.

(c) Judgment as a Matter of Law; Motion for a New Trial.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 50 applies in a bankruptcy case or proceeding—except that a renewed motion for judgment, or a request for a new trial, must be filed within 14 days after the judgment is entered.

Rule 9016. Subpoena

Fed. R. Civ. P. 45 applies in a bankruptcy case.

Rule 9017. Evidence

Rule 9018. Secret, Confidential, Scandalous, or Defamatory Matter

- (a) In General. On motion or on its own, the court may, with or without notice, issue any order that justice requires to:
- (1) protect the estate or any entity regarding a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information;
 - (2) protect an entity from scandalous or defamatory matter in any document filed in a bankruptcy case; or
 - (3) protect governmental matters made confidential by statute or regulation.
- (b) Motion to Vacate or Modify an Order Issued Without Notice. An entity affected by an order issued under (a) without notice may move to vacate or modify it. After notice and a hearing, the court must rule on the motion.

Rule 9019. Compromise or Settlement; Arbitration

(a) Approving a Compromise or Settlement. On the trustee's motion and after notice and a hearing, the court may approve a compromise or settlement. Notice must be given to:

- all creditors;
- the United States trustee;
- the debtor;
- all indenture trustees as provided in Rule 2002; and
- any other entity the court designates.

(b) Compromising or Settling Controversies in Classes. After a hearing on such notice as the court may order, the court may:

- (1) designate a class or classes of controversies; and
- (2) authorize the trustee to compromise or settle controversies within the class or classes without further hearing or notice.

(c) Arbitration of Controversies Affecting an Estate. If the parties so stipulate, the court may authorize a controversy affecting an estate to be submitted to final and binding arbitration.

Rule 9020. Contempt Proceedings

Rule 9014 governs a motion for a contempt order made by the United States trustee or a party in interest.

Rule 9021. When a Judgment or Order Becomes Effective

A judgment or order becomes effective when it is entered under Rule 5003.

Rule 9022. Notice of a Judgment or Order

(a) Issued by a Bankruptcy Judge.

- (1) In General. Upon entering a judgment or order, the clerk must:
 - (A) promptly serve notice of the entry on the contesting parties and other entities the court designates;
 - (B) do so in the manner provided by Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(b);

- (C) except in a Chapter 9 case, promptly send a copy of the judgment or order to the United States trustee; and
 - (D) note service on the docket.
- (2) Lack of Notice; Time to Appeal. Except as permitted by Rule 8002, lack of notice of the entry does not affect the time to appeal or relieve—or authorize the court to relieve—a party for failing to appeal within the time allowed.
- (b) Issued by a District Judge. Notice of a district judge’s judgment or order is governed by Fed. R. Civ. P. 77(d). Except in a Chapter 9 case, the clerk must promptly send a copy of the judgment or order to the United States trustee.

Rule 9023. New Trial; Altering or Amending a Judgment

- (a) Application of Civil Rule 59. Except as this rule and Rule 3008 provide otherwise, Fed. R. Civ. P. 59 applies in a bankruptcy case.

- (b) By Motion. A motion for a new trial or to alter or amend a judgment must be filed within 14 days after the judgment is entered. In some instances, Rule 8008 governs postjudgment motion practice after an appeal has been docketed and is pending.
- (c) By the Court. Within 14 days after judgment is entered, the court may, on its own, order a new trial.

Rule 9024. Relief from a Judgment or Order

- (a) In General. Fed. R. Civ. P. 60 applies in a bankruptcy case—except that:
 - (1) the one-year limitation in Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(c) does not apply to a motion to reopen a case or to reconsider an uncontested order allowing or disallowing a claim against the estate;
 - (2) a complaint to revoke a discharge in a Chapter 7 case must be filed within the time allowed by § 727(e); and

(3) a complaint to revoke an order confirming a plan must be filed within the time allowed by § 1144, 1230, or 1330.

(b) Indicative Ruling. In some instances, Rule 8008 governs postjudgment motion practice after an appeal has been docketed and is pending.

Rule 9025. Security; Proceeding Against a Security Provider

When the Code or these rules require or permit a party to give security and the party gives security with one or more security providers, each provider submits to the court's jurisdiction. Liability may be determined in an adversary proceeding governed by the Part VII rules.

Rule 9026. Objecting to a Ruling or Order

Fed. R. Civ. P. 46 applies in a bankruptcy case.

Rule 9027. Removing a Claim or Cause of Action from Another Court

(a) Notice of Removal.

- (1) Where Filed; Form and Content. A notice of removal must be filed with the clerk for the district and division where the state or federal civil action is pending. The notice must be signed under Rule 9011 and must:
 - (A) contain a short and plain statement of the facts that entitle the party to remove;
 - (B) contain a statement that the party filing the notice does or does not consent to the bankruptcy court's entry of a final judgment or order; and
 - (C) be accompanied by a copy of all process and pleadings.
- (2) Time to File When the Claim Was Filed Before the Bankruptcy Case Is Commenced. If the claim or cause of action in a civil action is pending when a bankruptcy case is commenced, the notice of removal must be filed within the longest of these periods:

- (A) 90 days after the order for relief in the bankruptcy case;
 - (B) if the claim or cause of action has been stayed under § 362, 30 days after an order terminating the stay is entered; or
 - (C) in a Chapter 11 case, 30 days after a trustee qualifies—but no later than 180 days after the order for relief.
- (3) Time to File When the Claim Is Filed After the Bankruptcy Case Was Commenced. If a claim or cause of action is asserted in another court after the bankruptcy case was commenced, a party filing a notice of removal must do so within the shorter of these periods:
- (A) 30 days after receiving (by service or otherwise) the initial pleading setting forth the claim or cause of action sought to be removed;
- or

(B) 30 days after receiving the summons if the initial pleading has been filed but not served with the summons.

(b) Notice to Other Parties and to the Court from Which the Claim Was Removed. A party filing a notice of removal must promptly:

- (1) serve a copy on all other parties to the removed claim or cause of action; and
- (2) file a copy with the clerk of the court from which it was removed.

(c) Effective Date of Removal. Removal becomes effective when the notice is filed under (b)(2). The parties must proceed no further in the court from which the claim or cause of action was removed, unless it is remanded.

(d) Remand After Removal. A motion to remand is governed by Rule 9014. The party filing the motion must serve a copy on all parties to the removed claim or cause of action.

(e) Procedure After Removal.

- (1) Bringing Proper Parties Before the Court. After removal, the district court—or the bankruptcy judge to whom the bankruptcy case has been referred—may issue all necessary orders and process to bring before it all proper parties. It does not matter whether they were served by process issued by the court from which the claim or cause of action was removed, or otherwise.
- (2) Records of Prior Proceedings. The judge may require the party filing the notice of removal to file with the clerk copies of all records and proceedings relating to the claim or cause of action that were filed in the court from which the removal occurred.
- (3) Statement by a Party Other Than the Removing Party. A party who has filed a pleading regarding a removed claim or cause of action—except the party filing the notice of removal—must:

- (A) file a statement that the party does or does not consent to the bankruptcy court's entry of a final order or judgment;
 - (B) sign the statement under Rule 9011;
 - (C) file it within 14 days after the notice of removal is filed; and
 - (D) mail a copy to every other party to the removed claim or cause of action.
- (f) Process Regarding a Defendant After Removal. If a defendant has not been served—or service has not been completed before removal or has been proved defective—then process or service may be completed or new process issued under the Part VII rules. A defendant served after removal may move to remand the claim or cause of action.
- (g) Applying Part VII Rules.
- (1) In General. The Part VII rules apply to a claim or cause of action removed to a district court from a federal or state court, and they govern the procedure after removal. Repleading is not necessary unless the court orders otherwise.

(2) Time to File an Answer. In a removed action, a defendant that has not previously done so must file an answer—or present other defenses or objections available under the Part VII rules. The defendant must do so within the longest of these periods:

(A) 21 days after receiving—by service or otherwise—a copy of the initial pleading that sets forth the claim for relief;

(B) 21 days after a summons on the original pleading was served; or

(C) 7 days after the notice of removal was filed.

(h) Clerk's Failure to Supply Certified Records of Court Proceedings. If a party is entitled to copies of the records and proceedings in a civil action or proceeding in a federal or state court for use in the removed action or proceeding, the party may demand certified copies from that court's clerk. After the party pays for them or tenders the fees, if the clerk fails to provide them, the court to which the action or proceeding is removed may—after receiving an affidavit stating these facts—order that the record be supplied by affidavit or otherwise. The court may then proceed to trial and judgment, and may award all process, as if certified copies had been filed.

(i) Property Attached or Sequestered; Security; Injunction.

- (1) Property Attached or Sequestered. The court from which a claim or cause of action has been removed must hold attached or sequestered property to answer the final judgment or decree in the same way it would have been held had there been no removal.
- (2) Security. Any bond, undertaking, or security given by either party before the removal remains valid.
- (3) Injunction. Any injunction or order issued, or other proceeding had, before the removal remains in effect until dissolved or modified by the court.

Rule 9028. Judge's Disability

Fed. R. Civ. P. 63 applies in a bankruptcy case.

Rule 9029. Adopting Local Rules; Limit on Enforcing a Local Rule; Absence of Controlling Law(a) Adopting Local Rules.

(1) By District Courts. Each district court, acting by a majority of its judges, may make and amend rules governing practice and procedure in all cases and proceedings within its bankruptcy jurisdiction. Fed. R. Civ. P. 83 governs the procedure for adopting local rules. The rules must:

- (A) be consistent with—but not duplicate—Acts of Congress and these rules;
- (B) not prohibit or limit using Official Forms; and
- (C) conform to any uniform numbering system prescribed by the Judicial Conference of the United States.

- (2) Delegating Authority to the Bankruptcy Judges. A district court may—subject to any limitation or condition it may prescribe and Fed. R. Civ. P. 83—authorize the district’s bankruptcy judges to make and amend local bankruptcy rules.
- (b) Limit on Enforcing a Local Rule Regarding Form. A local rule imposing a requirement of form must not be enforced in a way that causes a party to lose any right because of a nonwillful failure to comply.
- (c) Procedure When There Is No Controlling Law. A judge may regulate practice in any manner consistent with federal law, these rules, the Official Forms, and the district’s local rules. For any requirement set out elsewhere, a sanction or other disadvantage may be imposed for noncompliance only if the alleged violator was given actual notice of the requirement in the particular case.

Rule 9030. Jurisdiction and Venue Not Extended or Limited

These rules must not be construed to extend or limit the courts' jurisdiction or the venue of any matters.

Rule 9031. Using Masters Not Authorized

Fed. R. Civ. P. 53 does not apply in a bankruptcy case.

Rule 9032. Effect of an Amendment to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure

To the extent these rules incorporate by reference the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, an amendment to those rules is also effective under these rules, unless the amendment or these rules provide otherwise.

Rule 9033. Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

- (a) Service. When a bankruptcy court issues proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law, the clerk must promptly serve a copy, by mail, on every party and must note the date of mailing on the docket.
- (b) Objections; Time to File.

- (1) Time to File. Within 14 days after being served, a party may file and serve objections. They must identify each proposed finding or conclusion objected to and state the grounds for objecting. A party may respond to another party's objections within 14 days after being served with a copy.
 - (2) Ordering a Transcript. Unless the district judge orders otherwise, a party filing objections must promptly order a transcript of the record, or the parts of it that all parties agree are—or the bankruptcy judge considers to be—sufficient.
 - (3) Extending the Time. On request made before the time to file objections expires, the bankruptcy judge may, for cause, extend any party's time to file for no more than 21 days after the time otherwise expires. But a request made within 21 days after that time expires may be granted upon a showing of excusable neglect.
- (c) Review by the District Judge. The district judge:

- (1) must review de novo—on the record or after receiving additional evidence—any part of the bankruptcy judge’s findings of fact or conclusions of law to which specific written objection has been made under (b);
and
- (2) may accept, reject, or modify the proposed findings of fact or conclusions of law, take additional evidence, or remand the matter to the bankruptcy judge with instructions.

Rule 9034. Sending Copies to the United States Trustee

Except in a Chapter 9 case or when the United States trustee requests otherwise, an entity filing a pleading, motion, objection, or similar document relating to any of the following must send a copy to the United States trustee within the time required for service:

- (a) a proposed use, sale, or lease of property of the estate other than in the ordinary course of business;
- (b) the approval of a compromise or settlement of a controversy;
- (c) the dismissal or conversion of a case to another chapter;

- (d) the employment of a professional person;
- (e) an application for compensation or reimbursement of expenses;
- (f) a motion for, or the approval of an agreement regarding, the use of cash collateral or authority to obtain credit;
- (g) the appointment of a trustee or examiner in a Chapter 11 case;
- (h) the approval of a disclosure statement;
- (i) the confirmation of a plan;
- (j) an objection to, or waiver or revocation of, the debtor's discharge; or
- (k) any other matter in which the United States trustee requests copies of filed documents or the court orders copies sent to the United States trustee.

Rule 9035. Applying These Rules in a Judicial District in Alabama or North Carolina

In a bankruptcy case filed in or transferred to a district in Alabama or North Carolina and in which a United States trustee is not authorized to act, these rules apply to the extent they are not inconsistent with any applicable federal statute.

Rule 9036. Electronic Notice and Service

- (a) In General. This rule applies whenever these rules require or permit sending a notice or serving a document by mail or other means.
- (b) Notices from and Service by the Court.
- (1) To Registered Users. The clerk may send notice to or serve a registered user by filing the notice or document with the court's electronic-filing system.
- (2) To All Recipients. For any recipient, the clerk may send notice or serve a document by electronic means that the recipient consented to in writing, including by designating an electronic address for receiving notices. But these exceptions apply:
- (A) if the recipient has registered an electronic address with the Administrative Office of the United States Courts' bankruptcy-noticing program, the clerk must use that address; and

- (B) if an entity has been designated by the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts as a high-volume paper-notice recipient, the clerk may send the notice to or serve the document electronically at an address designated by the Director, unless the entity has designated an address under § 342(e) or (f).
- (c) Notices from and Service by an Entity. An entity may send notice or serve a document in the same manner that the clerk does under (b), excluding (b)(2)(A) and (B).
- (d) When Notice or Service Is Complete; Keeping an Address Current. Electronic notice or service is complete upon filing or sending but is not effective if the filer or sender receives notice that it did not reach the person to be notified or served. The recipient must keep its electronic address current with the clerk.

- (e) Inapplicability. This rule does not apply to any document required to be served in accordance with Rule 7004.

Rule 9037. Protecting Privacy for Filings

- (a) Redacted Filings. Unless the court orders otherwise, in an electronic or paper filing with the court that contains an individual's social-security number, taxpayer-identification number, or birth date, the name of an individual other than the debtor known to be and identified as a minor, or a financial-account number, a party or nonparty making the filing may include only:

- (1) the last four digits of a social-security and taxpayer-identification number;
- (2) the year of the individual's birth;
- (3) the minor's initials; and
- (4) the last four digits of the financial-account number.

- (b) Exemptions from the Redaction Requirement. The redaction requirement does not apply to the following:

- (1) a financial-account number that identifies the property allegedly subject to forfeiture in a forfeiture proceeding;
 - (2) the record of an administrative or agency proceeding, unless filed with a proof of claim;
 - (3) the official record of a state-court proceeding;
 - (4) the record of a court or tribunal, if that record was not subject to the redaction requirement when originally filed;
 - (5) a filing covered by (c); and
 - (6) a filing subject to § 110.
- (c) Filings Made Under Seal. The court may order that a filing be made under seal without redaction. The court may later unseal the filing or order the entity that made it to file a redacted version for the public record.
- (d) Protective Orders. For cause, the court may by order in a case:
- (1) require redaction of additional information; or

(2) limit or prohibit a nonparty's remote electronic access to a document filed with the court.

(e) Option for Additional Unredacted Document Under Seal.

An entity filing a redacted document may also file an unredacted copy under seal. The court must retain the unredacted copy as part of the record.

(f) Option for Filing a Reference List. A filing that contains redacted information may be filed together with a reference list that identifies each item of redacted information and specifies an appropriate identifier that uniquely corresponds to each item listed. The list must be filed under seal and may be amended as of right. A reference in the case to a listed identifier will be construed to refer to the corresponding item of information.

(g) Waiver of Protection of Identifiers. An entity waives the protection of (a) for the entity's own information by filing it without redaction and not under seal.

(h) Motion to Redact a Previously Filed Document.

- (1) Content; Service. Unless the court orders otherwise, an entity seeking to redact from a previously filed document information that is protected under (a) must:
- (A) file a motion that identifies the proposed redactions;
 - (B) attach to it the proposed redacted document;
 - (C) include the docket number—or proof-of-claim number—of the previously filed document; and
 - (D) serve the motion and attachment on:
 - the debtor;
 - the debtor’s attorney;
 - any trustee;
 - the United States trustee;
 - the entity that filed the unredacted document; and

- any individual whose personal identifying information is to be redacted.

(2) Restricting Public Access to the Unredacted Document; Docketing the Redacted Document.

Pending its ruling, the court must promptly restrict access to the motion and the unredacted document. If the court grants the motion, the clerk must docket the redacted document. The restrictions on public access to the motion and unredacted document remain in effect until a further court order. If the court denies the motion, the restrictions must be lifted, unless the court orders otherwise.

Rule 9038. Bankruptcy Rules Emergency

- (a) Conditions for an Emergency. The Judicial Conference of the United States may declare a Bankruptcy Rules emergency if it determines that extraordinary circumstances relating to public health or safety, or affecting physical or electronic access to a bankruptcy court, substantially impair the court's ability to perform its functions in compliance with these rules.

(b) Declaring an Emergency.

(1) Content. The declaration must:

(A) designate the bankruptcy court or courts affected;

(B) state any restrictions on the authority granted in (c); and

(C) be limited to a stated period of no more than 90 days.

(2) Early Termination. The Judicial Conference may terminate a declaration for one or more bankruptcy courts before the termination date.

(3) Additional Declarations. The Judicial Conference may issue additional declarations under this rule.

(c) Tolling and Extending Time Limits.

(1) In an Entire District or Division. When an emergency is in effect for a bankruptcy court, the chief bankruptcy judge may, for all cases and proceedings in the district or in a division:

- (A) order the extension or tolling of a Bankruptcy Rule, local rule, or order that requires or allows a court, a clerk, a party in interest, or the United States trustee, by a specified deadline, to commence a proceeding, file or send a document, hold or conclude a hearing, or take any other action, despite any other Bankruptcy Rule, local rule, or order; or
 - (B) order that, when a Bankruptcy Rule, local rule, or order requires that an action be taken “promptly,” “forthwith,” “immediately,” or “without delay,” it be taken as soon as is practicable or by a date set by the court in a specific case or proceeding.
- (2) In a Specific Case or Proceeding. When an emergency is in effect for a bankruptcy court, a presiding judge may take the action described in (1) in a specific case or proceeding.

(3) When an Extension or Tolling Ends. A period extended or tolled under (1) or (2) terminates on the later of:

(A) the last day of the time period as extended or tolled or 30 days after the emergency declaration terminates, whichever is earlier; or

(B) the last day of the time period originally required, imposed, or allowed by the relevant Bankruptcy Rule, local rule, or order that was extended or tolled.

(4) Further Extensions or Shortenings. A presiding judge may lengthen or shorten an extension or tolling in a specific case or proceeding. The judge may do so only for good cause after notice and a hearing and only on the judge's own motion or on motion of a party in interest or the United States trustee.

- (5) Exception. A time period imposed by statute may not be extended or tolled.

Rule 1007. Lists, Schedules, Statements, and Other Documents; Time to File¹

* * * * *

(b) Schedules, Statements, and Other Documents.

* * * * *

(7) Personal Financial-Management Course.

Unless an approved provider has notified the court that the debtor has completed a course in personal financial management after filing the petition or the debtor is not required to complete one as a condition to discharge, an individual debtor in a Chapter 7 or Chapter 13 case—or in a Chapter 11 case in which

§ 1141(d)(3) applies—must file a certificate of course completion issued by the provider.

* * * * *

(c) Time to File.

* * * * *

(4) Financial-Management Course. Unless the court extends the time to file, an individual debtor must file the certificate required by (b)(7) as follows:

(A) in a Chapter 7 case, within 60 days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors under § 341; and

(B) in a Chapter 11 or Chapter 13 case, no later than the date the last payment is made under the plan, or the date a motion for a discharge is filed under § 1141(d)(5)(B) or § 1328(b).

* * * * *

Committee Note

The language of Rule 1007 has been amended as part of the general restyling of the Bankruptcy Rules to make them more easily understood and to make style and terminology consistent throughout the rules. These changes are intended to be stylistic only.

Additionally, the following substantive changes have been made.

Rule 1007(b)(7) is amended in two ways. First, language is added to make the rule inapplicable to debtors who are not required to complete an instructional course concerning personal financial management as a condition to discharge. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 727(a)(11), 1328(g)(2), 1141(d)(3)(C). Second, the rule is amended to require an individual debtor who has completed an instructional course concerning personal financial management to file the certificate of course completion (often called a Certificate of Debtor Education) issued by the approved provider of that course in lieu of filing an Official Form, if the provider has not notified the court that the debtor has completed the course.

The amendment to Rule 1007(c)(4) reflects the amendment to Rule 1007(b)(7) described above.

Rule 4004. Granting or Denying a Discharge

* * * * *

(c) Granting a Discharge.

(1) Chapter 7. In a Chapter 7 case, when the times to object to discharge and to file a motion to dismiss the case under Rule 1017(e) expire, the court must promptly grant the discharge—except under these circumstances:

* * * * *

(H) the debtor has not filed a certificate showing that a course on personal financial management has been completed—if such a certificate is required by Rule 1007(b)(7);

* * * * *

(4) Individual Chapter 11 or Chapter 13 Case.
In a Chapter 11 case in which the debtor is an individual—or in a Chapter 13 case—the court must not grant a discharge if the debtor has not filed a certificate required by Rule 1007(b)(7).

Committee Note

The language of Rule 4004 has been amended as part of the general restyling of the Bankruptcy Rules to make them more easily understood and to make style and terminology consistent throughout the rules. These changes are intended to be stylistic only.

Additionally, the following substantive changes have been made.

The amendments to Rule 4004(c)(1)(H) and (c)(4) reflect the amendment to Rule 1007(b)(7) that replaces the requirement for submission of a statement showing that the debtor has completed a course on personal financial management with the requirement that the debtor provide the certificate of course completion issued by the approved provider of that course.

Rule 5009. Closing a Chapter 7, 12, 13, or 15 Case; Declaring Liens Satisfied

* * * * *

(b) Chapter 7 or 13—Notice of a Failure to File a Certificate of Completion for a Course on Personal Financial Management. This subdivision (b) applies if an individual debtor in a Chapter 7 or 13 case is required to file a certificate under Rule 1007(b)(7) and fails to do so within 45 days after the first date set for the meeting of creditors under § 341(a). The clerk must promptly notify the debtor that the case will be closed without entering a discharge if the certificate is not filed within the time prescribed by Rule 1007(c).

Committee Note

The language of Rule 5009 has been amended as part of the general restyling of the Bankruptcy Rules to make them more easily understood and to make style and terminology consistent throughout the rules. These changes are intended to be stylistic only.

The amendments to Rule 5009(b) reflect the amendment to Rule 1007(b)(7) that replaces the requirement for submission of a statement showing that the debtor has completed a course on personal financial management with the requirement that the debtor provide the certificate of course completion issued by the approved provider of that course.

Rule 7001. Types of Adversary Proceedings

An adversary proceeding is governed by the rules in this Part VII. The following are adversary proceedings:

- (a) a proceeding to recover money or property—except a proceeding to compel the debtor to deliver property to the trustee, a proceeding by an individual debtor to recover tangible personal property under § 542(a), or a proceeding under § 554(b), § 725, Rule 2017, or Rule 6002;

Committee Note

The language of Rule 7001 has been amended as part of the general restyling of the Bankruptcy Rules to make them more easily understood and to make style and terminology consistent throughout the rules. These changes are intended to be stylistic only.

Additionally, the following substantive changes have been made.

Paragraph (a) is amended to create an exception for certain turnover proceedings under § 542(a) of the Code. An individual debtor may need to obtain the prompt return from a third party of tangible personal property—such as an automobile or tools of the trade—in order to produce income to fund a plan or to regain the use of property that may be exempted. As noted by Justice Sotomayor in her concurrence in City of Chicago v. Fulton, 141 S. Ct. 585, 592-95 (2021), the more formal procedures applicable to adversary proceedings can be too time-consuming in such a situation. Instead, the debtor can now proceed by motion to require turnover of such property under § 542(a), and the procedures of Rule 9014 will apply. In an appropriate case, however, Rule 9014(c) allows the court to order that additional provisions of Part VII of the rules will apply to the matter.

Rule 8023.1. Substitution of Parties

(a) Death of a Party.

- (1) After a Notice of Appeal Is Filed. If a party dies after a notice of appeal has been filed or while a proceeding is pending on appeal in the district court or BAP, the decedent's personal representative may be substituted as a party on motion filed with that court's clerk by the representative or by any party. A party's motion must be served on the representative in accordance with Rule 8011. If the decedent has no representative, any party may suggest the death on the record, and the appellate court may then direct appropriate proceedings.

- (2) Before a Notice of Appeal Is Filed—Potential Appellant. If a party entitled to appeal dies before filing a notice of appeal, the decedent's personal representative—or, if there is no personal representative, the decedent's attorney of record—may file a notice of appeal within the time prescribed by these rules. After the notice of appeal is filed, substitution must be in accordance with (1).
- (3) Before a Notice of Appeal Is Filed—Potential Appellee. If a party against whom an appeal may be taken dies after entry of a judgment or order in the bankruptcy court, but before a notice of appeal is filed, an appellant may proceed as if the death had not occurred. After the notice of appeal is filed, substitution must be in accordance with (1).

(b) Substitution for a Reason Other Than Death. If a party needs to be substituted for any reason other than death, the procedure prescribed in (a) applies.

(c) Public Officer: Identification; Substitution.

(1) Identification of a Party. A public officer who is a party to an appeal or other proceeding in an official capacity may be described as a party by the public officer's official title rather than by name. But the appellate court may require the public officer's name to be added.

(2) Automatic Substitution of an Officeholder. When a public officer who is a party to an appeal or other proceeding in an official capacity dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to hold office, the action does not abate. Subject to Rule 2012, the public officer's successor is automatically substituted as a party. Proceedings after the substitution are to be in the name of the substituted party, but any misnomer that does not affect the parties' substantial rights may be disregarded. An order of substitution may be entered at any time, but failure to enter an order does not affect the substitution.

Committee Note

Rule 8023.1 is derived from Fed. R. App. P. 43 and governs substitution of parties upon death or for any other reason in appeals to the district court or bankruptcy appellate panel from a judgment, order or decree of a bankruptcy court.

Rule 9006. Computing and Extending Time; Motions

* * * * *

(b) Extending Time.

* * * * *

- (3) Extensions Governed by Other Rules. The court may extend the time to:

* * * * *

- (B) file the certificate required by Rule 1007(b)(7), and the schedules and statements in a small business case under § 1116(3)—but only as permitted by Rule 1007(c).

(c) Reducing Time.

* * * * *

- (2) When Not Permitted. The court may not reduce the time to act under Rule 2002(a)(7), 2003(a), 3002(c), 3014, 3015, 4001(b)(2) or (c)(2), 4003(a), 4004(a), 4007(c), 4008(a), 8002, or 9033(b). Also, the court may not reduce the time set by Rule 1007(c) to file the certificate required by Rule 1007(b)(7).

Additionally, the following substantive changes have been made.

The amendments to Rule 9006(b)(3)(B) and (c)(2) reflect the amendment to Rule 1007(b)(7) that replaces the requirement for submission of a statement showing that the debtor has completed a course on personal financial management with the requirement that the debtor provide the certificate of course completion issued by the approved provider of that course.

Committee Note

The Bankruptcy Rules are the fifth set of national procedural rules to be restyled. The restyled Rules of Appellate Procedure took effect in 1998. The restyled Rules of Criminal Procedure took effect in 2002. The restyled Rules of Civil Procedure took effect in 2007. The restyled Rules of Evidence took effect in 2011. The restyled Bankruptcy Rules apply the same general drafting guidelines and principles used in restyling the Appellate, Criminal, Civil, and Evidence Rules.

General Guidelines. Guidance in drafting, usage, and style was provided by Bryan A. Garner, Guidelines for Drafting and Editing Court Rules, Administrative Office of the United States Courts (1996) and Bryan A. Garner, Dictionary of Modern Legal Usage (2d ed. 1995). See also Joseph Kimble, Guiding Principles for Restyling the Civil Rules, in Preliminary Draft of Proposed Style Revision of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, at Mich. Bar J., Sept. 2005, at 56 and Mich. Bar J., Oct. 2005, at 52; Joseph Kimble, Lessons in Drafting from the New Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 12 Scribes J. Legal Writing 25 (2008-2009).

Formatting Changes. Many of the changes in the restyled Bankruptcy Rules result from using format to achieve clearer presentations. The rules are broken down into constituent parts, using progressively indented subparagraphs with headings and substituting vertical for horizontal lists.

“Hanging indents” are used throughout. These formatting changes make the structure of the rules graphic and make the restyled rules easier to read and understand even when the words are not changed.

Changes to Reduce Inconsistent, Ambiguous, Redundant, Repetitive, or Archaic Words. The restyled rules reduce the use of inconsistent terms that say the same thing in different ways. Because different words are presumed to have different meanings, such inconsistencies can result in confusion. The restyled rules reduce inconsistencies by using the same words to express the same meaning. The restyled rules also minimize the use of inherently ambiguous words. The restyled rules minimize the use of redundant “intensifiers.” These are expressions that attempt to add emphasis, but instead state the obvious and create negative implications for other rules. The absence of intensifiers in the restyled rules does not change their substantive meaning. The restyled rules also remove words and concepts that are outdated or redundant.

Rule Numbers. The restyled rules keep the same numbers to minimize the effect on research. Subdivisions have been rearranged within some rules to achieve greater clarity and simplicity.

No Substantive Change. The style changes to the rules are intended to make no changes in substantive meaning. The Committee made special efforts to reject any purported style improvement that might result in a substantive change in the application of a rule. The Committee also declined to modify “sacred phrases”—those that have become so familiar in practice that to alter them would be unduly disruptive to practice and expectations. An example in the Bankruptcy Rules would be “meeting of creditors.”

Legislative Rules. In those cases in which Congress enacted a rule by statute, in particular Rule 2002(n) (Bankruptcy Amendments and Federal Judgeship Act of 1984, Pub. L. No. 98-353, 98 Stat. 333, 357), Rule 3001(g) (98 Stat. at 361), and Rule 7004(b) and (h) (Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1994, Pub. L. No. 103-394, 108 Stat. 4106, 4118), the Committee has not restyled the rule.

Committee Note

The language of most provisions in Rule 2002 have been amended as part of the general restyling of the Bankruptcy Rules to make them more easily understood and to make style and terminology consistent throughout the rules. These changes are intended to be stylistic only. In (f) the phrase “or some other person as the court may direct” has not been restyled because it was enacted by Congress, P.L. 98-91, 97 Stat. 607, § 2 (1983). Rule 2002(n) has not been restyled because it was also enacted by Congress, P.L. 98-353, 98 Stat. 357, § 114 (1984). That subsection was erroneously redesignated as subdivision (o) in 2008, and amended to modify its time period from 20 to 21 days in 2009. Because the Bankruptcy Rules Enabling Act, 28 U.S.C. § 2075, provides no authority to modify statutory language, the subdivision is now returned to the language used by Congress.

Rule 3002. Filing Proof of Claim or Interest	Rule 3002. Filing a Proof of Claim or Interest
(a) NECESSITY FOR FILING. A secured creditor, unsecured creditor, or equity security holder must file a proof of claim or interest for the claim or interest to be allowed, except as provided in Rules 1019(3), 3003, 3004, and 3005. A lien that secures a claim against the debtor is not void due only to the failure of any entity to file a proof of claim.	(a) Need to File. Unless Rule 1019(c), 3003, 3004, or 3005 provides otherwise, every creditor must file a proof of claim—and an equity security holder must file a proof of interest—for the claim or interest to be allowed. A lien that secures a claim is not void solely because an entity failed to file a proof of claim.
(b) PLACE OF FILING. A proof of claim or interest shall be filed in accordance with Rule 5005.	(b) Where to File. The proof of claim or interest must be filed in the district where the case is pending and in accordance with Rule 5005.
(c) TIME FOR FILING. In a voluntary chapter 7 case, chapter 12 case, or chapter 13 case, a proof of claim is timely filed if it is filed not later than 70 days after the order for relief under that chapter or the date of the order of conversion to a case under chapter 12 or chapter 13. In an involuntary chapter 7 case, a proof of claim is timely filed if it is filed not later than 90 days after the order for relief under that chapter is entered. But in all these cases, the following exceptions apply: (1) A proof of claim filed by a governmental unit, other than for a claim resulting from a tax return filed under § 1308, is timely filed if it is filed not later than 180 days after the date of the order for relief. (b) Objections; Time to File. (1) Time to File. Within 14 days after being served, a party may file and serve objections. They must identify each proposed finding or conclusion objected to and state the grounds for objecting. A party may respond to another party's objections within 14 days after being served with a copy. (2) Ordering a Transcript. Unless the district judge orders otherwise, a party filing objections must promptly order a transcript of the record, or the parts of it that all parties agree are—or the bankruptcy judge considers to be—sufficient.
(c) EXTENSION OF TIME. The bankruptcy judge may for cause extend the time for filing objections by any party for a period not to exceed 21 days from the expiration of the time otherwise prescribed by this rule. A request to extend the time for filing objections must be made before the time for filing objections has expired, except that a request made no more than 21 days after the expiration of the time for filing objections may be granted upon a showing of excusable neglect.	(3) Extending the Time. On request made before the time to file objections expires, the bankruptcy judge may, for cause, extend any party's time to file for no more than 21 days after the time otherwise expires. But a request made within 21 days after that time expires may be granted upon a showing of excusable neglect.

The language of Rule 1007 has been amended as part of the general restyling of the Bankruptcy Rules to make them more easily understood and to make style and terminology consistent throughout the rules. These changes are intended to be stylistic only.

Additionally, the following substantive changes have been made.

Rule 1007(b)(7) is amended in two ways. First, language is added to make the rule inapplicable to debtors who are not required to complete an instructional course concerning personal financial management as a condition to discharge. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 727(a)(11), 1328(g)(2), 1141(d)(3)(C). Second, the rule is amended to require an individual debtor who has completed an instructional course concerning personal financial management to file the certificate of course completion (often called a Certificate of Debtor Education) issued by the approved provider of that course in lieu of filing an Official Form, if the provider has not notified the court that the debtor has completed the course.

Paragraph (a) is amended to create an exception for certain turnover proceedings under § 542(a) of the Code. An individual debtor may need to obtain the prompt return from a third party of tangible personal property—such as an automobile or tools of the trade—in order to produce income to fund a plan or to regain the use of property that may be exempted. As noted by Justice Sotomayor in her concurrence in City of Chicago v. Fulton, 141 S. Ct. 585, 592-95 (2021), the more formal procedures applicable to adversary proceedings can be too time-consuming in such a situation. Instead, the debtor can now proceed by motion to require turnover of such property under § 542(a), and the procedures of Rule 9014 will apply. In an appropriate case, however, Rule 9014(c) allows the court to order that additional provisions of Part VII of the rules will apply to the matter.

6 is pending on appeal in the district
7 court or BAP, the decedent's personal
8 representative may be substituted as a 9 party on motion filed with that court's 10 clerk by the representative or by any 11 party. A party's motion must be 12 served on the representative in 13 accordance with Rule 8011. If the 14 decedent has no representative, any 15 party may suggest the death on the 16 record, and the appellate court may 17 then direct appropriate proceedings.

18 (2) Before a Notice of Appeal Is Filed—
19 Potential Appellant. If a party
20 entitled to appeal dies before filing a 21 notice of appeal, the decedent's
22 personal representative—or, if there 23 is no personal representative, the 24 decedent's attorney of record—may 25 file a notice of appeal within the time
26 prescribed by these rules. After the 27 notice of appeal is filed, substitution
28 must be in accordance with (1).

29 (3) Before a Notice of Appeal Is Filed—
30 Potential Appellee. If a party against 31 whom an appeal may be taken dies
32 after entry of a judgment or order in 33 the bankruptcy court, but before a 34 notice of appeal is filed, an appellant
35 may proceed as if the death had not

36 occurred. After the notice of appeal is 37 filed, substitution must be in 38 accordance with (1).

39 (b) Substitution for a Reason Other Than Death. If a 40 party needs to be substituted for any reason other 41 than death, the procedure prescribed in (a) applies.

42 (c) Public Officer: Identification; Substitution.

43 (1) Identification of a Party. A public 44 officer who is a party to an appeal or 45 other proceeding in an official
46 capacity may be described as a party
47 by the public officer's official title
48 rather than by name. But the appellate 49 court may require the public officer's
50 name to be added.

51 (2) Automatic Substitution of an
52 Officeholder. When a public officer
53 who is a party to an appeal or other

54 proceeding in an official capacity
55 dies, resigns, or otherwise ceases to 56 hold office, the action does not abate.
57 Subject to Rule 2012, the public
58 officer's successor is automatically
59 substituted as a party. Proceedings
60 after the substitution are to be in the 61 name of the substituted party, but any 62 misnomer that does not affect the 63 parties' substantial rights may be 64 disregarded. An order of substitution
65 may be entered at any time, but 66 failure to enter an order does not 67 affect the substitution.

Committee Note

Rule 8023.1 is derived from Fed. R. App. P. 43 and governs substitution of parties upon death or for any other reason in appeals to the district court or bankruptcy appellate panel from a judgment, order or decree of a bankruptcy court.

Committee Note

The language of Rule 9006 has been amended as part of the general restyling of the Bankruptcy Rules to make them more easily understood and to make style and terminology consistent throughout the rules. These changes are intended to be stylistic only.

Additionally, the following substantive changes have been made.

The amendments to Rule 9006(b)(3)(B) and (c)(2) reflect the amendment to Rule 1007(b)(7) that replaces the requirement for submission of a statement showing that the debtor has completed a course on personal financial management with the requirement that the debtor provide the certificate of course completion issued by the approved provider of that course.

three sets: the 1000–2000 series of rules were published in August 2020, the 3000–6000 series in August 2021, and the final set, the 7000–9000 series, in August 2022. After each publication period, the Advisory Committee on Bankruptcy Rules carefully considered the comments received and made recommendations for final approval based on the same general drafting guidelines and principles used in restyling the Appellate, Criminal, Civil, and Evidence Rules, as outlined below. The Restyled Bankruptcy Rules as a whole, including the revisions based on public comments and a final, comprehensive review, are now being recommended for final approval.

General Guidelines. Guidance in drafting, usage, and style was provided by Bryan A. Garner, Guidelines for Drafting and Editing Court Rules, Administrative Office of the United States Courts (1996), and Bryan A. Garner, Dictionary of Modern Legal Usage (2d ed. 1995). See also Joseph Kimble, Guiding Principles for Restyling the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Mich. Bar J., Sept. 2005, at 56 and Mich. Bar J., Oct. 2005, at 52; Joseph Kimble, Lessons in Drafting from the New Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, 12 Scribes J. Legal Writing 25 (2008-2009).

Formatting Changes. Many of the changes in the restyled Bankruptcy Rules result from using consistent formatting to achieve clearer presentations. The rules are broken down into constituent parts, using progressively indented subparagraphs with headings and substituting vertical for horizontal lists. “Hanging indents” are used throughout. These formatting changes make the structure of the rules clearer and make the restyled rules easier to read and understand even when the words are not changed.

Changes to Reduce Inconsistent, Ambiguous, Redundant, Repetitive, or Archaic Words. The restyled rules reduce the use of inconsistent terms that say the same thing in different ways. Because different words are presumed to have different meanings, such inconsistencies can result in confusion. The restyled rules reduce inconsistencies by using the same words to express the same meaning. The restyled rules also minimize the use of inherently ambiguous words, as well as redundant “intensifiers”—expressions that attempt to add emphasis but instead state the obvious and create negative implications for other rules. The absence of intensifiers in the restyled rules does not change their substantive meaning. The restyled rules also remove words and concepts that are outdated or redundant.

Excerpt from the September 2023 Report of the Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure

Rule Numbers. The restyled rules keep the same numbers to minimize the effect on research. Subdivisions have been rearranged within some rules to achieve greater clarity and simplicity.

No Substantive Change. The style changes to the rules are intended to make no changes in substantive meaning. The Advisory Committee made special efforts to reject any purported style improvement that might result in a substantive change in the application of a rule. The Advisory Committee also declined to modify “sacred phrases”—those that have become so familiar in practice that to alter them would be unduly disruptive to practice and expectations. One example is “meeting of creditors,” a term that is widely used and well understood in bankruptcy practice.

Rules Enacted by Congress. Where Congress has enacted a rule by statute, in particular Rule 2002(n) (Bankruptcy Amendments and Federal Judgeship Act of 1984, Pub. L. No. 98-353, 98 Stat. 333, 357), Rule 3001(g) (Bankruptcy Amendments and Federal Judgeship Act of 1984, Pub. L. No. 98-353, 98 Stat. 333, 361), and Rule 7004(b) and (h) (Bankruptcy Reform Act of 1994, Pub. L. No. 103-394, 108 Stat. 4106, 4118), the Advisory Committee has not restyled the rule.

Excerpt from the September 2023 Report of the Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure

Amendments to Rule 1007 (Lists, Schedules, Statements, and Other Documents; Time Limits), related amendments to Rules 4004 (Grant or Denial of Discharge), 5009 (Closing Chapter 7, Chapter 12, Chapter 13, and Chapter 15 Cases; Order Declaring Lien Satisfied), and 9006 (Computing and Extending Time; Time for Motion Papers), and abrogation of Official Form 423 (Certification About a Financial Management Course)

The amendments to Rule 1007(b)(7) delete the directive to file a statement on Official Form 423 (Certification About a Financial Management Course) and make filing the course certificate itself the exclusive means showing that the debtor has taken a postpetition course in personal financial management. References in other parts of Rule 1007 and in Rules 4004, 5009, and 9006 to the “statement” required by Rule 1007(b)(7) are changed to refer to a “certificate.” Because Official Form 423 is no longer necessary, the Advisory Committee recommends that it be abrogated.

Rule 7001 (Scope of Rules of Part VII)

The amendment to Rule 7001(a) creates an exception for certain turnover proceedings under § 542(a) of the Code. An individual debtor may need an order requiring the prompt return by a third party of tangible personal property—such as an automobile or tools of the trade—in order to produce income to fund a plan or to regain the use of exempt property. As noted by Justice Sonia Sotomayor in her concurrence in City of Chicago v. Fulton, 141 S. Ct. 585, 592–95 (2021), the procedures applicable to adversary proceedings can be unnecessarily time-consuming in such a situation. Instead, the proposed amendment allows the debtor to seek turnover of such property by motion under § 542(a), and the procedures of Rule 9014 would apply.³

Rule 8023.1 (Substitution of Parties)

New Rule 8023.1 is modeled on Appellate Rule 43. Neither Appellate Rule 43 nor Civil Rule 25 applies to parties in bankruptcy appeals to the district court or bankruptcy appellate ³As noted by Justice Sotomayor, “Because adversary proceedings require more process, they take more time. Of the turnover proceedings filed after July 2019 and concluding before June 2020, the average case was pending for over 100 days [citation omitted]. One hundred days is a long time to wait panel. This new rule is intended to fill that gap by providing consistent rules (in connection with such appeals) for the substitution of parties upon death or for any other reason.

RE: Report of the Advisory Committee on Bankruptcy Rules

DATE: May 17, 2023

I. Introduction

The Advisory Committee on Bankruptcy Rules met in West Palm Beach, Florida, on March 30, 2023. Two Committee members were unable to attend; the rest of the Committee met in person. * * *

At the meeting, the Advisory Committee gave its final approval to rule and form amendments that were published for comment last August. They consist of (1) the restyled Bankruptcy Rules; (2) amendments to Rule 1007(b)(7) (Schedules, Statements, and Other Documents Required) and conforming amendments to six other rules; (3) an amendment to Rule 7001 (Types of Adversary Proceedings); (4) new Rule 8023.1 (Substitution of Parties); and * * *

Part II of this report presents those action items and is organized as follows:

- A. Items for Final Approval
- The restyled Bankruptcy Rules;
 - Rule 1007; conforming amendments to Rules 4004, 5009, 9006; and abrogation of Official Form 423;
 - Rule 7001;
 - Rule 8023.1; and
 - Official Form 410A.

II. Action Items

A. Items for Final Approval

The Advisory Committee recommends that the Standing Committee approve the proposed rule and form amendments that were published for public comment in 2022 and are discussed below. Bankruptcy Appendix A includes the rules and the form that are in this group.

Action Item 1. The Restyled Bankruptcy Rules. This submission marks the culmination of the Advisory Committee’s Restyling Project. Parts I and II of the restyled Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure were given approval after publication by the Advisory Committee in March 2021 and by the Standing Committee in June 2021. Parts III–VI were given approval after publication by the Advisory Committee in March 2022 and by the Standing Committee in June 2022. Parts VII–IX were given final approval after publication by the Advisory Committee in March 2023 and are being presented for final approval by the Standing Committee at this meeting.

Since they were approved, Parts I–VI have been modified in minor respects for three reasons:

- there have been substantive amendments made to the existing Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure that needed to be reflected in the restyled versions of those rules;
- the style consultants did a “top-to-bottom” review of all the rules and made additional stylistic and conforming changes; and
- in reviewing the proposed changes of the style consultants, the Restyling Subcommittee suggested its own additional corrections and minor changes, which the Advisory Committee approved.

A copy of Parts I–VI showing changes from the versions that were previously approved is included in the appendix to this report.

Excerpt from the May 17, 2023, Report of the Advisory Committee on Bankruptcy Rules

With respect to Parts VII–IX, extensive comments were submitted on the restyled rules from the National Bankruptcy Conference, and comments were also submitted by several others. After discussion with the style consultants and consideration by the Restyling Subcommittee, the Advisory Committee incorporated some of those suggested changes into the revised rules and rejected others. Comments and changes since publication are noted on the restyled rules in the appendix to this report.

Action Item 2. Rules 1007 (Lists, Schedules, Statements, and Other Documents; Time to File), 4004 (Granting or Denying a Discharge), 5009(b) (Closing a Chapter 7, 12, 13, or 15 Case; Declaring Liens Satisfied), 9006 (Computing and Extending Time; Motions), and the Abrogation of Official Form 423 (Certification About a Financial Management Course).

Bankruptcy Code § 727(a)(11) provides, subject to limited exceptions, that a debtor will not receive a discharge if “after filing the petition, the debtor failed to complete an [approved] instructional course concerning personal financial management.” This restriction applies to individual debtors in chapter 7, in certain chapter 11 cases (see § 1141(d)(3)), and in chapter 13 (see § 1328(g)(1)). The amendment to Rule 1007(b)(7) would eliminate the requirement that the debtor file a statement on Official Form 423 to certify satisfaction of this requirement. Instead, it would require the filing of the certificate of course completion provided by the approved course provider. The amendments would also eliminate the requirement that a debtor who has been excused from taking such a course file Official Form 423, indicating the court’s waiver of the requirement. The form would be abrogated, and references in Rules 1007, 4004, 5009, and 9006 that refer to the “statement” described in current Rule 1007(b)(7) would be amended to refer to a “certificate.”

There were no comments on the proposed amendments, and the Advisory Committee approved them as published.

Action Item 3. Rule 7001 (Types of Adversary Proceedings). In August 2022 the Standing Committee published a proposed amendment to Rule 7001 that would allow the turnover of certain estate property to be sought by motion rather than by adversary proceeding. The original suggestion for an amendment was prompted by Justice Sotomayor’s concurring opinion in City of Chicago v. Fulton, 141 S. Ct. 585, 595 (2021), in which she wrote that “[i]t is up to the Advisory Committee on Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure to consider amendments to the Rules that ensure prompt resolution of debtors’ requests for turnover under § 542(a), especially where debtors’ vehicles are concerned.” The proposed amendment would add an exception to Rule 7001(a)’s general requirement that the recovery of money or property be sought by adversary proceeding. It would allow a debtor to proceed by motion to require the turnover of tangible personal property under § 542(a), thereby permitting a swifter resolution of the matter.

Only one comment on the proposed amendment was submitted in response to publication. Bonial & Associates, P.C., a creditor law firm, wrote that it supported the amendment because it “will streamline the turnover process and should create consistency nationally.” The comment noted the inconsistencies in current turnover practices from one district to another and stated that

“[c]reditors would benefit from one national and consistent approach to turnovers across all jurisdictions.”

The Advisory Committee approved the amendment to Rule 7001 as published.

Action Item 4. New Rule 8023.1 (Substitution of Parties). Rule 8023.1 deals with the substitution of parties in the appeal of a bankruptcy case to a district court or a bankruptcy appellate panel. Bankruptcy Rule 7025, Fed. R. Civ. P. 25, and Fed. R. App. P. 43 do not apply to such appeals, and the new rule is intended to fill that gap. It is modeled on Fed. R. App. P. 43.

No comments were submitted on the proposed new rule. The Advisory Committee approved it with changes suggested by the style consultants.

FEDERAL RULES OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Rule Recommended for Approval and Transmission

The Advisory Committee on Civil Rules recommended for final approval proposed amendments to Civil Rule 12(a). The Standing Committee unanimously approved the Advisory Committee's recommendation.

Rule 12 (Defenses and Objections: When and How Presented; Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings; Consolidating Motions; Waiving Defenses; Pretrial Hearing)

Rule 12(a) prescribes the time to serve responsive pleadings. Paragraph (1) provides the general response time, but recognizes that a federal statute setting a different time governs. In contrast, neither paragraph (2) (which sets a 60-day response time for the United States, its agencies, and its officers or employees sued in an official capacity) nor paragraph (3) (which sets a 60-day response time for United States officers or employees sued in an individual capacity for acts or omissions in connection with federal duties) recognizes the possibility of conflicting statutory response times.

NOTICE

UNLESS APPROVED BY THE CONFERENCE ITSELF.

Excerpt from the September 2023 Report of the Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure

The current language could be read to suggest unintended preemption of statutory time directives. While it is not clear whether any statutes inconsistent with paragraph (3) exist, there are statutes setting shorter times than the 60 days provided by paragraph (2); one example is the Freedom of Information Act. The current rule fails to reflect the Advisory Committee’s intent to defer to different response times set by statute. Thus, the current language could be mistakenly interpreted as a deliberate choice by the Advisory Committee that the response times set in paragraphs (2) and (3) are intended to supersede inconsistent statutory provisions, especially because paragraph (1) includes specific language deferring to different periods established by statute.

The Advisory Committee determined that an amendment to Rule 12(a) is necessary to explicitly extend to paragraphs (2) and (3) the recognition now set forth in paragraph (1)---namely, that a different response time set by statute supersedes the response times set by those rules. After public comment, the Advisory Committee recommended final approval of the rule as published.

Recommendation: That the Judicial Conference approve the proposed amendment to Civil Rule 12(a), as set forth in Appendix C, and transmit it to the Supreme Court for consideration with a recommendation that it be adopted by the Court and transmitted to Congress in accordance with the law.

RE: Report of the Advisory Committee on Civil Rules

DATE: May 11, 2023

Introduction

The Civil Rules Advisory Committee met in West Palm Beach, FL, on March 28, 2023. Members of the public attended in person, and public on-line attendance was also provided. * * *

Part I of this report presents three items for action at this meeting:

(a) Rule 12(a) amendment for final approval: A small amendment to Rule 12(a) was published for public comment in August 2022. Only three comments were received. The Advisory Committee recommends approving this amendment and forwarding it to the Judicial Conference.

* * * * *

I. Action Items

A. For final approval: Amendment to Rule 12(a)

In August 2022, a preliminary draft of a proposed amendment to Rule 12(a) was published for public comment. The stimulus was principally that some litigants encountered difficulties obtaining summonses in FOIA cases that called for responsive pleadings within the statutory 30-day deadline because it was not clear that a federal statute prescribing a different time would apply to the United States under Rules 12(a)(2) and 12(a)(3). To avoid unintended preemption of such statutory time directives, the invocation of federal statutes was moved up to apply to the whole of Rule 12(a), as follows:

Rule 12. Defenses and Objections: When and How Presented; Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings; Consolidating Motions; Waiving Defenses; Pretrial Hearing

(a) Time to Serve a Responsive Pleading. ~~(1) In General.~~ Unless another time is specified by ~~this rule~~ or a federal statute, the time for serving a responsive pleading is as follows:

(1) In General.

(A) A defendant must serve an answer:

* * * * *

Committee Note

Rule 12 is amended to make it clear that a federal statute that specifies another time supersedes the times to serve a responsive pleading set by paragraphs (a)(2) and (3). Paragraph (a)(1) incorporates this provision, but the structure of subdivision (a) does not seem to extend it to paragraphs (2) and (3). There is no reason to supersede an inconsistent statute by any part of Rule 12(a). The amended structure recognizes the priority of any statute for all of paragraphs (1), (2), and (3).

* * * * *

Only three comments were received, and they are summarized below. One supports the proposed amendment, citing the potential problem in FOIA cases. Another is from Andrew Straw, who also has submitted a proposal to amend Rule 11 (discussed below), seemingly objecting to something that happened in a case between him and the state of Indiana.

The third comment is from the Federal Magistrate Judges Association (FMJA). The FMJA recognizes that the amendment clarifies that the response times specified in the rule may be superseded by a federal statute even in cases in which the United States is a party.

The FMJA suggested, however, that there should be some recognition that other federal rules, including various Supplemental Rules, may have response provisions inconsistent with Rule

Excerpt from the May 11, 2023, Report of the Advisory Committee on Civil Rules

12(a). It therefore proposes that the amendment “restore” language stricken in the published preliminary draft as follows:

Unless another time is specified by these rules or a federal statute, the time for serving a responsive pleading is as follows:

This addition might do no harm, but does not seem to serve an important purpose. The FMJA submission does not cite any such rule, but instead says some such rules “might also” contain divergent response times, and that they are “potentially conflicting” rules. Yet the only such rule that has been called to our attention is Rule 15, and the current rule did not exclude it, so there does not appear to be a problem on this account. Some little-known federal statutes (in addition to the FOIA) were mentioned when the rule change was under discussion, and the amended rule would deal with them.

Moreover, this change would go beyond “restoring” the stricken language, which referred only to a different time specified by “this rule.”

At its March 2023 meeting, the Advisory Committee voted to seek final approval of this amendment.

Summary of Comments on Rule 12(a) Amendment

Andrew Straw (CV-2022-0003-0003): “Rule 12 has been disregarded to favor the State of Indiana and its Attorney General. A deputy AG asked for more time to file a motion to dismiss on day 29 after service and the trial judge allowed it even with the lie that 29 days was still timely. When I objected to the 7th Circuit, I was slapped with a $500 fine and a ban on using any federal court for 2 years. This represents a COURT CLOSURE to hide and protect violations of Rule 12(a). Straw v. Indiana Supreme Court, 18-2878 (7th Cir. 2018).”

Federal Magistrate Judges Association (CV-2022-0003-0006): The amendment clarifies that the response times fixed by Rule 12 may be superseded by statute even in cases where the United States is a party. The current rule does not recognize that possibility. But other rules may contain response provisions that are inconsistent with Rule 12, so the rule could be amended to read: “Unless another time is specified by these rules or a federal statute, the time for serving a responsive pleading is as follows:”

Anonymous (CV-2022-0003-0007): I support the proposed amendment. The FOIA gives federal agencies 30 days to respond, which should supersede the 60 days provided in Rule 12(a)(2). I have had a court clerk issue a 60-day summons even though the statute provides a 30-day time limit. Part of the problem may be the standard A.O. form used by courts to issue a summons. That form says the U.S. has 60 days to respond, but does not note that there may be a different time limit.

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS TO THE

Rule 107. Illustrative Aids

- (a) Permitted Uses. The court may allow a party to present an illustrative aid to help the trier of fact understand the evidence or argument if the aid's utility in assisting comprehension is not substantially outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice, confusing the issues, misleading the jury, undue delay, or wasting time.
- (b) Use in Jury Deliberations. An illustrative aid is not evidence and must not be provided to the jury during deliberations unless:
- (1) all parties consent; or
 - (2) the court, for good cause, orders otherwise.
- (c) Record. When practicable, an illustrative aid used at trial must be entered into the record.

- (d) Summaries of Voluminous Materials Admitted as Evidence. A summary, chart, or calculation admitted as evidence to prove the content of voluminous admissible evidence is governed by Rule 1006.

Committee Note

The amendment establishes a new Rule 107 to provide standards for the use of illustrative aids. The new rule is derived from Maine Rule of Evidence 616. The term “illustrative aid” is used instead of the term “demonstrative evidence,” as that latter term has been subject to differing interpretation in the courts. An illustrative aid is any presentation offered not as evidence but rather to assist the trier of fact in understanding evidence or argument. “Demonstrative evidence” is a term better applied to substantive evidence offered to prove, by demonstration, a disputed fact.

Writings, objects, charts, or other presentations that are used during the trial to provide information to the trier of fact thus fall into two categories. The first category is evidence that is offered to prove a disputed fact; admissibility of such evidence is dependent upon satisfying the strictures of Rule 403, the hearsay rule, and other evidentiary screens. Usually the jury is permitted to take this substantive evidence to the jury room during deliberations and use it to help determine the disputed facts.

The second category—the category covered by this rule—is information offered for the narrow purpose of helping the trier of fact to understand what is being communicated to them by the witness or party presenting evidence or argument. Examples may include drawings, photos, diagrams, video depictions, charts, graphs, and computer simulations. These kinds of presentations, referred to in this rule as “illustrative aids,” have also been described as “pedagogical devices” and sometimes (and less helpfully) “demonstrative presentations”—that latter term being unhelpful because the purpose for presenting the information is not to “demonstrate” how an event occurred but rather to help the trier of fact understand evidence or argument that is being or has been presented.

A similar distinction must be drawn between a summary of voluminous admissible evidence offered to prove a fact, and a summary of evidence that is offered solely to assist the trier of fact in understanding the evidence. The former is subject to the strictures of Rule 1006. The latter is an illustrative aid, which the courts have previously regulated pursuant to the broad standards of Rule 611(a), and which is now to be regulated by the more particularized requirements of this Rule 107.

While an illustrative aid is by definition not offered to prove a fact in dispute, this does not mean that it is free from regulation by the court. It is possible that the illustrative aid may be prepared to distort or oversimplify the evidence presented, or stoke unfair prejudice. This rule requires the court to assess the value of the illustrative aid in assisting the trier of fact to understand the evidence or argument. Cf. Fed. R. Evid. 703; see Adv. Comm. Note to the 2000 amendment to Rule 703. Against that beneficial effect, the court must weigh most of the dangers that courts take into account in balancing evidence offered to prove a fact under Rule 403—one particular problem being that the illustrative aid might appear to be substantive evidence of a disputed event. If those dangers substantially outweigh the value of the aid in assisting the trier of fact, the trial court should prohibit the use of—or order the modification of—the illustrative aid. And if the court does allow the aid to be presented at a jury trial, the adverse party may ask to have the jury instructed about the limited purpose for which the illustrative aid may be used. Cf. Rule 105.

The intent of the rule is to clarify the distinction between substantive evidence and illustrative aids, and to provide the court with a balancing test specifically directed toward the use of illustrative aids. Illustrative aids can be critically important in helping the trier of fact understand the evidence or argument.

Many courts require advance disclosure of illustrative aids, as a means of safeguarding and regulating their use. Ordinary discovery procedures concentrate on the evidence that will be presented at trial, so illustrative aids are not usually subject to discovery. Their sudden appearance may not give sufficient opportunity for analysis by other parties, particularly if they are complex. That said, there is a wide variety of illustrative aids, and a wide variety of circumstances under which they might be used. In addition, in some cases, advance disclosure may improperly preview witness examination or attorney argument. The amendment therefore leaves it to trial judges to decide whether, when, and how to require advance notice of an illustrative aid.

Because an illustrative aid is not offered to prove a fact in dispute and is used only in accompaniment with presentation of evidence or argument, the amendment provides that illustrative aids are not to go to the jury room unless all parties consent or the court, for good cause, orders otherwise. The Committee determined that allowing the jury to use the aid in deliberations, free of the constraint of accompaniment with witness testimony or party presentation, runs the risk that the jury may unduly emphasize the testimony of a witness with whom it was used, or otherwise misinterpret the import, usefulness, and purpose of the illustrative aid. But the Committee concluded that trial courts should have some discretion to allow the jury to consider an illustrative aid during deliberations.

If the court does allow the jury to review the illustrative aid during deliberations, the court must upon request instruct the jury that the illustrative aid is not evidence and cannot be considered as proof of any fact.

This rule is intended to govern the use of an illustrative aid at any point in the trial, including in opening statement and closing argument.

While an illustrative aid is not evidence, if it is used at trial it must be marked as an exhibit and made part of the record, unless that is impracticable under the circumstances.

Rule 613. Witness's Prior Statement

* * * * *

(b) Extrinsic Evidence of a Prior Inconsistent Statement. Unless the court orders otherwise, extrinsic evidence of a witness's prior inconsistent statement may not be admitted until after the witness is given an opportunity to explain or deny the statement and an adverse party is given an opportunity to examine the witness about it. This subdivision (b) does not apply to an opposing party's statement under Rule 801(d)(2).

Committee Note

Rule 613(b) has been amended to require that a witness receive an opportunity to explain or deny a prior inconsistent statement before the introduction of extrinsic evidence of the statement. This requirement of a prior foundation is consistent with the common law approach to impeachment with prior inconsistent statements. See, e.g., Wammock v. Celotex Corp., 793 F.2d 1518, 1521 (11th Cir. 1986) ("Traditionally, prior inconsistent statements of a witness could not be proved by extrinsic evidence unless and until the witness was first confronted with the impeaching statement."). The existing rule imposes no timing preference or sequence and thus permits an impeaching party to introduce extrinsic evidence of a witness's prior inconsistent statement before giving the witness the necessary opportunity to explain or deny it. This flexible timing can create problems concerning the witness's availability to be recalled, and lead to disputes about which party bears responsibility for recalling the witness to afford the opportunity to explain or deny. Further, recalling a witness solely to afford the requisite opportunity to explain or deny a prior inconsistent statement may be inefficient. Finally, trial judges may find extrinsic evidence of a prior inconsistent statement unnecessary in some circumstances where a witness freely acknowledges the inconsistency when afforded an opportunity to explain or deny. Affording the witness an opportunity to explain or deny a prior inconsistent statement before introducing extrinsic evidence of the statement avoids these difficulties. The prior foundation requirement gives the target of the impeaching evidence a timely opportunity to explain or deny the alleged inconsistency; promotes judges' efforts to conduct trials in an orderly manner; and conserves judicial resources.

The amendment preserves the trial court's discretion to delay an opportunity to explain or deny until after the introduction of extrinsic evidence in appropriate cases, or to dispense with the requirement altogether. A trial judge may decide to delay or even forgo a witness's opportunity to explain or deny a prior inconsistent statement in certain circumstances, such as when the failure to afford the prior opportunity was inadvertent and the witness may be afforded a subsequent opportunity, or when a prior opportunity was impossible because the witness's statement was not discovered until after the witness testified.

Rule 801. Definitions That Apply to This Article; Exclusions from Hearsay

* * * * *

(d) Statements That Are Not Hearsay. A statement that meets the following conditions is not hearsay:

* * * * *

(2) An Opposing Party's Statement. The statement is offered against an opposing party and:

- (A) was made by the party in an individual or representative capacity;
- (B) is one the party manifested that it adopted or believed to be true;
- (C) was made by a person whom the party authorized to make a statement on the subject;
- (D) was made by the party's agent or employee on a matter within the scope of that relationship and while it existed; or

(E) was made by the party's coconspirator during and in furtherance of the conspiracy.

The statement must be considered but does not by itself establish the declarant's authority under (C); the existence or scope of the relationship under (D); or the existence of the conspiracy or participation in it under (E).

If a party's claim, defense, or potential liability is directly derived from a declarant or the declarant's principal, a statement that would be admissible against the declarant or the principal under this rule is also admissible against the party.

Committee Note

The rule has been amended to provide that when a party stands in the shoes of a declarant or the declarant's

principal, hearsay statements made by the declarant or principal are admissible against the party. For example, if an estate is bringing a claim for damages suffered by the decedent, any hearsay statement that would have been admitted against the decedent as a party-opponent under this rule is equally admissible against the estate. Other relationships that would support this attribution include assignor/assignee and debtor/trustee when the trustee is pursuing the debtor's claims. The rule is justified because if the party is standing in the shoes of the declarant or the principal, the party should not be placed in a better position as to the admissibility of hearsay than the declarant or the principal would have been. A party that derives its interest from a declarant or principal is ordinarily subject to all the substantive limitations applicable to them, so it follows that the party should be bound by the same evidence rules as well.

Reference to the declarant's principal is necessary because the statement may have been made by the agent of the person or entity whose rights or obligations have been succeeded to by the party against whom the statement is offered. The rule does not apply, however, if the statement is admissible against the agent but not against the principal—for example, if the statement was made by the agent after termination of employment. This is because the successor's potential liability is derived from the principal, not the agent.

The rationale of attribution does not apply, and so the hearsay statement would not be admissible, if the declarant makes the statement after the rights or obligations have been transferred, by contract or operation of law, to the party against whom the statement is offered.

Rule 804. Exceptions to the Rule Against Hearsay—
When the Declarant Is Unavailable as a Witness

* * * * *

(b) The Exceptions. * * *

(3) Statement Against Interest. A statement that:

(A) a reasonable person in the declarant's position would have made only if the person believed it to be true because, when made, it was so contrary to the declarant's proprietary or pecuniary interest or had so great a tendency to invalidate the declarant's claim against someone else or to expose the declarant to civil or criminal liability; and

(B) if offered in a criminal case as one that tends to expose the declarant to criminal liability, is supported by corroborating circumstances that clearly indicate its trustworthiness after considering the totality of circumstances under which it was made and any evidence that supports or undermines it.

* * * * *

Committee Note

Rule 804(b)(3)(B) has been amended to require that in assessing whether a statement is supported by “corroborating circumstances that clearly indicate its trustworthiness,” the court must consider not only the totality of the circumstances under which the statement was made, but also any evidence supporting or undermining it. While most courts have considered evidence independent of the statement, some courts have refused to do so. The rule now provides for a uniform approach and recognizes that the existence or absence of independent evidence supporting the statement is relevant to, but not necessarily dispositive of, whether a statement that tends to expose the declarant to criminal liability should be admissible under this exception when offered in a criminal case. A court evaluating the admissibility of a third-party confession to a crime, for example, must consider not only circumstances such as the timing and spontaneity of the statement and the third-party declarant’s likely motivations in making it. The court must also consider information, if any, supporting the statement, such as evidence placing the third party in the vicinity of the crime. Courts must also consider evidence that undermines the declarant's account.

Although it utilizes slightly different language to fit within the framework of Rule 804(b)(3), the amendment is consistent with the 2019 amendment to Rule 807 that requires courts to consider corroborating evidence in the trustworthiness inquiry under that provision. The amendment is also supported by the legislative history of the corroborating circumstances requirement in Rule 804(b)(3). See 1974 House Judiciary Committee Report on Rule 804(b)(3) (adding “corroborating circumstances clearly indicate the trustworthiness of the statement” language and noting that this standard would change the result in cases like Donnelly v. United States, 228 U.S. 243 (1913), that excluded a third-party confession exculpating the defendant despite the existence of independent evidence demonstrating the accuracy of the statement).

Rule 1006. Summaries to Prove Content

- (a) Summaries of Voluminous Materials Admissible as Evidence. The court may admit as evidence a summary, chart, or calculation offered to prove the content of voluminous admissible writings, recordings, or photographs that cannot be conveniently examined in court, whether or not they have been introduced into evidence.
- (b) Procedures. The proponent must make the underlying originals or duplicates available for examination or copying, or both, by other parties at a reasonable time and place. And the court may order the proponent to produce them in court.
- (c) Illustrative Aids Not Covered. A summary, chart, or calculation that functions only as an illustrative aid is governed by Rule 107.

Committee Note

Rule 1006 has been amended to correct misperceptions about the operation of the rule by some courts. Some courts have mistakenly held that a Rule 1006 summary is “not evidence” and that it must be accompanied by limiting instructions cautioning against its substantive use. But the purpose of Rule 1006 is to permit alternative proof of the content of writings, recordings, or photographs too voluminous to be conveniently examined in court. To serve their intended purpose, therefore, Rule 1006 summaries must be admitted as substantive evidence and the rule has been amended to clarify that a party may offer a Rule 1006 summary “as evidence.” The court may not instruct the jury that a summary admitted under this rule is not to be considered as evidence.

Rule 1006 has also been amended to clarify that a properly supported summary may be admitted into evidence whether or not the underlying voluminous materials reflected in the summary have been admitted. Some courts have mistakenly held that the underlying voluminous writings or recordings themselves must be admitted into evidence before a Rule 1006 summary may be used. Because Rule 1006 allows alternate proof of materials too voluminous to be conveniently examined during trial proceedings, admission of the underlying voluminous materials is not required and the amendment so states. Conversely, there are courts that deny resort to a properly supported Rule 1006 summary because the underlying writings or recordings—or a portion of them—have been admitted into evidence. Summaries that are otherwise admissible under Rule 1006 are not rendered inadmissible because the underlying documents have been admitted, in whole or in part, into evidence. In most cases, a Rule 1006 chart may be the only evidence the trier of fact will examine concerning a voluminous set of documents. In some instances, however, the summary may be admitted in addition to the underlying documents.

A summary admissible under Rule 1006 must also pass the balancing test of Rule 403. For example, if the summary does not accurately reflect the underlying voluminous evidence, or if it is argumentative, its probative value may be substantially outweighed by the risk of unfair prejudice or confusion.

Consistent with the original rule, the amendment requires that the proponent of a Rule 1006 summary make the underlying voluminous records available to other parties at a reasonable time and place. The trial judge has discretion in determining the reasonableness of the production in each case but must ensure that all parties have a fair opportunity to evaluate the summary. Cf. Fed. R. Evid. 404(b)(3) and 807(b).

Although Rule 1006 refers to materials too voluminous to be examined “in court” and permits the trial judge to order production of underlying materials “in court,” the rule applies to virtual proceedings just as it does to proceedings conducted in person in a courtroom.

The amendment draws a distinction between summaries of voluminous admissible information offered to prove a fact, and illustrations offered solely to assist the trier of fact in understanding the evidence. The former are subject to the strictures of Rule 1006. The latter are illustrative aids, which are now regulated by Rule 107.

The amendment establishes a new Rule 107 to provide standards for the use of illustrative aids. The new rule is derived from Maine Rule of Evidence 616. The term “illustrative aid” is used instead of the term “demonstrative evidence,” as that latter term has been subject to differing interpretation in the courts. 3 (b) Extrinsic Evidence of a Prior Inconsistent
4 Statement. Unless the court orders otherwise,
5 Extrinsic evidence of a witness's prior inconsistent
6 statement is admissible only if may not be admitted 7 until after the witness is given an opportunity to 9 given an opportunity to examine the witness about it,

10 ~~or if justice so requires.~~ This subdivision (b) does not 11 apply to an opposing party's statement under 12 Rule 801(d)(2).

Committee Note

Rule 613(b) has been amended to require that a witness receive an opportunity to explain or deny a prior inconsistent statement before the introduction of extrinsic evidence of the statement. This requirement of a prior foundation is consistent with the common law approach to impeachment with prior inconsistent statements. See, e.g., Wammock v. Celotex Corp., 793 F.2d 1518, 1521 (11th Cir. 1986) ("Traditionally, prior inconsistent statements of a witness could not be proved by extrinsic evidence unless and until the witness was first confronted with the impeaching statement.”). The existing rule imposes no timing preference or sequence and thus permits an impeaching party to introduce extrinsic evidence of a witness’s prior inconsistent statement before giving the witness the necessary opportunity to explain or deny it. This flexible timing can create problems concerning the witness’s availability to be recalled, and lead to disputes about which party bears responsibility for recalling the witness to afford the opportunity to explain or deny. 1 Rule 801. Definitions That Apply to This Article;

2 Exclusions from Hearsay

3 * * * * *

4 (d) Statements That Are Not Hearsay. A statement
5 that meets the following conditions is not hearsay:

6 * * * * *

7 (2) *An Opposing Party's Statement. The 8 statement is offered against an opposing 9 party and:

10 (A) was made by the party in an 11 individual or representative capacity;

12 (B) is one the party manifested that it
13 adopted or believed to be true;

14 (C) was made by a person whom the party 15 authorized to make a statement on the 16 subject;

17 (D) was made by the party's agent or 18 employee on a matter within the 19 scope of that relationship and while it 20 existed; or

21 (E) was made by the party's 22 coconspirator during and in 23 furtherance of the conspiracy.

24 The statement must be considered but
25 does not by itself establish the declarant's 26 authority under (C); the existence or scope of 27 the relationship under (D); or the existence of 28 the conspiracy or participation in it under (E).

29 If a party's claim, defense, or 30 potential liability is directly derived from a 31 declarant or the declarant's principal, a 32 statement that would be admissible against 33 the declarant or the principal under this rule 34 is also admissible against the party.

Committee Note

The rule has been amended to provide that when a party stands in the shoes of a declarant or the declarant's

principal, hearsay statements made by the declarant or principal are admissible against the party. For example, if an estate is bringing a claim for damages suffered by the decedent, any hearsay statement that would have been admitted against the decedent as a party-opponent under this rule is equally admissible against the estate. Other relationships that would support this attribution include assignor/assignee and debtor/trustee when the trustee is pursuing the debtor's claims. The rule is justified because if the party is standing in the shoes of the declarant or the principal, the party should not be placed in a better position as to the admissibility of hearsay than the declarant or the principal would have been. A party that derives its interest from a declarant or principal is ordinarily subject to all the substantive limitations applicable to them, so it follows that the party should be bound by the same evidence rules as well.

Reference to the declarant's principal is necessary because the statement may have been made by the agent of the person or entity whose rights or obligations have been succeeded to by the party against whom the statement is offered. The rule does not apply, however, if the statement is admissible against the agent but not against the principal—for example, if the statement was made by the agent after termination of employment. This is because the successor's potential liability is derived from the principal, not the agent.

The rationale of attribution does not apply, and so the hearsay statement would not be admissible, if the declarant makes the statement after the rights or obligations have been transferred, by contract or operation of law, to the party against whom the statement is offered.

Committee Note

Rule 804(b)(3)(B) has been amended to require that in assessing whether a statement is supported by “corroborating circumstances that clearly indicate its trustworthiness,” the court must consider not only the totality of the circumstances under which the statement was made, but also any evidence supporting or undermining it. While most courts have considered evidence independent of the statement, some courts have refused to do so. The rule now provides for a uniform approach and recognizes that the existence or absence of independent evidence supporting the statement is relevant to, but not necessarily dispositive of, whether a statement that tends to expose the declarant to criminal liability should be admissible under this exception when offered in a criminal case. A court evaluating the admissibility of a third-party confession to a crime, for example, must consider not only circumstances such as the timing and spontaneity of the statement and the third-party declarant's likely motivations in making it. The court must also consider information, if any, supporting the statement, such as evidence placing the third party in the vicinity of the crime. Courts must also consider evidence that undermines the declarant's account.

Although it utilizes slightly different language to fit within the framework of Rule 804(b)(3), the amendment is consistent with the 2019 amendment to Rule 807 that requires courts to consider corroborating evidence in the trustworthiness inquiry under that provision. The amendment is also supported by the legislative history of the corroborating circumstances requirement in Rule 804(b)(3). See 1974 House Judiciary Committee Report on Rule 804(b)(3) (adding "corroborating circumstances clearly indicate the trustworthiness of the statement" language and noting that this standard would change the result in cases like Donnelly v. United States, 228 U.S. 243 (1913), that excluded a third-party confession exculpating the defendant despite the existence of independent evidence demonstrating the accuracy of the statement).

Committee Note

Rule 1006 has been amended to correct misperceptions about the operation of the rule by some courts. Some courts have mistakenly held that a Rule 1006 summary is “not evidence” and that it must be accompanied by limiting instructions cautioning against its substantive use. But the purpose of Rule 1006 is to permit alternative proof of the content of writings, recordings, or photographs too voluminous to be conveniently examined in court. To serve their intended purpose, therefore, Rule 1006 summaries must be admitted as substantive evidence and the rule has been amended to clarify that a party may offer a Rule 1006 summary “as evidence.” The court may not instruct the jury that a summary admitted under this rule is not to be considered as evidence.

Rule 1006 has also been amended to clarify that a properly supported summary may be admitted into evidence whether or not the underlying voluminous materials reflected in the summary have been admitted. Some courts have mistakenly held that the underlying voluminous writings or recordings themselves must be admitted into evidence before a Rule 1006 summary may be used. Because Rule 1006 allows alternate proof of materials too voluminous to be conveniently examined during trial proceedings, admission of the underlying voluminous materials is not required and the amendment so states. Conversely, there are courts that deny resort to a properly supported Rule 1006 summary because the underlying writings or recordings—or a portion of them—have been admitted into evidence. Summaries that are otherwise admissible under Rule 1006 are not rendered inadmissible because the underlying documents have been admitted, in whole or in part, into evidence. In most cases, a Rule 1006 chart may be the only evidence the trier of fact will examine concerning a voluminous set of documents. In some instances, however, the summary may be admitted in addition to the underlying documents.

A summary admissible under Rule 1006 must also pass the balancing test of Rule 403. For example, if the summary does not accurately reflect the underlying voluminous evidence, or if it is argumentative, its probative value may be substantially outweighed by the risk of unfair prejudice or confusion.

Consistent with the original rule, the amendment requires that the proponent of a Rule 1006 summary make the underlying voluminous records available to other parties at a reasonable time and place. The trial judge has discretion in determining the reasonableness of the production in each case but must ensure that all parties have a fair opportunity to evaluate the summary. Cf. Fed. R. Evid. 404(b)(3) and 807(b).

Although Rule 1006 refers to materials too voluminous to be examined “in court” and permits the trial judge to order production of underlying materials “in court,” the rule applies to virtual proceedings just as it does to proceedings conducted in person in a courtroom.

The amendment draws a distinction between summaries of voluminous admissible information offered to prove a fact, and illustrations offered solely to assist the trier of fact in understanding the evidence. The former are subject to the strictures of Rule 1006. The latter are illustrative aids, which are now regulated by Rule 107.

FEDERAL RULES OF EVIDENCE

Rules Recommended for Approval and Transmission

The Advisory Committee on Evidence Rules recommended for final approval proposed amendments to Evidence Rules 613, 801, 804, and 1006, and new Evidence Rule 107. The Standing Committee unanimously approved the Advisory Committee’s recommendations with minor changes to the text of Rules 107, 804, and 1006, and minor changes to the committee notes accompanying Rules 107, 801, 804, and 1006.

New Rule 107 (Illustrative Aids)

The distinction between “demonstrative evidence” (admitted into evidence and used substantively to prove disputed issues at trial) and “illustrative aids” (not admitted into evidence but used solely to assist the trier of fact in understanding evidence) is sometimes a difficult one to draw, and the standards for allowing the use of an illustrative aid are not made clear in the case law, in part because there is no specific rule that sets any standards. The proposed amendment, originally published for public comment as a new subsection of Rule 611, would provide standards for illustrative aids, allowing them to be used at trial after the court balances the utility of the aid against the risk of unfair prejudice, confusion, and delay. Following publication in August 2022, the Advisory Committee determined that the contents of the rule were better contained in a new Rule 107 rather than a new subsection of Rule 611, reasoning that Article VI is about witnesses, and illustrative aids are often used outside the context of witness testimony. In addition, the Advisory Committee determined to remove the notice requirement from the published version of the proposed amendment and to extend the rule to cover opening and closing statements. Finally, the Advisory Committee changed the proposed amendments to provide that illustrative aids can be used unless the negative factors “substantially” outweigh the educative value of the aid, to make clear that illustrative aids are not evidence, and to refer to Rule 1006 for summaries of voluminous evidence.

NOTICE NO RECOMMENDATIONS PRESENTED HEREIN REPRESENT THE POLICY OF THE JUDICIAL CONFERENCE UNLESS APPROVED BY THE CONFERENCE ITSELF.

Rule 613 (Witness’s Prior Statement)

The proposed amendment would provide that extrinsic evidence of a prior inconsistent statement is not admissible until the witness is given an opportunity to explain or deny the statement. To allow flexibility, the amended rule would give the court the discretion to dispense with the requirement. The proposed amendment would bring the courts into uniformity, and would adopt the approach that treats the witness fairly and promotes efficiency.

Rule 801 (Definitions That Apply to This Article; Exclusions from Hearsay)

The proposed amendment to Rule 801(d)(2) would resolve the dispute in the courts about the admissibility of statements by the predecessor-in-interest of a party-opponent, providing that such a hearsay statement would be admissible against the declarant’s successor-in-interest. The Advisory Committee reasoned that admissibility is fair when the successor-in-interest is standing in the shoes of the declarant because the declarant is in substance the party-opponent.

Excerpt from the September 2023 Report of the Committee on Rules of Practice and Procedure

Rule 804 (Exceptions to the Rule Against Hearsay—When the Declarant Is Unavailable as a Witness)

Rule 804(b)(3) provides a hearsay exception for declarations against interest. In a criminal case in which a declaration against penal interest is offered, the rule requires that the proponent provide “corroborating circumstances that clearly indicate the trustworthiness” of the statement. There is a dispute in the courts about the meaning of the “corroborating circumstances” requirement. The proposed amendments to Rule 804(b)(3) would require that, in assessing whether a statement is supported by corroborating circumstances, the court must consider not only the totality of the circumstances under which the statement was made, but also any evidence supporting or undermining it. This proposed amendment would help maintain consistency with the 2019 amendment to Rule 807, which requires courts to look at corroborating evidence, if any, in determining whether a hearsay statement is sufficiently trustworthy under the residual exception.

Rule 1006 (Summaries to Prove Content)

The proposed amendments to Rule 1006 would fit together with the proposed new Rule 107 on illustrative aids. The proposed rule amendment and new rule would serve to distinguish a summary of voluminous evidence (which summary is itself evidence and is governed by Rule 1006) from a summary that is designed to help the trier of fact understand admissible evidence (which summary is not itself evidence and would be governed by new Rule 107). The proposed amendment to Rule 1006 would also clarify that a Rule 1006 summary is admissible whether or not the underlying evidence has been admitted.

Recommendation: That the Judicial Conference approve the proposed amendments to Evidence Rules 613, 801, 804, and 1006, and new Rule 107, as set forth in Appendix D, and transmit them to the Supreme Court for consideration with a recommendation that they be adopted by the Court and transmitted to Congress in accordance with the law.

RE: Report of the Advisory Committee on Evidence Rules

DATE: May 10, 2023

I. Introduction

The Advisory Committee on Evidence Rules (the “Committee”) met in Washington, D.C., on April 28, 2023. At the meeting the Committee discussed and gave final approval to five proposed amendments that had been published for public comment in August 2022. The Committee also tabled a proposed amendment.

Excerpt from the May 10, 2023, Report of the Advisory Committee on Evidence Rules

The Committee made the following determinations at the meeting:

- It unanimously approved proposals to add a new Rule 107 and to amend Rules 613(b), 801(d)(2), 804(b)(3), and 1006, and recommends that the Standing Committee approve the proposed rules amendments and new rule.

II. Action Items

A. New Rule 107, for Final Approval

At the Spring 2022 meeting, the Committee unanimously approved a proposal to add a new rule to regulate the use of illustrative aids at trial. The distinction between “demonstrative evidence” (admitted into evidence and used substantively to prove disputed issues at trial) and “illustrative aids” (not admitted into evidence but used solely to assist the trier of fact in understanding other evidence) is sometimes a difficult one to draw, and is a point of confusion in the courts. Similar confusion exists in distinguishing a summary of voluminous evidence, covered by Rule 1006, and a summary that is not evidence but rather presented to assist the trier of fact in understanding evidence. In addition, the standards for allowing the use of an illustrative aid are not made clear in the case law, in part because there is no specific rule that sets any standards.

The proposed amendment, published for public comment as a new Rule 611(d), allowed illustrative aids to be used at trial after the court balances the utility of the aid against the risk of unfair prejudice, confusion, and delay. The pitch of that balance was left open for public comment --- whether the negative factors would have to substantially outweigh the usefulness of the aid (the same balance as Rule 403), or whether the aid would be prohibited if the negative factors simply outweighed the usefulness of the aid.

Because illustrative aids are not evidence, adverse parties do not receive pretrial discovery of such aids. The proposal issued for public comment would have required notice to be provided, unless the court for good cause orders otherwise. This notice requirement was most controversial when applied to the use of illustrative aids on opening and closing --- leading the Committee to exclude openings and closings from the proposal as issued for public comment.

Lawyer groups (such as bar associations) and the Federal Magistrate Judges’ Association submitted comments in favor of the proposed amendment. But most practicing lawyers were critical. Most of the negative public comment went to the notice requirement; the commenters argued that a notice requirement was burdensome and would lead to motion practice and less use of illustrative aids. Other comments questioned the need for the rule. Others argued (in the face of contrary case law) that the courts were having no problems in regulating illustrative aids.

In light of the public comment, as well as comments from the Standing Committee and those received at the symposium on the rule proposal in the Fall of 2022, the Committee unanimously agreed on the following changes: 1) deletion of the notice requirement; 2) extending the rule to openings and closings (reasoning that after lifting the notice requirement, there was no reason not to cover openings and closings, especially because courts already regulate illustrative aids used in openings and closings and it would be best to have all uses at trial covered by a single rule); 3) providing that illustrative aids can be used unless the negative factors substantially outweigh the educative value of the aid (reasoning that it would be confusing to have a different balancing test than Rule 403, especially when the line between substantive evidence and illustrative aids may sometimes be difficult to draw); 4) specifying in the text of the rule that illustrative aids are not evidence; 5) adding a subdivision providing that summaries of voluminous evidence are themselves evidence and are governed by Rule 1006; and 6) relocating the proposal to a new Rule 107 (reasoning that Article VI is about witnesses, and illustrative aids are often used outside the context of witness testimony).

Because illustrative aids are not evidence, the proposed rule provides that an aid should not be allowed into the jury room during deliberations, unless the court, for good cause, orders otherwise. The committee note specifies that if the court does allow an illustrative aid to go to the jury room, the court must upon request instruct the jury that the aid is not evidence.

Finally, to assist appellate review of illustrative aids, the rule provides that illustrative aids must be entered into the record, unless it is impracticable to do so.

The Committee strongly believes that this rule on illustrative aids will provide an important service to courts and litigants. Illustrative aids are used in almost every trial, and yet nothing in the rules specifically addresses their use. This amendment rectifies that problem.

At its Spring 2023 meeting, the Committee unanimously gave final approval to the proposed new Rule 107. The Committee recommends that the proposed amendment, and the accompanying Committee Note, be approved by the Standing Committee.

B. Proposed Amendment to Rule 1006, for Final Approval¹

Evidence Rule 1006 provides that a summary can be admitted as evidence if the underlying records are admissible and too voluminous to be conveniently examined in court. The courts are in dispute about a number of issues regarding admissibility of summaries of evidence under Rule 1006 --- and much of the problem is that some courts do not properly distinguish between summaries of evidence under Rule 1006 (which are themselves admitted into evidence) and summaries that are illustrative aids (which are not evidence at all). Some courts have stated that summaries admissible under Rule 1006 are “not evidence,” which is incorrect. Other courts have stated that all of the underlying evidence must be admitted before the summary can be admitted; that, too, is incorrect. Still other courts state that the summary is inadmissible if any of the underlying evidence has been admitted; that is also wrong.

¹ This rule is taken out of numerical sequence because it is of a piece with the proposed amendment on illustrative aids.

Excerpt from the May 10, 2023, Report of the Advisory Committee on Evidence Rules

After extensive research and discussion, the Committee unanimously approved an amendment to Rule 1006 that would provide greater guidance to the courts on the admissibility and proper use of summary evidence under Rule 1006.

The proposal to amend Rule 1006 dovetails with the proposal to establish a rule on illustrative aids, discussed above. These two rules serve to distinguish a summary of voluminous evidence (which is itself evidence and governed by Rule 1006) from a summary that is designed to help the trier of fact understand admissible evidence (which summary is not itself evidence and would be governed by new Rule 107). The proposed amendment to Rule 1006 would clarify that a summary is admissible whether or not the underlying evidence has been admitted. The Committee believes that the proposed amendment will provide substantial assistance to courts and litigants in navigating this confusing area.

The rule proposal for public comment received only a few public comments, largely favorable.

At its Spring 2023 meeting, the Committee unanimously gave final approval to the proposed amendment to Rule 1006. The Committee recommends that the proposed amendment, and the accompanying Committee Note, be approved by the Standing Committee.

C. Proposed Amendment to Rule 613(b) for Final Approval

The common law provided that before a witness could be impeached with extrinsic evidence of a prior inconsistent statement, the adverse party was required to give the witness an opportunity to explain or deny the statement. The existing Rule 613(b) rejects that “prior presentation” requirement. It provides that extrinsic evidence of the inconsistent statement is admissible so long as the witness is given an opportunity to explain or deny the statement at some point in the trial. It turns out, though, that most courts have retained the common law “prior presentation” requirement. These courts have found that a prior presentation requirement saves time, because a witness will often concede that she made the inconsistent statement, and that makes it unnecessary for anyone to introduce extrinsic evidence. The prior presentation requirement also avoids the difficulties inherent in calling a witness back to the stand to give her an opportunity at some later point to explain or deny a prior statement that has been proven through extrinsic evidence.

The Committee has unanimously determined that the better rule is to require a prior opportunity to explain or deny the statement, with the court having discretion to allow a later opportunity (for example, when the prior inconsistent statement is not discovered until after the witness testifies). The amendment will bring the rule into alignment with what appears to be the practice of most trial judges --- a practice that the Committee concluded is superior to the practice described in the current rule.

The rule published for public comment provides that extrinsic evidence of a prior inconsistent statement is not admissible until the witness is given an opportunity to explain or deny the statement. It gives the court the discretion to dispense with the requirement, in order to allow flexibility. The default rule brings the courts into uniformity and opts for the rule that provides more fairness to the witness and a more efficient result to the court. The rule received only a few public comments, largely favorable.

At the Spring 2023 meeting, the Committee unanimously gave final approval to the proposed amendment to Rule 613(b). The Committee recommends that the proposed amendment, and the accompanying Committee Note, be approved by the Standing Committee.

D. Proposed Amendment to Rule 801(d)(2) Governing Successors-in-Interest, for Final Approval

Rule 801(d)(2) provides a hearsay exemption for statements of a party opponent. Courts are split about the applicability of this exemption in the following situation: a declarant makes a statement that would have been admissible against him as a party-opponent, but he is not the party-opponent because his claim or defense has been transferred to another (either by agreement or by operation of law), and it is the transferee that is the party-opponent. Some circuits would permit the statements made by the declarant to be offered against the successor as a party-opponent statement under Rule 801(d)(2), while others would foreclose admissibility because the statement was made by one who is technically not the party-opponent in the case.

The Committee has determined that the dispute in the courts about the admissibility of party-opponent statements against successors should be resolved by a rule amendment, because the problem arises with some frequency in a variety of predecessor/successor situations (most commonly, decedent and estate in a claim brought for damages under 42 U.S.C. § 1983). The Committee unanimously determined that the appropriate result should be that a hearsay statement would be admissible against the successor-in-interest. The Committee reasoned that admissibility was fair when the successor-in-interest is standing in the shoes of the declarant --- because the declarant is in substance the party-opponent. Moreover, a contrary rule results in random application of Rule 801(d)(2), and possible strategic action, such as assigning a claim in order to avoid admissibility of a statement. The Committee approved the following addition to Rule 801(d)(2):

If a party's claim, defense, or potential liability is directly derived from a declarant or the declarant's principal, a statement that would be admissible against the declarant or the principal under this rule is also admissible against the party.

The proposed committee note emphasizes that to be admissible against the successor, the declarant must have made the statement before the transfer of the claim or defense. It also specifies that if a statement made by an agent is not admissible against a principal, then it is not admissible against any successor to the principal.

The rule as published for public comment received only a few comments, largely favorable.

At its Spring 2023 meeting, the Committee unanimously gave final approval to the proposed amendment to Rule 801(d)(2). The Committee recommends that the proposed amendment, and the accompanying Committee Note, be approved by the Standing Committee.

E. Proposed Amendment to the Rule 804(b)(3) Corroborating Circumstances Requirement, for Final Approval

Rule 804(b)(3) provides a hearsay exception for declarations against interest. In a criminal case in which a declaration against penal interest is offered, the rule requires that the proponent provide “corroborating circumstances that clearly indicate the trustworthiness” of the statement. There is a dispute in the courts about the meaning of the “corroborating circumstances” requirement. Most federal courts consider both the inherent guarantees of trustworthiness underlying a particular declaration against interest as well as independent evidence corroborating (or refuting) the accuracy of the statement. But some courts do not permit inquiry into independent evidence --- limiting judges to consideration of the inherent guarantees of trustworthiness surrounding the statement. This latter view --- denying consideration of independent corroborative evidence --- is inconsistent with the 2019 amendment to Rule 807 (the residual exception), which requires courts to look at corroborative evidence, if any, in determining whether a hearsay statement is sufficiently trustworthy under that exception. The rationale is that corroborative evidence can shore up concerns about the potential unreliability of a statement --- a rationale that is applied in many other contexts, such as admissibility of co-conspirator hearsay, and tips from informants in determining probable cause.

The Committee believes that it is important to rectify the dispute among the circuits about the meaning of “corroborating circumstances” and that requiring consideration of corroborating evidence not only avoids inconsistency with the residual exception, but is also supported by logic and by the legislative history of Rule 804(b)(3).

The proposal published for public comment provided as follows:

Rule 804(b)(3) Statement Against Interest.

A statement that:

- (A) A reasonable person in the declarant’s position would have made only if the person believed it to be true because, when made, it was so contrary to the declarant’s proprietary or pecuniary interest or had so great a tendency to invalidate the declarant’s claim against someone else or to expose the declarant to civil or criminal liability; and
- (B) if offered in a criminal case as one that tends to expose the declarant to criminal liability, the court finds it is supported by corroborating circumstances that clearly indicate trustworthiness --- after considering the

totality of circumstances under which it was made and evidence, if any, corroborating it. ~~if it is offered in a criminal case as one that tends to expose the declarant to criminal liability.~~

There were only a few public comments to the rule, and all were favorable about requiring consideration of corroborating evidence. But there was some confusion about the two different uses of the word “corroborating” in the rule. What is the difference between “corroborating circumstances” and “corroborating evidence”? The answer is that “corroborating circumstances” is a term of art --- an undeniably confusing one, because it combines the notion of corroborating evidence and circumstantial guarantees of trustworthiness. In contrast, “corroborating evidence” refers to independent evidence that supports the declarant’s account --- under the proposal, that kind of information must be considered in assessing whether “corroborating circumstances” are found.

In using the term “corroborating evidence” the Committee was intending to use the exact language that was adopted in the residual exception, Rule 807, in 2019. But after considerable discussion at the Spring 2023 meeting, the Committee concluded that the better result would be to use a different word than “corroborating”; the deviation from the Rule 807 language is justified by the fact that Rule 807 refers to “trustworthiness” --- not “corroborating circumstances” --- so use of “corroborating” in that rule is not confusing. The Committee determined that it could reach the same result with different terminology.

The proposal unanimously approved by the Committee, for which it seeks final approval, reads as follows:

Rule 804(b)(3) Statement Against Interest.

A statement that:

- (A) A reasonable person in the declarant’s position would have made only if the person believed it to be true because, when made, it was so contrary to the declarant’s proprietary or pecuniary interest or had so great a tendency to invalidate the declarant’s claim against someone else or to expose the declarant to civil or criminal liability; and
- (B) if offered in a criminal case as one that tends to expose the declarant to criminal liability, the court finds it is supported by corroborating circumstances that clearly indicate trustworthiness --- after considering the totality of circumstances under which it was made and any evidence that supports or contradicts it. ~~if it is offered in a criminal case as one that tends to expose the declarant to criminal liability.~~

A major advantage of this revision is that (freed from uniformity with Rule 807) it can specifically require the court to consider both evidence supporting the statement and evidence that contradicts it.

At its Spring 2023 meeting, the Committee unanimously gave final approval to the proposed amendment to Rule 804(b)(3). The Committee recommends that the proposed amendment, and the accompanying Committee Note, be approved by the Standing Committee.
